

The Old Racer Eclipse.—This gallant old horse, says the N. Y. Spirit of the Times, has now attained the age of twenty-nine, having been nine years old when he against Henry in their memorable contest for the Championship of the American Turf. An old turfman who lately saw him for the first time, remarked that he was, all things considered, the finest horse he ever saw.

A Short Courtship.—A gentleman of 45 years of age, named Bakerly, saw for the first time, in Baltimore on Saturday evening last, a young lady of 20, named Mary Granly, became smitten, popped the question, and was married the same night. Quick work that.

Young in Sin.—A letter from Stuttgart, Germany, states that the Cour Koyale, of the Black Forest, sitting at Oberrorff, has just been engaged in the trial of a boy eleven and a half years old named Scheffer, for having, in six months, made 32 attempts at incendiarism, in five of which he succeeded, and of which caused the destruction of 30 houses, valued with their contents, at 170 000R. (442 000f.) He was sentenced to be confined for twelve years.

Anti-Malthusian.—Cloucester county, New Jersey, takes the lead. On Thursday week, the wife of James Devault, residing near Billingsport, was safely delivered of three female children, all of whom are alive and doing well. This is said to be the fourth instance which has occurred within ten years in that county.

The Miller Temple.—The Washingtonians of Boston, are about to take possession of that great Miller Temple, recently erected in that city. The change will be very much for the better. The preachings that will be heard there will now be of some benefit to the public.

Unusual.—The Marengo Patriot gives an account of a man's being frozen to death about five miles Demopolis. This is quite an unusual occurrence in South Alabama. His name was Amos. It is stated that he was somewhat addicted to strong drink.

AMUSING—IF TRUE.

A New York paper announces that a double suit for breach of marriage promise is shortly to come off in that city. A husband and wife but recently married, are the defendants. The husband is sued by a pretty young country girl, and the bride, who was a widow, by somebody else of the other sex. There is no mistake about the community of interest between this couple.

A single establishment in Ohio manufactures silk to the amount of one thousand dollars per month, and advertises to pay four dollars a bushel for all the cocoon which may be offered.

A pair of fine Durham short horned oxen were sold at auction recently in Boston; for $150. They belonged to H. C. Meriam, of Tewksburg.

The first Ecclesiastical Church in New Haven, under the pastoral charge of Rev. Leonard Bacon, contributed last year more than one fifth part of the whole income of Board of Foreign Missions. The aggregate contributions of the church alone for benevolent objects amounted to more than $8000.

Another 'Tea Party' Hero Gone.—Josiah Ward died lately, at Lorian Ohio. He was, says the Buffalo Courier, one of the last of that Brave band who assisted in the destruction of the tea in Boston Harbor. He served his country through the whole Revolution with fidelity. After the Revolution was over, he settled down upon a farm. For forty years before his death he was a good Christian and an honest citizen.

Mr. Kendall, in one of his sketches, states that at the town of Jerral, in Mexico, there is an immense slaughter house, where something like one thousand sheep are killed daily, for their hide and tallow.

Mr. Kendall says that cakes of soap are sometimes used for currency in Mexico. One of his companions had 64 cakes tied up in a handkerchief, returned to him by way of change for a dollar.

Wakefield, the farm in Westmoreland county, Virginia, on which General Washington was born is offered for sale.

Elihu Burritt, called the learned blacksmith, who is at this time master of more than fifty different languages, says that when he first formed a determination to become acquainted with books, being an apprentice at the time to his trade, he earned one day by extra labor a quarter of a dollar, and with this in his pocket, he walked fifteen miles at night, bought a Latin grammar, walked fifteen miles back, and was at his work the next morning at his usual time.

The paragraph we quote below, tells us that it is not unusual that a light should be seen in the western part of the horizon at this season of the year, and which some good people in our neighborhood, have managed to persuade themselves, is a "marvellous prodigy." We extract from the Carlisle Volunteer:

The Zodiacal Light.—This phenomenon which appears occasionally at all seasons, but which we believe, is more apt to be noticed during the month of March than at any other season of the year, has been visible for several evenings past, in the western horizon. It is a faint light, either immediately preceding the morning or following the evening twilight, ascending from the sun in a triangular form, and resembles somewhat the huge tail of a Comet.

Lefevre, the infamous seducer of a young lady in Pennsylvania, belonging to a congregation over which he professed to be Pastor, it seems was not a Minister of the Gospel. He was some time since expelled from the Association of Ministers, and that body at the same time published a card warning the public against him as a wicked and dangerous man.

Pruning Fruit Trees.—It will be found upon experiment, that a wound made on a tree in March or April will look black as soon as the sap begins to flow, and that the sap will ooze out until the leaves have put out so as to receive it; while a wound made in June will remain white and immediately commence healing. A tree that has been broken by being loaded with fruit or otherwise, while the tree is green with foliage, the wound will look white and the wood remain sound, while one broken in the winter by snow, or from other cause, will look black and incline to decay.

It has been my humble lot to spend the most of my time in the spring and fore part of the summer in engraving and pruning fruit trees, and my experience goes to prove that the best time for pruning is when the leaves are full grown, and the tree is in a vigorous and growing state. For at this season, when the sap has been spent in the foliage, and the pores of the wood are filled so that when the limb is taken off, the sun and warm weather will dry the end of the limb and close the pores of the wood against the weather, and the sap will keep the limb alive to the very end, and the healing will be perceived immediately.—Boston Cultivator.

Bloomsburg Academy

THE undersigned tenders his thanks for the patronage he has received, and hopes to merit a continuance, by a diligent attention to his duty as an instructor of youth. He would inform parents and guardians, that the next term will commence on the first Monday in April; and as an entire new arrangement will be made with the classes, it would be very desirable, that all who propose sending will commence at, or as near that time as possible. An infant school will be opened in one of the apartments, if a sufficient number should offer, competent teachers will be provided for each department of the school; in order that all who apply for admission may be accommodated.

The various branches of an English education together with the Greek and Roman classics will be taught, and the moral department of the pupils particularly attended to. The government of the school will be strict, but mild and parental. To avoid misunderstanding, the prices of tuition will be from one to five dollars per quarter or twelve weeks. From the experience of many years as a teacher, the undersigned is well convinced, that improvement is more rapid, when the pupils are graded according to their proficiency, and the number in each department limited.

DERR & M'BRIDE. March 11, 1843—47.

Triumphant Success.
And a new discovery in the Newspaper Business.

A most important and invaluable discovery has been made by a gentleman of this city, by which newspapers may be printed in their present form, and at the same time, capable of being converted at pleasure, into a Magazine form, for preservation. This grand improvement, which is destined to form a new era in the business, effecting an entire revolution in the art of printing mammoth newspapers will be introduced, by permission of the patentee, into the Philadelphia Saturday Museum, commencing in May next. In announcing to the friends of the newspaper press throughout the country a discovery, which will add so immensely to the value of newspapers, the publishers of the Saturday Museum, have, also, the proud satisfaction of announcing the complete and triumphant success of their new Family newspaper. The liberal patronage already secured for this new and popular enterprise, has not only surpassed the most sanguine expectations, but is entirely unprecedented.

IMPROVEMENTS IN "THE MUSEUM."

'The Museum' is now so fairly and firmly established, that we feel warranted in making some very extensive and important improvements. By the first of May, we shall have completed all our arrangements. We shall have in the first place, a beautiful, clear and bold type—in the second, a superb smooth and white paper—in the third, place we shall make an ingenious and novel change in the arrangement of the matter—in the fourth place we shall increase our corps of contributors in all the various departments of a Family Newspaper—in the fifth place, we have secured, at a high salary, the services of EDGAR A. POE, Esq., a gentleman whose high and versatile abilities have always spoken promptly for themselves, and who, after the first of May, will aid us in the editorial conduct of the journal.

The 'Narrative of Townsend's Journey over the Rocky Mountains,' one of the most interesting and valuable ever published, is sent to all new subscribers. At its conclusion, our readers will find themselves in possession of a work which alone will be worth double the subscription to the paper. We shall continue, also, of course, the 'Biographical Sketches and Portraits,' which are now exciting so unexampled an interest. With these and other features continued, and with the improvements in contemplation, it remains to be seen whether we do not amply fulfil our determination of making the very best newspaper in America.

Persons wishing to secure six thousand large octavo pages of useful, interesting, and unexceptionable reading for the select family circle, for the small sum of Two Dollars per year—being at the astonishingly low rate of thirty pages for one cent, or equivalent to one hundred and twenty pages for four cents—should hand their names in now.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum. Three copies for Five Dollars, or Sixteen copies for Twenty Dollars, is the extra inducement offered at present for clubbing.

THOMAS C. CLARKE & CO., Office of the Saturday Museum, Publishers' Hall, No. 101 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia.
