Late From Texas—More Fighting.

By an arrival at New Orleans from Texas, we learn (per the Crescent city of the 15th) that Gen. Burleson, with 1100 troops, had pursued the Mexicans under Gen. Wall from San Antonio. The enemy were furnishing themselves at the river Medina, and Gen. Burleson intended to attack them at that place, as soon as he received reinforcements. The citizens of Matagorda and the surrounding country were turning out to join the army.
Between 20 and 30,000 Mexicans are now on their way to Texas.
Gen. Wall had advanced from 20 miles of San Antonio east of the river Sillila, where he met Capt. Caldwell, with 100 Texans, an engagement took place, in which 100 Mexicans were killed and 100 more wounded. Capt. Caldwell succeeded in cutting his way through, after being surrounded several days, without the loss of a man. A company of 50 men, from Lagrange, in attempting to re-inforce Captain Caldwell's company, was cut off by the Mexicans, and 40 of them killed, 7 prisoners and three escaped. The Lagrange company kept the Mexicans at bay until they brought their artillery to bear.
Gen. Wall retreated to the Medina 20 miles West of San Antonio. General Burleson was within 4 miles of Medina, with 1,000 men; but knowing that General Wall had barricaded himself he was waiting for reinforcements before he attacked the Mexicans.
It is currently reported that Austin had been burned by the Mexicans.
Several skirmishes had taken place.

Pedestrianism.—Lieutenant Metcalf, of the 1st incorporated Militia, stationed here, decided a wager last week, by walking 56 miles in 24 hours, carrying all the accoutrements of a soldier in heavy marching order, which on this occasion weighed 59 1/2 lbs. Mr. Metcalf commenced at 9 o'clock on Friday night and walked 20 miles without stopping, at the average of four miles an hour; at the end of the 42 miles he rested about 2 hours, and completed the 56 miles in less than 20 hours. There had been no previous training, and it was the first time Mr. Metcalf had carried a knapsack. There were 60 rounds of ball cartridge in the cartridge box, which greatly increased the difficulty of the feat, as the weight of the front strap compressed the chest and impeded respiration.—Hamilton, (U. C.) Journal.

Militia Trainings.—On the 433 page of the Pamphlet laws of the Session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania of 1842, we find the following very important section, in the 'and for other purposes,' of one of acts.
Will the people bear it in mind?
Sec. 14. That so much of the act entitled 'An act for the regulation of the militia of this Commonwealth,' passed the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, as requires the militia to be trained in companies on the first Monday of May of each year; be and the same is hereby repealed.
