

were introduced in and will sent to the Governor.

In the afternoon, motion of Mr. Rush was taken up. The bill from the Senate to charter the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia, and the same passed and finally reading without amendments.

Subsequently the amendments of Senate Bill severally re-charting the following Banks, were concurred in, viz: Farmers' Bank of Bucks County, Farmers' Bank of Reading. The charter of each is extended for five years. Bills were all sent to the Governor.

SENATE.

The Governor informed that he has signed the bill dividing the State into Senatorial Representative Districts.

The bill to erect a new county out of parts of Jefferson, Clearfield and McKean, passed in final reading.

Beside the Bank Bills mentioned above, the Senate passed the Delaware County and Montgomery County Banks, and sent them to the House.

April 15.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House then took up the General Appropriation Bill and after variously amending the same, passed it finally, and sent it to the Senate.

In convention.—The first ballot 126 votes were given, the name of John B. Bratton having been withdrawn, of which Isaac G. McKinley, (Keystone) received 37, John H. Dimmock 23, and the remainder were scattered all over the Commonwealth. The second ballot was also ineffectual: McKinley had 49, Dimmock 29, Craig 12, Senator Bigler 14, and the remainder scattering. A number of Anti Slaverys and a few Whigs voted for McKinley; amongst whom was Mr. Sharswood of the city. Mr. Barrett then withdrew the name of Jno. H. Dimmock, and the Convention proceeded to a third ballot, which resulted for McKinley 56, Bigler 41, and the remainder scattering—so there was no choice again. An effort was then made to postpone by those who opposed McKinley, but it did not succeed, and on the fourth ballot Isaac G. McKinley received the majority, and was therefore elected to Printer for the English language.

SENATE.

Business before going into Convention was not very important, except that the Senate refused to recede from its amendment non concurred in by the House to the bill for the sale of the main line, requiring the amount of stock to be paid in before the Company should go into operation to be $13,000,000 instead of ten.

POSTSCRIPT.

We have no Harrisburg letters or papers later than the 13th, but learn verbally; that the Legislature adjourned on Tuesday last, both on Monday and Tuesday the House refused to act on the bill erecting the new county of MADISON, by a very large vote. Let all unite in singing a requiem over the political grave of its advocates.

IMPOSITION.

The late freshet, entirely surrounded Danville with water, covering the roads several feet deep, and left no ingress to the village to foot passengers, but by boats. As it was court week, numbers were obliged to attend, and were compelled to pay the boaters and boys of Danville, three cents each to be ferried to and from the glorious island; and no efforts made either by the supervisor or citizens of Danville to prevent this imposition upon the public. This is a true emblem of the grasping avarice of aristocracy, and will be hereafter remembered.

SHADE TREES.

Nothing adorns a village more, or renders it more pleasant to the eye of a traveller, than to see the streets ornamented with beautiful shade trees and we are much pleased to observe several of our citizens planting them in and around their premises. Now is the season to do it, and we hope that our streets will soon be shaded from one end to the other. Let every owner of a lot set out some trees. It will cost but little time and trouble; and no money. If they do; they will never regret it. We say, then; go ahead, and follow up the example set you. Our public buildings especially should all be surrounded by them.

The Harrisburg correspondent of the U. S. Gazette, gives the following account of a barbarous murder which was committed near that place on the 14th inst:

MOST ATROCIOUS MURDER IN DAY LIGHT.

Our town was thrown into a high degree of excitement to day by intelligence of a most unparalleled murder committed in this neighborhood, in broad day light, this morning. A young man named Pattimer, who resided with his parents about 2-1/2 miles from this place, near the Jones town Road, came into town after breakfast, with marketing, and after disposing of the same returned home about 11 o'clock, and on entering the House found his father, who is aged about 72 years, lying just inside the door, his head cruelly bruised and mangled, but not quite dead. He spoke to him and received for reply, 'what is this you are doing to me,' or to that effect (in German.) The son hastened him up, but he was too far gone to give any account of the diabolical deed, and soon expired. But what was the horror of the son upon looking in a more obscure part of the Chamber, when he beheld his mother, lying dead upon the floor, her head literally cleft in pieces and her brains scattered over the apartment! The fiend, or fiends, who perpetrated the deed, must have been surprised in the midst of their hellish purpose, by the arrival of the son, and made their escape. One of the neighbors who was going into town, saw the old man turning his cows out of the stable about ten o'clock, and proceeding met the son returning from town. The murder therefore must have been committed whilst the son was travelling the distance of about two miles. The old man was born in the house and had lived there all the days of his life. They were plain frugal people, much respected by their neighbors, and had saved a little money. The assassins got but about $20 by the act being surprised probably before they had time to sack the drawers—there being some gold untouched in the very place where they found the $20 referred to. The murder was committed with a stick of stove wood after repeated blows. The officers in the pursuit of several suspicious individuals, and it is said that a couple of men have been arrested near Carlisle, under suspicious circumstances. The account given by the son, who is some addict to intemperance, and was a little disguised this morning, is some what contradictory. The old lady was his step mother.

On the 12th the same writer adds: No certain clue has been obtained as yet to the perpetrators of the horrible murder recorded in my letter of yesterday. Four persons were arrested on suspicion, but they were discharged for want of any evidence against them. The one who is committed is a man of rather suspicious appearance, was seen in the neighborhood about the time of the murder, in company with another person of similar appearance. They separated after crossing the river. His companion has not yet been arrested. Suspensions rest elsewhere, which it would not be prudent to notice at present.

A reward of $500 is offered by the son for the apprehension of the felons.

INFORMATION WANTED.

The undersigned is very desirous of obtaining some information in relation to her three brothers, who left their home in York Haven, York county, Pa. in the year 1812. The subscriber was an infant, when her brothers left, and therefore she is compelled to rely upon one circumstance alone, which transpired before their departure. Her father was killed on the turnpike, leading from York to York Haven, at the Big Conewago. One of the brothers was in Harrisburg 2 years since, enquiring after his lost sister, but received no information of her.

Any information addressed to Alexander Buffington, Harrisburg, Pa. will be thankfully received by the distressed sister.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

The charter election of New York has resulted in the reelection of the present Mayor, by from all political considerations a most excellent and efficient magistrate. The Whigs elected only five Alderman and three Assistants, all the rest, with the Mayor, being Democratic. The Brooklyn election resulted in favor of the same political party.

THE NEW MIRROR.

Every number embellished with an original and exquisite Design on Steel—Edited by GEORGE P. MORRIS—illustrated by J. G. Chapman, who is engaged exclusively for the work. Terms, Three Dollars per annum—Single number 62 cents.

In the course of a few weeks the undersigned will commence on his own account, the publication of a New Series of the N. YORK MIRROR, in the octavo form, on an entirely novel and original plan, with a Steel Engraving in every number, and at the reduced price of Three Dollars per annum, or six and a quarter cents per copy.

The New Mirror will appear with many striking and attractive features, distinguishing it from every other periodical. It will be published with new type, on fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful original Engraving on Steel, designed and etched by Chapman, illustrating the letter-press which it accompanies, and which it will invest by peculiar interest. Besides the contributions of all our extensive corps of correspondents—which embraces most of the talent of this country—we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors of England. With such materials, and with such able fellow laborers in the literary vineyard, we hope to present to the American reader a weekly journal of great value and unusual excellence.

The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided. The mirror will be remarkable, we hope, rather for good articles without names, than for poor articles with distinguished names. It will embrace in its scope every department of elegant literature, comprising tales of romance, sketches of society and manners, sentiment and every day life, piquant essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence; wit and humor, fashion and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literary, musical and dramatic criticisms. Its reviews of new works will be careful, discriminating and impartial. It will aim to foster a literature suited to the taste and desires of the age and country. Its tendency will be cheerful and enlivening, as well as improving. It will seek to gratify every refined taste, but never to offend the most fastidious; and it will ever feel its duty to be, to turn the sunny side of things to human eyes.

The work will be published every Saturday; in numbers of sixteen large octavo super royal pages, with double columns, and enclosed in a neat ornamental cover. It will form, at the end of the year two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with the gems of literature and the fine arts.

The very low price at which it will be issued, renders it the cheapest periodical in this or any other country, considering the cost and beauty of its FIFTY TWO ENGRAVINGS, and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving the paper from this commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4 Ann street three dollars, free from expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription may be franked by all postmasters. Agents, carriers and newsmen will be supplied on the usual terms. The Cash System will be rigidly adhered to, without any deviation whatever.

Editor and Proprietor.

It is recommended as a general cathartic for family use—in dyspepsia and all bilious disease, it is invaluable—for Asthma it is considered a specific no case having yet occurred which it has failed to cure—for common colds, inflammatory diseases rheumatism, affections of the liver, &c. and for females, it is a safe and excellent remedy.

From Hon. Robert Monell, Circuit Judge (Sixth Circuit) in the State of New York.

Greene, Nov. 25, 1842.

Col. Longley—Dear Sir: I thank you for the bottle of Panacea sent by Mr. Johnson. I have used one bottle of your valuable medicine for myself, and in my family, and am well satisfied it is a safe and valuable medicine. I have found it the best remedy for bilious attacks, to which I am subject, that I have used. My neighbor, to whom I loaned your medicine speaks of it as great relief in dyspepsia.

Your Obedt. Servt.
ROBT. MONELL.

From Doct. Elias West, of Bingha nlon.

Mr. Longley—Dear Sir: I have used your Great Western Indian Panacea in my family, and have repeatedly prescribed it for patients under my care, and am satisfied that it is always a safe, and in very many cases an invaluable medicine. It operates as a laxative without nausea, or pain, and while it effectually obviates costiveness acts upon the stomach and liver as an alternative, correcting acidity, and restoring the healthy condition of those organs.

Very respectfully yours,
E. WEST.
