

POETRY.

From the Fincickerbocker, MAN.

The human mind, that lofty thing! The palace and the throne...

The human heart, that restless thing! The tempter and the tried: The joyous, yet the suffering...

The human soul, that startling thing! Mysterious and sublime! The angel sleeping on the wing...

And this is Man! Oh! ask of him, When o'er his vision, dear and dim, The wrecks of time are driven...

A fellow coming out of a tavern one morning rather fuddled, fell upon the doorstep. Trying to regain his footing he remarked...

'I meant to have told you of that hole,' said an Irishman to his friend, who was walking with him in his garden...

The clergy live by our sins, the doctor by our diseases, and the lawyers by our follies. What do printers live on?—echo answers—half!

It is said that however well young ladies may be versed in grammar, but very few of them can decline matrimony.

Singular Case of Desperation.—We read the following alarming case of violence recorded in the St. Louis Ledger:—'Pete makes you look so awful!'

Literary Curiosity.—It will be observed that the following line will read both ways.

Lowd did I live & evil I did dweL!

An Irishman writing a sketch of his life, as he early ran away from his father because he discovered he was only his un-

What can a man do, said a green one yesterday, 'when the sheriff is seen coming up to him with a writ in his hand!'

Remedy! What kind of a remedy? Healing remedy, you goose—run like a hare!

Reasoning for Visiting.—'I must call on Mrs. Braves.'

'I thought,' said the husband, 'you disliked Mrs. Braves.'

'Oh, so I do—I detest her; but she has a horrible tongue. It is best to keep her on the right side of such people.'

Overseign Remedies.—For the gout, and water: dyspepsia, exercise; coals, shoes, blue devils, employment, tooth extraction; rheumatism, new flannel gaiters, debt, retrenchment, love, matrimony; an easy conscience, pay the principal!

'I said a young lady, 'whereabouts do you find that state of matrimony?' replied another, 'you will find that to be one of our united States.'

LADY'S WREATH,

AND YOUNG LADIES' MAGAZINE.

Is the title of a new work published bi-monthly in Philadelphia, at the extremely low price of ONE DOLLAR A YEAR!

The design of this work is to furnish, at a low rate, a Magazine, which, as regards literary merit and mechanical execution shall equal the best three dollar magazines. Each number will contain at least forty eight (8 vo.) pages of reading matter.

ENTIRELY ORIGINAL, from the pens of the most talented male and female writers of the day. One or more

SPLENDID STEEL ENGRAVINGS, will be given in each number, and, also, one of series of splendid

FLORAL ENGRAVINGS—RICHLY COLORED.

now in course of preparation; decidedly the most attractive series of embellishments ever given in any magazine. One or more pages of new and popular MUSIC, will be given in each number. It will be printed upon new type, cast expressly for the purpose, and upon fine white paper. The work has reached its third number, and, thus far, the result has proved that the design of publishing a Magazine of superior literary merit and elegant execution at the low price of One Dollar A Year, could not but be successful. Our subscription list is already double that of any One Dollar Lady's Magazine, and hundreds are added each week.

NEW CONTRIBUTORS, of known and acknowledged talent have been secured, and the publishers are determined to spare no pains or expense in rendering the work every way worthy the patronage of the public.

CLUBBING AND PREMIUM. For the convenience of neighbors, and to facilitate remittances, we will send when remitted post paid.

Seven copies of the Wreath, one year, for $5 00 Four copies of the Wreath and any three dollar Magazine, 5 00 Five copies of the Wreath and any Philadelphia Weekly Paper, 5 00 Fifteen copies of the Wreath, 10 00 Ten copies of the Wreath, and any three dollar Magazine, 10 00 Ten copies of the Wreath and Spark's Life of Washington, in Nos. 10 00 Ten copies of the Wreath, and Scott's Novels, 10 00 Ten copies of the Wreath and Dicken's (Boz's) Works, 10 00 Twenty copies of the Wreath, and any one of the above named works, 15 00 Specimen Numbers furnished, if ordered post paid.

Address DREW & SCAMMEL, Pub. 67 South Third St. Philada.

*Editors giving the above a few insertions, and sending the Nos. containing it marked with ink, to the Publishers, shall receive the work for one year.

Editors giving the above five insertions and calling attention to it Editorially, shall receive in addition, the nineteenth volume of the Knickerbocker, commencing January, 1842.

TAILORING,

CHARLES KAHLER, thankful for past favors respectfully announces to his numerous friends, and the public generally, that he still continues to carry on the above business in all its various branches, at his old stand on the corner of Maine & East streets, where he hopes by his long experience in business, that he is prepared to attend and execute all orders in his line of business, with the utmost punctuality and workmanlike manner, as cannot fail to render satisfaction to all those who may favor him with a call. Particular attention paid to cutting, and good fits warranted.

N. B. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work, and cash will not be refused. Bloomsburg, Dec. 3, 1842.—32.

NEW TURNING Establishment.
