DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETING.

The democratic citizens of Columbia county are hereby requested to meet, in County Meeting, at the house of C. DOEBLER, in BLOOMSBURG, on Saturday the 31st day of December, inst. at one o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of expressing their views in relation to the candidate for the next Presidency, and of the expediency of appointing delegates to the state convention to be held at Harrisburg, on the 8th of January next.

DANIEL FORNWALD, STEPHEN BALDY, CHARLES KAHLER, CHARLES F. MANN.

Democratic Standing Committee of Columbia county.

Dec. 16, 1842.

Our thanks are due to the Hon. James Buchanan of the U. S. Senate, and the Hon. B. A. Bidlack, of the House, for early copies of the President's Message.

Some weeks since, we published several queries as to the manner of conducting the general elections, in the hopes that some of our professional gentlemen, especially those residing in Danville, would have given an answer to them, that the people of the county might have known, hereafter, what was their duty. But it seems that none of them are willing to step forward and enlighten the public upon the subject. If their neglect to do so arises from the fear of criminalizing themselves or their friends, it may be perfectly justifiable in the eyes of the law, as no man is bound to testify against himself. But if there is no fear on this head, we think they should have the public good sufficiently at heart, to induce them, without fee or reward, to give the public that information, which is so necessary to the officers to enable them to conduct an election fairly and legally. But as it appears they do not feel willing to give the explanation required, we will throw such light upon it, as our limited means of information will allow. By a reference to law, it will be seen that heavy penalties are attached to the neglect or refusal of the officers to be sworn, and for neglecting or refusing to perform all the duties required of them by law, as well as for admitting illegal votes, including BLACKS. We do not pretend to say that the laws of the state, were so shamefully outraged, as our questions would seem to imply, but we do say, that rumors are afloat in the county, of such a nature, as should induce the states attorney, or at the least, the grand jury to look into the matter, and if such things have been done, let the authors be punished to the utmost extent of the law. No station or standing in society should be allowed to exculpate them from all the penalties attached to a non-compliance with the election laws. Let the subject be probed to the bottom, that equal and exact justice may be dealt out to all, whether the million- air or the vagrant in the street.

The Hon. L. F. Linn has been re elected for six years from the 4th of March next. He received 119 votes out of 170.

The some half a dozen editors in this state, who have exposed the cause of Col. Johnson in opposition to the claims of our own Buchanan, begin to show their teeth, as the time approaches for holding the 8th of January convention, by the democrats of the state, at Harrisburg, for the purpose of bringing forward James Buchanan for the Presidency. Too well they know the universal feeling in this state in his favor, and of the certainty, that the delegates to a National Convention will be instructed for him, and they are endeavoring by all the means in their power to divert the people from it, and to turn their attention to some other candidate, no matter whom. Although they proclaim their preference for the Colonel, yet they are ever ready to get up meetings in favor of Gen. Cass, Mr. Tyler, or any other man, with the view of dividing and distracting the democratic party in this state, that they may create an impression abroad, that Mr. Buchanan is not popular at home. With this view we see the Johnson papers lauding, Gen. Cass and John Tyler to the skies, and throwing out insinuations against Buchanan and his friends. They even go so far as to accuse them of opposing a national convention, when it is known that every Buchanan paper in the state is in favor; not a lip has been heard against it from one of them. We have a kee to this high and cry, however, from a prominent Johnson man, who said that they did not expect to nominate Johnson by the National Convention, but were determined to run him on his own hook, and that they might have a chance of throwing him into Congress, their object was, to do away with the National Convention, and get as many candidates in the field as possible. The Johnson papers, have now come out with this charge against the friends of Buchanan, to cover up their own designs of disunion and distraction. But their veil is too thin, and their hypocrisy is too evident to hide their deformity, and it will do them no good. Pennsylvania is Buchanan to the core, and will insist on his nomination by the National Convention. Should the nomination, however, fall on any other democrat, she will give him her vote, though not with that cheerfulness that she would her own favorite son.

We publish to-day the call of the Democratic Standing Committee, for a county meeting, to appoint delegates to the Buchanan convention to be held at Harrisburg on the 8th of January next. We hope it will be fully attended, that the Star of the North may speak, in language that cannot be mistaken, and proclaim to her sister counties, that she is in favor of sustaining Pennsylvania's interest, and Pennsylvania's claims to the highest office in the gift of the nation.

The President's Message was sent in to Congress on Wednesday of last week, & did not reach us until Friday, consequently not in time for our paper of Saturday. We this week present it to our patrons entire to the exclusion of other interesting matter. The message like all the acts of President Tyler, receives the condemnation of many while it receives the praises of some. Many parts of it, however, deserves commendation from all. We suppose our neighbor below will apply his "democratic lash," by swallowing it, "body and breeches," without greasing it. Remember his brother has recently been appointed Post Master. N. S.

RHODE ISLAND CONSTITUTION.

The vote on the Constitution framed by the Royal Charter party in Rhode Island, and recently submitted to the people was as follow:

Table with 2 columns: For the Constitution (7024), Against the Constitution (51). Sub-sections for Suffrage party and Votes received at the same time.

A New Kind of Canvasser.—The Boston Bulletin says, it was highly amused at the late election by the sight of a large, black, fine looking Newfoundland dog, walking in the middle of the street with a handbill in his mouth, which fell to the knee joints of his fore feet, displaying the names, in large capitals, of the candidates for representatives to the next legislature. The dog elicited much attention from both political parties; but for which party the noble animal was laboring so faithfully is not known.

Value of Chester County Lands.—A farm was sold a few days ago near Chester for $144 an acre. In Chester county, we are reminded by the Register that the price of lands is well sustained.—A small farm a few miles from West Chester was recently sold at $95 per acre, which is maintaining past prices pretty well, all things considered.

Real Estate.—The New York Herald states that on Monday, a valuable property at the northerly corner of Beaver and Broad street, 49 feet 7 inches on Broad street, and 53 feet 8 inches on Beaver street, sold for $16,000 at the Exchange. In 1836, the property would have brought nearly $30,000.

Whooping Cough.—A teaspoonful of castor oil to a spoonful of molasses; a teaspoonful of the mixture given whenever the cough is troublesome, will afford relief at once, it is said, and in a few days effect a cure. The same remedy, it is also affirmed relieves the croup, however violent the attack.

CHEROKEE COMMISSIONERS.

The Hon. EDWARD B. HUBLEY, of this county, late President of the Board of Canal Commissioners of Pennsylvania, and General JOHN H. EATON, have been appointed by the President, Commissioners to make a permanent treaty with the Cherokee Indians, and to adjust all existing difficulties between the various Indian tribes west of the Mississippi. Mr. Hubley is now at Washington, whence the Commissioners will proceed on their mission.—Pottsville Emp.

On the night of the 30th ult. the Barque Isidore, Capt. Foss, of and from Kennebec, Maine bound to New Orleans, went ashore on Cape Neddick, Me. and every soul on board, fourteen or fifteen in number, perished—the vessel which was new and valued at $22,500 a perfect loss.

And on the same night, the Schooner James Clark, of and from St. John, N. B. for Boston went ashore on Rye Beach, N. Hampshire, and six of her passengers perished.

APPOINTMENT BY THE GOVERNOR.

William A. Porter, Esq. to be High Sheriff of the city and county of Philadelphia, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Henry Morris, Esq.

Gen. George McDuffie has been unanimously chosen United States Senator by the Legislature of South Carolina, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Preston, and also for six years after the expiration of Mr. Preston's term of service.

TRIAL OF MILTON J. ALEXANDER.

The trial of Alexander, for the murder of Lougee, which has occupied the time of the Criminal sessions at Philadelphia for the past 8 or 10 days, was brought to a close on Monday, and the case given in charge of the jury. On Tuesday the jury returned a verdict of manslaughter.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.—This body met last Monday and organized by the election of Jas. J. Faran (dem.) Speaker of the Senate, and John Chinney (dem.) Speaker of the House. A bill to divide the State into Congressional districts has been already introduced.
