SESSION REPORTER.
The Pennsylvania Reporter,
Is published at Harrisburg Penn'a. on every Tuesday and Friday during the session of the Legislature, and once a week during the remainder of the year.
The terms are—For one year THREE DOLLARS, For the session TWO DOLLARS.
Arrangements for a full and impartial report of the proceedings of both Houses of Assembly, have been made. The character of the paper as a faithful chronicle of the doings of the legislature, shall not suffer deterioration while in our charge.
We do not consider it necessary to enter into a detail of the political doctrines we advocate. All the energies of the paper since its establishment in 1827, have been directed to the advancement of the pure principles of DEMOCRACY, and to their permanent ascendancy in every department of the government. The paper has been sustained by the liberal patronage of kind friends, and we trust it will not lose their countenance and support or that of the democracy of the state, in our course—the future of which shall be a reflection of the past.
JOHN H DIMOCK & CO.
Any person who will procure us five session subscribers, and forward us ten dollars, shall receive the Reporter gratis, for one year.
Harrisburg, Dec. 10, 1842.

A NEW ARRIVAL!
EYES TO THE
HEALTHY EMPORIUM,
Formerly owned by D. S. TOBIAS.
EPHRAIM LUTZ
RESPECTFULLY informs his friends, and the public generally, that he has just received from Philadelphia a new and extensive assortment of Drugs, Medicines, Oils, Paints Varnishes, Glass, Dyestuffs, Confectionaries, &c. &c.
which, in addition to his former stock, comprises a complete assortment of articles in his line of business. All persons wishing to purchase any of the above articles are particularly invited to call and price the articles in his Store before buying elsewhere as he is determined to sell as low, and by a little Jewing, lower than can be bought any where else in the surrounding neighborhood.
The Subscriber considers it hardly necessary to mention the articles in particular as he is confident that no one can come amiss by enquiring for any article belonging to a Drug Store.
N. B. Merchants and Physicians will find it to their advantage to call and buy such articles as they may stand in need of, as they shall be accommodated at a very low percentage.
In few words all are respectfully invited to call, see and judge for themselves.
Ephraim Lutz,
Bloomsburg, July 16, 1842. if 29.

BLANK BOOK MANUFACTORY.
THE subscribers return their sincere thanks to No. their friends for the favors so liberally bestowed on them, and beg leave to assure them that no efforts shall be wanting on their part to merit a continuance of their patronage, both in reference to workmanship and cheapness of price to suit the times.

THE LADY'S WREATH, AND YOUNG LADIES' MAGAZINE.
Is the title of a new work published bi-monthly in Philadelphia, at the extremely low price of
ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.
The design of this work is to furnish, at a low rate, a Magazine, which, as regards literary merit and mechanical execution shall equal the best three dollar magazines. Each number will contain at least forty eight (8 vo.) pages of reading matter.

ENTIRELY ORIGINAL,
from the pens of the most talented male and female writers of the day. One or more SPLENDID STEEL ENGRAVINGS, will be given in each number, and, also, one or series of splendid FLORAL ENGRAVINGS—RICHLY COLORED,
now in course of preparation; decidedly the most attractive series of embellishments ever given in any magazine. One or more pages of new and popular MUSIC, will be given in each number. It will be printed upon new type, cast expressly for the purpose, and upon fine white paper. The work has reached its third number, and, thus far, the result has proved that the design of publishing a Magazine of superior literary merit and elegant execution at the low price of

One Dollar A Year,
could not but be successful. Our subscription list is already double that of any One Dollar Lady's Magazine, and hundreds are added each week.
NEW CONTRIBUTORS,
of known and acknowledged talent have been secured, and the publishers are determined to spare no pains or expense in rendering the work every way worthy the patronage of the public.

CLUBBING AND PREMIUMS.

Editors giving the above five insertions and calling attention to it Editorially, shall receive in addition, the nineteenth volume of the Knickerbocker, commencing January, 1842.

TAILORING,
CHARLES KAHLER, thankful for past favors respectfully announces to his numerous friends, and the public generally, that he still continues to carry on the above business in all its various branches, at his old stand on the corner of Maine & East streets, where he hopes by his long experience in business, that he is prepared to attend and execute all orders in his line of business, with the utmost punctuality and workmanlike manner, as cannot fail to render satisfaction to all those who may favor him with a call. Particular attention paid to cutting, and good fits warranted.
N. B. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work, and cash will not be refused.
Bloomsburg, Dec. 3, 1842.—32.

Legislative Keystone.
TWO DOLLARS FOR THE SESSION.
THE KEYSTONE will, as usual, be published twice a week during the session of the Legislature and as we shall spare neither pains nor expense in giving full and accurate reports of the proceedings of the two Houses, together with sketches of the debates on all public and important questions, we hope to receive a liberal support from the reading public. The coming session of our Legislature will be one of more than common interest, and persons desirous of obtaining early and correct information from the seat of government, will find it to their advantage to take the Keystone. To lawyers, judges, justices of the Peace, and public officers generally, it will be invaluable, as all the laws of a public and general nature are published in it immediately after their passage, and fully three months before they will be promulgated in any other manner. We shall also have an able correspondent at Washington city, who will keep the readers of our paper apprised of all that is doing at the seat of the National Government.
TERMS.
The terms of the Keystone are as follows:
For the whole year, $3 00
For the session only, (twice a week) 2 00
Any person sending us five subscribers for the session, accompanied by ten dollars, shall receive a copy gratis for his trouble. All payments may be transmitted by mail, and all Post-masters are permitted to frank letters containing money for newspaper subscriptions.
