PROSPECTUS TO THE NEW VOLUME OF

THE UNITED STATES MAGAZINE. AND DIDNOOBATIC BEVIEW. VOLUME XI, COMMENCING JULY, 1842.

JOHN L. O'SULLIVAN, Editor.

By an increase in the number of pages, and by an alteration in its typographical arrangements, the quantity of matter heretofore furnished to the realers of the Democratic Review, will be increased in its future numbers about

SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

The Editor expects valuable aid to his own efforts during the course of the coming year, from a num-ber of the most able pens of the great Democratic Party – together with that of others, in its purely literary department, to which the same political designation is not to be applied. Among them may be particularly named ;

Bancroft.	Parke Godwin	J.L. Stephens
J.L.Cooper.	Hawthorne,	Tilden.
A. Kendall,	Davezac,	Tasistro.
Whittier,	Paulding,	Eames,
Sedwick,	A H. Everett.	Bryant,
Gilpin	Brownson,	Cass.
Buller.	Cambreleng,	C. J. Ingersoll.

The Monthly Financial and Commercial articles, which have frequently been pronounced by the most intelligent criticisms during the past year in themselves alone worth the subscription to the work will be continued from the same able-hand.

An atrangement has been made, by which the Boston Quarterly Review, edited by Mr. Bnowsson, will be merged in the Democratic Review, the latter being a frequent and regular contributor to its pages. It is proper to state, that Mr. Brown-son's articles will be marked by his name - though to most readers they would doubtless reveal them-selves by their internal evidence; and that it has been agreed, under the circumstance. that these contributions shall be independent of the usual lia-bility to editorial revision and control-the author having a similar responsibility for whatever peculiarity of views they may contain, as though appearing in the original work which has been tofore edited with such distinguished ability by himself.

Among other attractive papers in preparation for the forthcoming volume, will be found some personal sketches, reminiscences, and anecdotes of the private life of General Jackson, from the pen of an intimate friend and member of his Cabinet.

The Pertraits of which it is intended to illustrate the numbers of the ensuing year, and which will be executed in a fine style of engraving, by J. L-Dick, of this city, are those of-

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

The subscribers having assumed the publication of the above Magazine, pledge themselves that it shall be promptly issued on the first of each month in the cities of New-York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore and Washington. It will also be sent by the most rapid conveyances to the lifferent towns in the interior where subscribeis may reside. The facilities afforded by the extensive Publishing business of the undersigned enable them to make this promise, which shall be punctually fulfilled. To promote the proper objections in view, and relying upon the united support of the Democratic party, as well as others, the price of subscription is fixed at the low rate of Five Dollars per annum, in all cases in advance; while in mechanical arrangement, and in size, quantity of matter, &c. the Uni-ted States Magazine will be placed on a par, at least with the leading monthlies of England. Each number will contain one hundred and twelve pages closely printed in double columns, from bourgeois type, cast expressly for the purpose, and upon fine white paper; thus giving to the work an increase in the amount of matter of over seventy-five per cent. The Portraits for the coming year, one of which will be given to each number, will be executed on steel in an effective and finished style; by J. L. Dick, which will be accompanied with an original biography; a feature in the plan, which it would be impossible to give in a work of this kind, without the most liberal and extensive support-as they could not be furnished without an outlay of at least $2,500, per annum.

paring the work on a liberal "scale proposed for the coming year, will exceed that of any other Periodical in the country; it therefore presents imperative claims upon the support and patronage of the party whose political tene it is designed to advocate; and to those who are friendly to the advance of our Periodical Literature, it will be considered no less meritorious. There is no section of the country where there could not be found one or more who would desire to be supportera of such a work; and to bring it to the knowledge of such, your friendly assistance is respectively solicited. The following means have been adopted to pro-note the great object of this great undertaking:

It has been put at the lowest possible rate. Five Dollars a year for such a work,-comprising nearly 1500 pages of closely printed matter, in double columns, and including twelve finely engraved Por traits of the leading members of the Leanorratic party,-it must be evident, is much cheaper than the same amount of such matter was ever before farnished at in the United Mates; were not the sys tem of advance paymer's insistel on, and were it not expected that every Republican in the country, able to afford it, will deem it a duty to take the work, and thus create a very large subscription list, it could not be published for less than double the sum.

The very first pens in the country are encaged ir, assistance and furtherance of the project, as will be seen by our Prospectus. Its literary matter shall be the best of its kind hat can be produced, and it is the determination of the Proprietors to make this work unsurpa sed ly any other periodical extant.

Its typographical execution shall be, in all respects, the best that the present state of the art will enable the publishers to produce.

The Democratic Review is got up on truly national principles, and with a disregard of expense never heretofore attempted in periodical literature; this has been predicated upon the firm reliance of obtain-ing a very large list of paying subscribers, and nutil this shall be accomplished, the enterprise will entail a certaiu loss to the proprietors. Every cent of the profit of the expected circulation. will be required to sustain the work at its present improved standard, and enable it to fulfill the destiny which is assumed for it - that of being a truly national periodical - the organ and a worthy representative of the literature of American Democracy.

The publishers fearlessly throw the nselves on the Democracy of the Union for support. Open them will depend to a great extent the success of so great an undertaking. The Publishers and Editor can, and indeed wish, to do more than bring the can, and the work fairly before the public. This the Democracy of the Union for support. Upon they have done-the numbers already published are admitted on all sides to be worthy of the cause.

INDUCEMENTS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

the two most celebrated and popular novelists of the age, and also a NEW NOVEL by Mrs. GORE These novels, when printed by the booksellers, will probably sell for from two to three dollars. A large number of splendid Tales, Romances, Stories, Bio graphical sketches, Memoirs of distinguished churacters, Poetry, Anecdotes and fun enough for a year, &c. &c. will fill up its columns.

Though the promises we have made above may appear to the readers of the prospectus, too libera be fulfilled, we can assure them in perfect sincerity, that we are not only able to accomplish all we have proposed, but that we have in view other striking features and novelties, which will material ly enhance the value of our sheet. The public has pronounced a favorable verdict on our former Mammoth Notions, but we have taken measures for rendering the forthcoming " Levisthan" a still greater prodigy than any of its predecessors. We have eugaged the assistance of several of onr most distinguished literary men, both by making selections and furnishing original articles, and such a rigid censorship will be exercised in making the sheet. that nothing unworthy of being cherished and preserved, will find a place in its columns.
