

FACTS WORTH REMEMBERING.

Not long since our accounts from England indicated a great and continued rise of cotton...

Here is something for the people of this country to reflect upon, as it shows the gigantic power of paper money...

These great operations, on which depend the wealth of hundreds of thousands, the daily bread of millions...

This power is rather too gigantic to be safely wielded by a board of bank directors in London...

With these facts before them, what is the policy of the American people? It is clear as the sun at noonday in a cloudless sky...

cloudless sky; the entire repudiation of the banking system; the thorough extinction of paper money...

This banking system is the great lever by which England has long controlled the business of this country...

Yet with such facts before them; and with all their melancholy experience of the mischiefs which paper money inflicts...

THE TEXAS TREATY—TERMS. The leading provisions of the Treaty of Annexation are said to be as follows:

The treaty is summary in character and explicit, and it is said that the documents which are to accompany it are voluminous...

DEDICATION. We are requested to mention, that the new Methodist Episcopal Church, of Espeytown is to be Dedicated, on tomorrow, (Sunday,) April, 28.

OURSELVES. This number of our paper commences the 7th volume of the Columbia Democrat since it came under our control...

Whig Fairness. Hugh Bellas, Esq. addressed a whig meeting in Danville a few days since, and while speaking upon the subject of the passage of the present Tariff Bill...

ANNEXATION OF TEXAS. The subject of the treaty for the Annexation of Texas, which is now before the United States Senate, for ratification, is one of the most interesting and important subjects now before the people...

Who had the thousand dollars? In Jan. last, there was a balance on the books of the proper department at Harrisburg, against Allen M. Ganger, late Collector at Berwick, of over one thousand dollars.

Low Fare.—An opposition line has been started on the North River, by which the fare is 25 cents from New York to Albany.

ADVERTISING. There is no paper in the county of Columbia, that presents more advantages to the advertiser, than the COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

When we penned the articles in our paper a week or two since, in relation to the Berwick Collector, and the course pursued by Valentine Best, and his 'toad stool'...

When such men as Allen M. Ganger, who last January owed the State a thousand dollars, and Valentine Best, who a short time previous, owed the State a considerable amount...

Resolved, That we view this as a question of momentous importance; nearly concerning itself with the interests and welfare of every section of the country...

Resolved—That in the conclusion and ratification of this Treaty, we rejoice to behold the anticipations so long and fondly cherished by the greatest statesmen of our country, at length fully realized...

CLAY CAN'T BE ELECTED. Facts are coming to light from all quarters, which confirm the opinion expressed by the Newburyport Herald, a whig paper, when speaking of the next Presidential election...

The great democratic gain in Connecticut at the late election confirms the opinion; the local elections in all the states where they are taking place, confirm it...

We were considerably amused with a dialogue related to us in Danville, a few days since, between a couple of whig leaders, whom we will denominate as B. & C.

The reports of two sets of Commissioners for new townships in the upper part of the county came up before the Court on Monday last. In both cases new viewers were appointed.

Indeed friend Cook, we always took you to be an honest man, the true German honesty of heart is there, but we are very sorry you have mistaken views of things.

Resolved, That HENRY CLAY is the ablest Coon, has the longest Tail, and the most rings round it, and the brightest ones of any other Coon in all the American diggings.

Why Mr. Clay should be called the or of the American system, and grounds that system has to be called American, is something that we with our known short sightedness never could get to comprehend.

Indeed, it is a little astonishing, if it seemed convenient to Mr. Speaker [Mr. Clay,] for the purpose of distinction, to make use of the terms 'American Policy' and 'Foreign Policy'...

American system forsooth! tell it not in Geth, publish it not in the streets of Aseylon, yea friend avoid any attempt to palm off on even the marines, so bare-faced; so palpable, so ridiculous a falsehood.
