

PROSPECTUS
TO
THE NEW VOLUME OF
THE UNITED STATES MAGAZINE
AND DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.
VOLUME XI, COMMENCING JULY, 1842.

By an increase in the number of pages, and by an alteration in its typographical arrangements, the quantity of matter heretofore furnished to the readers of the Democratic Review, will be increased in its future numbers about
SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

The Editor expects valuable aid to his own efforts during the course of the coming year, from a number of the most able pens of the great Democratic Party—together with that of others, in its purely literary department, to which the same political designation is not to be applied. Among them may be particularly named:

- Bancroft, Parke Godwin, J. L. Stephens*
J. L. Cooper, Hawthorne, Tilden,
A. Kendall, Davezac, Tassistro,
Whittier, Paulding, Eames,
Sedwick, A. H. Everett, Bryant,
Gilpin, Brownson, Cass,
Butler, Cambreleng, C. J. Ingersoll.

The Monthly Financial and Commercial articles, which have frequently been pronounced by the most intelligent criticisms during the past year in newspapers, have now been transferred to the work which will be continued from the same able-hand.

An arrangement has been made, by which the Boston Quarterly Review, edited by Mr. Brownson, will be merged in the Democratic Review, the latter being a frequent and regular contributor to it. It is proper to state, that Mr. Brownson's articles will be marked by his name—though to most readers they would doubtless reveal themselves by their internal evidence; and that it has been agreed, under the circumstance, that these contributions shall be independent of the usual liability to editorial revision and control—the author alone having a similar responsibility for whatever peculiarity of views they may contain, as though appearing in the original work which has been heretofore edited with such distinguished ability by himself.

Among other attractive papers in preparation for the forthcoming volume, will be found some personal sketches, reminiscences, and anecdotes of the private life of General Jackson, from the pen of an intimate friend and member of his Cabinet.

The portraits of which it is intended to illustrate the numbers of the ensuing year, and which will be executed in a fine style of engraving, by J. L. Dick, of this city, are those of—

- Col. R. M. Johnson, of Kentucky,
Hon. STRAS WRIGHT, of New-York,
" JAMES BUCHANAN, of Pennsylvania,
" JOHN C. CALHOUN, of South Carolina,
" T. H. BARTON, of Missouri,
" R. J. WALKER, of Mississippi,
" THEODORE SEBASTIAN, of Massachusetts,
" C. C. CAMBERLINO, of New-York,
" Gov. DONA, of Rhode Island,
" PORTER, of Pennsylvania.

With two or three of the most eminent members of the great Liberal Party of Europe, from the different countries; or else of others of "home production," according to the facility of procuring portraits from abroad.

ing past the work on a liberal scale proposed for the coming year, will exceed that of any other Periodical in the country; it therefore presents imperative claims upon the support and patronage of the party whose political tenets it is designed to advocate and to those who are friendly to the advance of our Periodical Literature, it will be considered no less meritorious.

There is no section of the country where there could not be found one or more who would desire to be supporters of such a work; and to bring it to the knowledge of such, your friendly assistance is respectfully solicited.

The following means have been adopted to promote the great object of this great undertaking: It has been put at the lowest possible rate. Five Dollars a year for such a work—comprising nearly 1500 pages of closely printed matter, in double columns, and including twelve finely engraved Portraits of the leading members of the Democratic party,—it must be evident, is much cheaper than the same amount of such matter was ever before furnished at in the United States; were not the system of advance payments insisted on, and were it not expected that every Republican in the country, able to afford it, will deem it a duty to take the work, and thus create a very large subscription list, it could not be published for less than double the sum.

The very first pens in the country are engaged in its assistance and furtherance of the project, as will be seen by our Prospectus.

Its literary matter shall be the best of its kind that can be produced, and it is the determination of the Proprietors to make this work unsurpassed by any other periodical extant.

Its typographical execution shall be, in all respects, the best that the present state of the art will enable the publishers to produce.

The Democratic Review is got up on truly national principles, and with a disregard of expense never heretofore attempted in periodical literature; this has been predicated upon the firm reliance of obtaining a very large list of paying subscribers, and until this shall be accomplished, the enterprise will entail a certain loss to the proprietors.

Every cent of the profit of the expected circulation, will be required to sustain the work at its present improved standard, and enable it to fulfill the destiny which is assumed for it—that of being a truly national periodical—the organ and a worthy representative of the literature of American Democracy.

The publishers fearlessly throw themselves on the Democracy of the Union for support. Upon them will depend to a great extent the success of so great an undertaking. The Publishers and Editor can, and indeed wish, to do more than bring the plan and the work fairly before the public. This they have done—the numbers already published are admitted on all sides to be worthy of the cause.

INDUCEMENTS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.
Persons remitting to the publishers a Ten Dollar Note in current N. Y. funds, will receive a copy of the Democratic Review for the ensuing two years.

And a Set of the Work for 1841-42, Gratis, forming the two first volumes of the New Series, which comprise contributions from many of the leading writers of the country, together with a series of beautifully engraved Portraits of the following prominent members of the Democratic party and others, accompanied with biographical notices, viz:
Gen. Andrew Jackson, Martin Van Buren,
Henry Hubbard, Marcus Marton,
Washington Irvin, George M. Dallas,
William C. Bryant, Charles Dickens,
Francis Thomas, E. L. Bulwer,
Garret D. Wall, Alex. H. Everett.

State Capitol Gazette.

Two Dollars for the Session—in Advance.

The undersigned embraces the present opportunity of conveying to his friends and the public, his sincere acknowledgments, for the very liberal patronage which they continue to extend to the State Capitol Gazette; and in his future course he shall use every endeavor to merit their approval of which he has the best evidence in their generous support of the paper. The approaching session of the Legislature will be one of deep interest and importance to the people of Pennsylvania. The election of a State Treasurer, and a United States Senator, and the adoption of an Apportionment Bill, are among the important acts to be performed by the Legislature; and they will engross much feeling and deliberation. With the hope of increasing the usefulness of our paper, we have made ample arrangements, as well for reporting the proceedings of both branches, as for presenting them to our readers at the earliest possible period. We have engaged the most competent Reporters, and our publication will embrace full details of what may transpire in either branch during the session. In many instances we shall give a full report of the debates, and in every instance we shall produce such a synopsis of the discussions, as will convey to the constituent, the course and zeal of his representative. In addition to this, we have employed an able and attentive correspondent at the seat of general government; and our readers may anticipate, not only the earliest Congressional intelligence, but also the earliest and most correct information in regard to the doings of the administration, and the plans and operations upon the political chess-board.

It may be well enough to reiterate, what we stated on assuming the sole ownership and control of this paper, that its political character will remain unchanged. We were educated in the school of Jeffersonian democracy—we have always zealously contended for the principles we then imbibed, and under the broad banner of equal rights, we shall be found rallying, faithfully defending our beloved doctrines, and our hallowed institutions. As an organ of the democratic party, we shall exert every zeal and ability to maintain its usages and principles, and secure the success of its candidates. As a sentinel upon freedom's watch-tower, we shall always be found vigilant and energetic in guarding the rights and liberties of the people; and as a journalist, our columns will contain that quantity and quality of intelligence which cannot fail to please and instruct the general reader.

With these professions of enterprise and declaration of principles, and with renewed assurances of our gratefulness, for the liberal support extended to us, we pledge our zealous exertions to deserve a continuance of the patronage of an enlightened public.

TERMS.

The State Capitol Gazette will be published twice a week during the session of the Legislature, and once a week during the remainder of the year, at the following prices:
The session only, (twice a week) $2 00
The whole year, 3 00

Any person sending us five subscribers accompanied by ten dollars, shall receive a copy for their trouble, gratis. Payments may be transmitted by mail postage paid, at our risk. By a rule of the Post Office Department, Post-masters are permitted to frank letters containing money for subscriptions.

No attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompanies it.

TETTER! TETTER!

ITCH! ITCH!

DR. LEIDY'S TETTER AND ITCH OINTMENT.—An infallible remedy for various affections of the SKIN, removing Pimples, Pastules, and Eruption of the SKIN, and particularly adapted to the cure of TETTER and ITCH.

This ointment has been used in numerous schools throughout the city and county as well as Factories, employing numerous girls and boys, and among whom Tetter and Itch, as well as other Affections of the SKIN, prevailed, with the most unexampled Success. Names of School Teachers, as well as superintendants and Proprietors of Factories, could be given, confirming the above, but for the delicacy they feel in having their names published in connection with such loathsome and disagreeable affections.

Prepared and sold at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, (Sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents,) No. 191 north second street, below Vine; also sold at Lutz's Health Emporium, Bloomsburg. Nov 20, 1841 30

BRIDGE LETTING.

PROPOSALS will be received by the County Commissioners of Columbia County, at the house of Abraham W. House, in Derry township, on Friday the 22d day of December inst., between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 o'clock, P. M. of that day, for building a County Bridge over Chillisquaque Creek at or near Abraham W. House, in said township, of the following dimensions, viz:

It is to be a stone arch bridge, the abutments and pier to be 18 feet long at the foundation and 6 feet thick. 1 feet high from low water mark and 5 feet thick where the arches commence. Wing walls on east side 18 feet long and on west side 20 feet long, 3 feet thick at the foundation and 18 inches thick at the top, 3 feet higher than the filling in on the bridge and covered with good coping stone 5 inches thick, the arches to be 14 feet wide at the foundation. The whole work to be laid in good lime mortar and well pointed.

A NEW ARRIVAL!
KEYS TO THE
HEALTHY EMPORIUM,
Formerly owned by D. S. TOBIAS.
EPHRAIM LUTZ

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends, and the public generally, that he has just received from Philadelphia a new and extensive assortment of

Drugs, Medicines, Oils, Paints
Varnishes, Glass, Dyestuffs,
Confectories, &c. &c.

which, in addition to his former stock, comprises a complete assortment of articles in his line of business. All persons wishing to purchase any of the above articles are particularly invited to call and price the articles in his Store before buying elsewhere as he is determined to sell as low, and by a little Jewing, lower than can be bought any where else in the surrounding neighborhood.

The Subscriber considers it hardly necessary to mention the articles in particular as he is confident that no one can come amiss by enquiring for any article belonging to a Drug Store.

N. B. Merchants and Physicians will find it to their advantage to call and buy such articles as they may stand in need of, as they shall be accommodated at a very low percentage.

In few words all are respectfully invited to call, see and judge for themselves.
EPHRAIM LUTZ.
Bloomsburg, July 16, 1842. 29.

Legislative Keystone

TWO DOLLARS FOR THE SESSION.

The KEYSTONE will, as usual, be published twice a week during the session of the Legislature; and as we shall spare neither pains nor expense in giving full and accurate reports of the proceedings of the two Houses, together with sketches of the debates on all public and important questions, we hope to receive a liberal support from the reading public. The coming session of our Legislature will be one of more than common interest, and persons desirous of obtaining early and correct information from the seat of government, will find it to their advantage to take the Keystone. To lawyers, judges, justices of the Peace, and public officers generally, it will be invaluable, as all the laws of a public and general nature are published in it immediately after their passage, and fully three months before they will be promulgated in any other manner. We shall also have an able correspondent at Washington city, who will keep the readers of our paper apprised of all that is doing at the seat of the National Government.

TERMS.

The terms of the Keystone are as follows:

- For the whole year, $3 00
- For the season only, (twice a week) 2 00

Any person sending us five subscribers for the season, accompanied by ten dollars, shall receive a copy gratis for his trouble. All payments may be transmitted by mail, and all Post-masters are permitted to frank letters containing money for newspaper subscriptions.
