

DENOCRAT.
"TRUTH WITHOUT FEAR."
BLOOMSBURG.
SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1843.
FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES BUCHANAN.
(Subject to the decision of a National Convention.)

We are again at our post, after an absence of several weeks.

The removal bill has been defeated in the senate, by the united exertions of our worthy Senator, and the Danville faction. We will hereafter speak fully of the measures pursued by our opponents to effect this object in opposition to so strong a vote in the county in favor of removal. Headley's Division bill, at the last accounts, had not been finally acted upon in the senate.

We have received a communication signed Theophilus, professing to give an account of certain unpleasant transactions that recently took place in the township of Roaring creek, in relation to the occupancy of a church for religious meetings. As this appears to be a controversy in which the members of the society who own the building referred to, are alone concerned, we see no reason why the affair should be brought before the public through the columns of a newspaper, and more especially so, in a communication couched in harsh and severe language towards some of the most respectable citizens of Roaring creek. If we admit a communication upon one side of the question, reflecting upon the conduct of the other, we should be compelled to publish a rejoinder, if requested, which would undoubtedly result in a protracted warfare, which could not possibly result in any good to either. For these reasons we decline its publication, at least until we are better satisfied of its expediency, than at present.

CONGRESSIONAL.

A bill to reissue Treasury Notes has passed the House. Senate has passed the bill to refund Gen. Jackson's fine by years 24 to nays 20. Mr Adams' bill for a mission to China, has passed the House by a vote of 96 to 59. The pension act of 1838, for the relief of widows of revolutionary officers and soldiers, has been revived by the House. The President, in answering a call from the House, disclaims all countenance of the act of Capt. Thos Ap. C. Jones, in invading the territory of Mexico.

CHANGE IN THE CABINET.

Walter Forward, Esq. has resigned his office as Treasury, and M. John C. Spencer, the present Secretary at War, has been nominated to the Senate in his place. It is rumored that James Mr. Porter, of this State will be appointed in Mr. Spencer's place.

Immense flights of wild pigeons, supposed to be visitors from America, recently appeared in the vicinity of the lakes and hills of Cumberland, England.

A Child of Nature.—A Penobscot Indian was lately sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the jail at Bangor Me.—The day after his commitment his wife presented herself and four children to the jailer, to help serve out her husband's sentence, supposing if they staid five days, it would be counted as thirty days, and would entitle the father of the family to a discharge.

Shaking Hands.—At a duel, the parties discharged their pistols without effect, whereupon one of the seconds interfered, and proposed that the combatants should shake hands. To this the other second objected as unnecessary; for, said he, their hands have been shaking this half hour.

Consolidation.—The Capitolian, editor by E. Guyer, Esq. published in Harrisburg, and heretofore, engaged in advancing the claims of Henry Clay to the Presidency, has united with the Pennsylvania Intelligencer, a paper devoted to the same interest. The object of this union, is to make the organ of the Clay party at the seat government more effective,

A New Case.—One Samuel Goddard neglected to pay the rent for his pew in the Catholic Church at Newport, Rhode Island, and on entering it the other Sunday, the officiating Priest ordered the Sexton to put Samuel out, and he was accordingly turned out of the church. He complained to the justices; but they could not agree, and the case has gone before the Court of Common pleas. The priest contended that the civil law had nothing to do with his management of the house of God, and that he was only using the necessary means to obtain the rent of the pew.

From Port au Prince.—The brig Wm. Neilson, Morris, arrived at New York on Saturday, from Port au Prince, reports when she left, a rumor was current that a revolution had broken out on the south side of the Island, and the planters and others were shipping off their coffee and valuables as fast as possible. The extent of the trouble was not known.

Odd fellows.—About two thousand new members have been added to the Society of Odd Fellows in this State during the last year. Several new charters have been granted for new lodges, within a short time past, and two or three more will be granted at the next meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Some of the bachelors in the Ohio Legislature are for a tax on bustles! We never knew a bachelor yet that hadn't something to say aginst the ladies behind their backs.

By the death of Bishop Griswold, the Eastern Diocese is dissolved. Maine, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island, will hereafter constitute three Dioceses. The Episcopal Church in each of these States must now choose a Bishop for itself or request a neighbouring Diocese to exercise episcopal supervision over the same.

'Ma,' said a little urchin peeping from beneath the bed cloths, 'I am cold; I want some more cover on the bed. 'Lie still, my dear,' said the mother, 'until your sister comes from church—she has got the comforter on for a bustle.'

A GIANT BOY.

They have a giant boy at the Boston Museum who is 11 years old and weighs 265 lbs. or 250 lbs. more than Tom Thumb. The two should form a copartnership, and exhibit themselves together. The Boston boy is 5 feet 2 inches high, and said to be very healthy.

Taxables.—Accordingly to the official statement, there are 387,646 taxables in Pennsylvania. In Philadelphia city, 17,579. In Philadelphia county, 33,562. The next highest county is Lancaster, which has 967. Allegheny has 19,610. The Deaf and Dumb in the State, 694; Blind, 490; Slaves, 26—there being 15 in Bedford county:

In 1840, the population of Southport, Wisconsin Territory, was 337, now it is 1132. They have five churches, fourteen stores and two newspapers and export agricultural products to the yearly amount of $45,000.

An exchange paper says:—E. B. Doolittle is in the habit of robbing our hen-roosts, and stealing our nearest neighbor's pigs in the night. If he does not desist, we shall publish his name!

Florida Indians.—A steamer arrived at New Orleans on the 8th, with Creek Indians, under U. S. command from Florida.

Products of the United States.—A statement, prepared by the Commissioners of Patents, estimates the products of fifteen articles only which were the growth of 1842, at nearly six hundred millions of dollars: Yet there is a constant cry kept up that measures of past years have been destructive and ruinous to the people.

The war tent of General Washington was exhibited at the charity ball given in Baltimore, on the 22d inst.

The Governor General of the Canadas, Sir Charles Bagot, after a brief reign, died at his residence in Kingston, on the 9th inst.
