

POETRY.

SONG.

BY JAMES MONTGOMERY.

When Friendship, Love, and Truth abound
Among a band of Brothers,
The cup of joy goes gaily round

On Halyon wings our moments pass
Life's cruel cares beguiling.
Old Times lays down his scythe and glass

From these delightful fountains flow
Ambrosial rills of pleasure:
Can man desire; can heaven bestow

From Graham's Magazine for August.
I STRIKE MY ELAG.

BY REV. WALTER COLTON U. S. M.

I strike; not to a sceptred king—
A man of mortal breath—
A weak imperious, guilty thing

I strike that flag, which in the fight
The hopes of millions hailed
The flag, which threw its meteor light

I strike to thee, whose mandates fall
Alike on king and slave
Whose livery is the shroud and pall

Thy captives crowd the caverned earth
They fill the rolling sea
From court and camp; the wave and hearth

But thou stern Death; must yet resign
Thy sceptre o'er this dust;
The Power that makes the mortal thing

That mighty voice shall reach this ear
Beneath the grave's cold clod
This form; these features reappear

*Last works of the late Commodore Hull

MY OWN PET WIFE.

Bright is thy forehead pure and free
As the warm love I bear to thee;
And bright to me as summer's sky

Bright is the smile which decks thy brow
And teaches each loved friend to know
The welcome that he has to share

Sweet is thy converse, dear the tale
Wherewith you struggle to regale
Our cheerful mood, and help refine

Dear is the sound of thy light tread
Floating around me as if bred,
With fairy cadence, to beat time

A DIFFICULTY SETTLED.

John, Why is this dirt not taken away?
We have no wagon on the premises.
Then dig a ditch at the back of the house

The rose hath its thorns the diamond its pecks; and the best man his failings!

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE,

THAT having become satisfied from sad experience, that the "UNLIMITED CREDIT SYSTEM," as heretofore practised, is ruinous both to ourselves and our customers, we have decided that it is better for us, and for them, to do a small business for ready pay, than an extensive one for promises, and shall, therefore, sell our goods at a small profit for ready pay, such as COUNTRY PRODUCE, not forgetting CASH, believing that all will be satisfied upon trial, that the "NO CREDIT SYSTEM," is the BETTER "POLICY," as it will, in all cases not only save a large per centage in the purchase money, but is a sure preventative against the exactions of the fees of justices and constables. No small saving these hard times. Then let all remember the motto, "Pay as you go," and no "moccasin tracks" will follow.

Longly's Great Western Indian PANACEA.

Compounded entirely of Vegetable Substances: Free from Calomel and all other Minerals.

For the history of this Medicine, and its unrivalled and truly surprising success and popularity, see large bills. It is recommended as a general cathartic for family use—in dyspepsia and all bilious disease, it is invaluable—for Asthma it is considered a specific no case having yet occurred which it has failed to cure—for common colds, inflammatory diseases rheumatism, affections of the liver, &c. and for females, it is a safe and excellent remedy.

NEW CERTIFICATES

From Hon. Robert Monell, Circuit Judge (Sixth Circuit) in the State of New York.

Greene, Nov. 25, 1842.

Col. Longley—Dear Sir: I thank you for the bottle of Panacea sent by Mr. Johnson. I have used one bottle of your valuable medicine for myself, and in my family, and am well satisfied it is a safe and valuable medicine. I have found it the best remedy for bilious attacks, to which I am subject, that I have used. My neighbor, to whom I loaned your medicine speaks of it as great relief in dyspepsia. Your Ob't. Sery't. ROBT. MONELL.

From Doct. Silas West, of Binghamton.

Mr. Longley—Dear Sir: I have used your Great Western Indian Panacea in my family, and have repeatedly prescribed it for patients under my care, and am satisfied that it is always a safe and in very many cases an invaluable medicine. It operates as a laxative without nausea, or pain, and while it effectually obviates costiveness acts upon the stomach and liver as an alternative, correcting acidity, and restoring the healthy condition of those organs. Very respectfully yours, S. WEST. Agents: Bloomsburg J. R. Moyer, Ephraim Lutz, Lime Ridge, Anderson & Miller.
