SESSION REPORTER.

The Pennsylvania Reporter,

is published at Harrisburg Penn'a. on every Tuesday and Friday during the session of the Legislature, and once a week during the remainder of the year.

The terms are—For one year THREE DOLLARS, For the session TWO DOLLARS.

Arrangements for a full and impartial report of the proceedings of both Houses of Assembly, have been made. The character of the paper as a faithful chronicle of the doings of the legislature, shall not suffer deterioration while in our charge.

We do not consider it necessary to enter into a detail of the political doctrines we advocate. All the energies of the paper since its establishment in 1827, have been directed to the advancement of the pure principles of DEMOCRACY, and to their permanent ascendancy in every department of the government. The paper has been sustained by the liberal patronage of kind friends, and we trust it will not lose their countenance and support or that of the democracy of the state, in our course—the future of which shall be a reflection of the past.

JOHN B. DIMOCK & CO.
 Any person who will procure us five session subscribers, and forward us ten dollars, shall receive the Reporter gratis, for one year.
