OPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES FIFTY YEARS HENCE

Mr Darby, a gentlemao who has paid as country, has published a table in the time amounted to £50 per annum. ational Intelligencer, showing the probable crease of our population to the year 1901 le makes it 101.553.377, or about five mes the present number. Mr. Darby says this prodigious number: -

Even well informed persons, but who ave not paid particular attention to the sulect, may be excusably startled when they ad the future increase and enormous maspopulation stated opposite the year 1901 the foot of either column. The table. owever, contain evidences of internal ac uracy as far as the nature of the e-se car imit, and especially by showing that, in re previous half century to 1840, the popu tion had more than quardrupled. Further but that so established increase was made nder difficulties, some of which are alto ther removed; and all lessened in their teriorating effects, whilst on the other side ilities of transportation by land and wat by steam, roads, and other improved cans, are multiplyed and multiplying beand all human anticipation.
