

A FATAL FIGHT IN A COURT ROOM.

The Canton (Miss.) Democrat of the 20th ult. gives the following account of a fatal rencontre, in the court room at that place:—

'We stop the press to announce the fact that a fatal rencontre had just taken place in our Court room during the session of the Court, between Mr. Jeremiah Ellington and T. C. Topper, Esq. Mr. Topper was addressing the jury upon the trial of a criminal case, in which Ellington was prosecutor, and was commenting legitimately and properly upon the evidence, when Ellington came up behind him, and struck him twice or thrice over the head with a huge stick. Mr. T. thereupon seized a sword cane that lay near him, with which he stabbed his antagonist under the left arm. Mr. E. died in a few minutes afterwards.'

Pedestrianism Extraordinary.—We yesterday conversed with a gentleman who assured us that on Tuesday last he left Baltimore, at 6 o'clock A. M. and walked from thence to Bladensburg, from Bladensburg to Upper Marlborough, and from Upper Marlborough to this city, which he reached at ten minutes before seven o'clock the same evening—thus walking a distance of 63 miles in less than thirteen consecutive hours! The pedestrian is well known in Baltimore and the adjoining counties, which he frequently visits for professional purposes. We consider the above an extraordinary feat, and worthy of being publicly recorded.—Nat. Int.

Snow Banks in May!—The Northampton Gazette says: 'One of our friends was out at Westhampton a week ago on Saturday, 17th May, and seeing a tree marked at a considerable height from the ground, inquired what it was for. The answer was that it was the exact height of a snow bank two months previous. Our friend, then, on a snow bank four feet deep, measured from its surface to the mark, and found it to be sixteen feet! So that the snow bank was originally twenty feet high! Another fact. The driver of the Commington stage states that on Thursday, 19th May, he passed over a snow bank in the road to Plainfield, five feet deep.'

LATE FROST.

On the night of Thursday the 1st of June, (Summer!) there appears to have been a frost in almost every direction. From Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and other New England States we have places so severe as to injure tender vegetation especially. In Rochester, N. Y., on the morning of the same day light fall of snow, and in Baltimore and in this city, there was a slight snow squall at about six A. M. In some parts of Massachusetts ice was found in the morning. The New York and Jersey papers say that bush beans, Lima beans, cucumbers, egg plants, and tomatoes were killed, unless in sheltered places, and even the potato tops were much cut. The fruit is generally too far advanced to be injured.

In some parts of this State the frost on the first of the present month, has killed the corn. Some of the farmers, as we learn, were ploughing it up on Saturday. The tops of the growing potatoes, for one or two inches, are 'biten' black. Beans and peas have also suffered. Reading, Pottsville, and other interior points make the same report. We have, so far, heard of no frost south of Washington.

Upon looking back, we find that in 1816 there was a frost every month during the year. We have now entered the sixth month of this year, and have so far imitated 1816. In 1825 there was frost in June. In the middle of May, last year, there was a heavy frost which killed the fruit. But this is the only year in eighteen years, in which there has been a heavy frost in June. The fact of the snow fall; last week, however slight, recalls the well known prophecy of Lorenzo Dow, who a number of years since, said that in 1843; there would be no King in England,—no President in the United States,—and snow in June. Every item of this 'guess' by a little straining can be made to appear; but then it involves a 'con-si-ti-tu-tional question.' Little Vic is no King, is John Tyler President, or Mr. Tyler, Vice President, acting, &c?

NEW FINANCIAL SCHEME.

A correspondent in Washington whose occasional letters have given hints of coming events, or hints which seemed to prevent certain contemplated acts, writes to us as follows:

Mr. Spencer has a grand scheme of finance and circulation on foot, to issue ten millions of Treasury notes, all $50; all redeemable at different banks in the large cities, which are to be made deposit banks. The plan is fixed and settled, and it is intended as a movement against a United States Bank by giving a circulation to the country in the form of their notes. Great importance is attached to it by the Cabinet, as a political move, and it will probably be the nucleus on which to build a great political machine embracing discounts and exchanges, &c.—U. S. Gazette.

THE SPECULATORS IN STOCKS.

The speculators who seized hold of State stock, under the expectation that the demand for it by subscribers to the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canal would greatly advance its price, have been sorely taken in by the adjournment of the Commissioners, and the failure to proceed with the subscription. Most of the large operators in State stock for a month past, were persons who relied upon selling it to those who should take stock, and by the fall in price have lost thousands of dollars. The failure of this speculation has thrown a damper over others, and hence we find Girard Bank shares, Vicksburg, and other fancies also falling off—not that the one has any connection with the other as regards their value, but operators are alarmed, and induced to pause in their career. Perhaps it is as well that something has occurred to check the recklessness which the business of our Stock Board but to plainly said was based upon nothing substantial. When the present panic has passed, there is reason to suppose that all stocks of value will rise, until the just relationship between capital and commodity shall be fairly established. While money can be obtained at 4 per cent, good stocks, like those of Kentucky, Tennessee, &c, the interest on which has ever been promptly and regularly paid, cannot long remain below par.—Ledger.

The Norfolk Herald states that Mr. Cushing will meet with great favor among the Celestials, as his name indicates that he is of the Chinese descent. The name originally Cow Shing, afterwards Su Shing and has been Anglicised into Cushing. Not bad.

FOURTH OF JULY, 1843.

Temperance Celebration in Wilkes barre.
BY a resolution of the 'Pollard and Wright Temperance Association of Wilkes barre,' it is proposed to celebrate the coming Anniversary of American independence, by holding a Mass Temperance Convention in Wilkesbarre. Temperance societies, and the friends of Temperance, in Luzerne and the adjoining counties, are respectfully invited to attend in mass, if practicable, and if not by representation. The assistance of several distinguished speakers is expected; and it is hoped that a beneficial demonstration may be made in behalf of this good cause.

The order of exercises, which it is designed to make as pleasant and interesting as possible, will be announced in due time.

Friends of temperance! will you give one day to the advancement of philanthropy and benevolence—to the promotion of a cause which has for its sole object the comfort and happiness of mankind.

The hair cannot grow while the roots are clogged with scurf and dandruff, any more than the tree can flourish whose trunk and branches are encrusted with moss and canker. Scurf and dandruff are caused by suppressed perspiration, and are a certain sign that the vessels of the scalp require invigorating so as to enable them to throw off the moisture which now dries and hardens on the surface of the skin. We know of nothing that will do this half so effectually as Jayne's Hair Tonic, which by promoting the healthy circulation of the blood and strengthening the vessels of the skin, keeps the hair always in a perfectly healthy state.

I am Choking!—I am Choking! said a sick friend whom we visited the other day. He lay on what he supposed to be his death bed. A neglected cold had terminated in violent soar throat, the glands of his neck were swelled almost to suppuration, his pulse was quick and irregular, his face flushed with fever, and his flesh like burning coal. A mass of coagulated mucus had gathered in his throat, and the noise of his breathing resembled what is called the death rattle, for which his medical advisers had undoubtedly mistook it. We bade him not despair, and having before witnessed the extraordinary effects of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant in pulmonary affections, we procured a bottle of it, which we administered as fast as the almost strangled sufferer was able to swallow it. In an hour after taking the first dose our friend could breathe freely.—The phlegm and mucus was dislodged from the mucus membrane to which it had adhered and was expectorated in large masses leaving the trachea perfectly free. Within two weeks the patient was well. Jayne's Expectorant is no less efficacious in acute rheumatism than in diseases of the pulmonary organs. For sale at

EXCHANGE HOTEL.
Centre Street,
Opposite the Town Hall,
POTTSVILLE PA.

J. Seitzinger,
RESPECTFULLY announces that he has taken the large and splendid establishment, the EXCHANGE HOTEL, situated at the corner of Centre and Callowhill streets, nearly opposite the Town Hall, in the borough of Pottsville, which has been thoroughly repaired and materially improved for the accommodation of visitors. The Hotel is forty feet front on Centre st. and one hundred and thirty eight feet on Callowhill, three stories high; it is admirably provided with Parlors, Sitting Rooms, Reading Rooms, and large airy chambers—the most spacious pleasant and convenient Dining Room in the country—a new and superior Bathing Establishment; a full every convenience and comfort to render it in all respects a most desirable Hotel.

No pains or expense will be spared to furnish the Table and Bar with the best that this and the Philadelphia Markets afford; and with a determination to devote his entire personal attention to the comfort and accommodation of those who may favor him with a call; aided by active, careful and obliging servants, he hopes to give general satisfaction.

PRIVATE FAMILIES wishing to visit this highly interesting and healthy Coal Region, will be provided with Parlors and Chambers, which he feels confident will please the most fastidious.

The Stabling attached, is large and well constructed, and superintended by experienced and attentive Odlers. Horses and Carriages may be had at any time to convey persons to any part of the country.

An Omnibus runs from this Hotel daily to and from the Depot, to meet the Cars, for the accommodation of persons travelling on the Rail Road. No charge for omnibus fare to this Hotel.

Longly's Great Western Indian PANACEA.

Compounded entirely of Vegetable Substances: Free from Calomel and other Minerals.
For the history of this Medicine, and its unrivalled and truly surprising success and popularity, see large bills.
It is recommended as a general cathartic for family use—in dyspepsia and all bilious disease, it is invaluable—for Asthma it is considered a specific no case having yet occurred which it has failed to cure—for common colds, inflammatory diseases rheumatism, affections of the liver, &c. and for females, it is a safe and excellent remedy.

NEW CERTIFICATES

From Hon. Robert Mottell, Circuit Judge (Sixth Circuit) in the State of New York.
Greene, Nov. 25, 1842.
Col. Longley—Dear Sir: I thank you for the bottle of Panacea sent by Mr. Johnson. I have used one bottle of your valuable medicine for myself, and in my family, and am well satisfied it is a safe and valuable medicine. I have found it the best remedy for bilious attacks, to which I am subject, that I have used. My neighbor, to whom I loaned your medicine speaks of it as great relief in dyspepsia.
Your Ob't. Serv't.
ROBT. MOTTELL.

From Doct. Elias West, of Singha nten.

Mr. Longley—Dear Sir: I have used your Great Western Indian Panacea in my family, and have repeatedly prescribed it for patients under my care, and am satisfied that it is always a safe, and in very many cases an invaluable medicine. It operates as a laxative without nausea, or pain, and while it effectually obviates costiveness acts upon the stomach and liver as an alternative, correcting acidity, and restoring the healthy condition of those organs.
Very respectfully yours,
S. WEST.
