TEMPERANCE.

The Bloomsburg Temperance Society will meet on Saturday, June 8, at early candlelight, in the Presbyterian Church.
 The public is requested to attend. An address may be expected.

A. FOSTER, Sec.

We this week place at the head of our paper the names of POLK and DALLAS, the nominees of the Democratic National Convention for President and Vice President, with as much pleasure as we ever rallied under the banner of any candidate in a political controversy, believing that the democratic party, the whole party, will be united in their support, and secure their election by a triumphant vote. We are strengthened in our belief from the universal pleasure that covers the face of every democrat with whom we meet, and the chagrin and disappointment that pervades those of the whigs. The whigs had built their hopes of success on a division in the democratic ranks, confidently expecting that a man would be nominated by the National Convention, who would not unite the party in his support; but now, hearing the universal shout from every quarter, of 'Polk and Dallas,' and not a dissenting voice to greet their cheering ear, they are almost ready to give up the contest in despair and vexation.

The nomination has, in fact, completely jostled the whigs from the track, and in order to again reef for service, they must manufacture new matter for their speeches, and new songs must be written; as even the yellow liver has become almost obsolete.— But no matter, new or old, it is all the same to them. Polk and Dallas will be elected, and Henry Clay allowed to remain at Ashland.

We were presented a few days since with a stalk of Rye, from the farm of Jon-ahan Stroup, of Mount Pleasant township, measuring eight feet three inches in length.
 This beats all the boasted Rye, of Danville, not only in length, but it has the quality of being good Removal Rye; and raised too, on what the Danville people call 'the bar-ren lands of Fishing Creek.' We would advise the Danville boasters to try again, and if we cannot again excel them in Rye, we will this fall show them, the growth of one season, a larger and better Furnace establishment than any they can produce in their section.

It is said that a large amount of whig speeches, documents, and electioneering pamphlets had been printed at Washington, folded, directed and franked, ready to be sent throughout the country as soon as it should be announced that Van Buren was nominated. One man it is said had expended eight thousand dollars in printing pamphlets expressly directed against the election of Van Buren. These documents are all now laid up in a dry place at Washington as useless lumber. A new batch must be manufactured to suit the times.

There appears to no union in the report of an insurrectionary movement in Canada, as neither the Canada or Buffalo papers make any mention of it.

Democratic Meeting.
 A very large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic citizens of the vicinity, convened at the house of Samuel Harman, Lime Ridge, Bloom township, on Saturday, June 1, 1844, for the purpose of responding to the proceedings of the B. I. in our Democratic National Convention. The meeting was organized by calling Col. H. WEBB to the chair; and appointing Stacey B. M. Yantz, John Workmeister, Charles Doebler, Solomon Neuhard, Charles Kahler, Vice Presidents; Jacob Garrison and John Swaby, Secretaries.

After the meeting had been addressed by Col. Henry Webb, Col. Levi L. Tate, States B M Yantz, Esq., and Mr Reuben Weaver, the following resolutions were adopted with three hearty cheers, that made the welkin ring, satisfying the whigs present that the Democratic party were united to a man upon their candidates, and thus destroying their fondest hopes of a division in our ranks, and blasting every prospect of the election of Henry Clay.

Resolved—That we heartily and enthusiastically respond to the nomination of JAMES K. POLK, of Tennessee, as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency; and of GEORGE M. DALLAS, of Pennsylvania, for the Vice Presidency, and that we pledge ourselves individually and collectively, to give them our hearty support; and that we will ratify this pledge at the polls in November next, by a majority in the State of the North, of at least 1600.

Resolved—That this be our motto—Democrats push on that column! Raise high the Democratic Standard! and let the Battle shout be, 'Polk, Dallas, Muhlenberg and Democracy'

Resolved—That the proceedings be published in the Democratic papers in the county and at Harrisburg Several very appropriate resolutions were introduced by Mr. Yantz, and unanimously adopted, which we regret to say, have been mislaid, which renders it impossible for us to publish them in connection with the proceedings.

The steamship Caledonia arrived at Boston on Saturday morning last, in the remarkable short passage of twelve and a half days.

The sentence of Daniel O'Connell has been postponed until the next term. Meanwhile he is actively engaged in pushing forward his favorite movement.

The proposed annexation of Texas to the United States attracts the attention of European Governments, The English ministry have resolved to oppose it, if they can.

The Revolution in Italy wears a threatening aspect.

The French Government has receded from its determination to abolish slavery in its Colonies immediately, and a system of instruction and gradual emancipation adopted in its stead.

Portugal is still in a troubled and excited state, and the weakness of the Government rendered more apparent every day.

The Baltimore Sun, speaking of the Convention that nominated Polk, and in reference to the confusion that occured at one stage of its proceedings, paid the following compliments to Col. H.
 B. Wright:—
 "It is due here as a matter of observation, to remark, that to what extent, soever, any of the members of the Convention may think proper to infringe upon the order of the house, it is impossible to award too high a degree of praise, or to flatter with the most labored eulogy, the dignity, forbearance, discretion, urbanity and gentlemanly bearing in every respect of the presiding officer of those exciting scenes. Constant in his efforts to preserve that decorum which should invariably characterize such an assembly, he is entitled to the respect, the esteem and the confidence of all."

Time to Move—We have published the accounts of the great Mississippi flood, which so covered the Illinois bottom, that many doubted whether there was a bottom at all. Many of the inhabitants had to move off in boats.— One individual, the St. Louis Revelli says, was found between St. Louis and the mouth of the Ohio, lately, standing on the site of a departed woodpile, up to his middle in water, & hanging on by the branch of a tree, "Hollo," cried he,
 "How's the river above?"
 "Six feet more—straight on end—coming out of Missouri!" bawled out in reply the captain of the steamboat as it surged past.
 "By gosh!" said the fellow, "well, I'll move!"

An immense mass meeting was held in Philadelphia on Saturday evening last, to respond to the nominations made by the National Convention. Among other resolutions the following were passed.

Resolved—That we cannot but admire the magnanimous conduct of the friends of prominent candidates in the Convention, in sacrificing, at the proper moment, on the altar of their country, their particular predilections and partialities, with a view to promote that unanimity so essential to success against a wily and reckless enemy.

Resolved—That in James K. Polk, of Tennessee, the Convention has given us a candidate who may safely challenge the severest scrutiny of the Federal Press into his public and private life.— We know that he is, and has ever been, a consistent and unwavering democrat —that he came into political life under the auspices of the Sage and Hero of the Hermitage—that a close friendship has ever subsisted between them—that Mr. Polk was found by the side of Jackson throughout his struggle with that monster of iniquity and corruption, the United States Bank—and regard these as just the qualifications that should recommend him to democratic freemen, and for which we will, through the irresistible power of the ballot box, elevate him to the chair of State, which has been worthily filled by a Jefferson, a Jackson and a Van Buren.

Resolved—That the nomination of George M. Dallas for the Vice Presidency is a merited tribute of respect to the Keystone State, by the selection of one of her most talented sons—a pure statesman, a sound lawyer, a ripe scholar, and a ripe democrat, of whom we are justly proud—and who, we pledge ourselves to the democracy of the Union, will go for to the letter and spirit of the Constitution the duties of the station to which his countrymen design to elevate him.

The first State Election which takes place is Louisiana. It occurs on the first Monday of July, about four weeks from the present time. It will be followed by that of North Carolina, on the first Tuesday in August, Tennessee the same time; Alabama the first Monday of the same month; Kentucky the same time, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri at the same time, also. These elections will be anxiously watched by the politicians, and the result will indicate pretty nearly how the same States will go in November, in the Presidential contest.

The General Assembly Adjourned.
 —The Presbyterian General Assembly which has been holding in session at Louisville, Ky., adjourned sine die on the 29th ult. Previous to the adjournment, the "elder questions," which have elicited so much discussion in the Church during the last year or two, were decided. The resolutions before the house went to affirm the decision of the last General Assembly, denying the right of ruling elders to lay on hands in the ordination of ministers, and declaring that, according to the constitution of the Church, three ministers were sufficient to constitute a quorum of a presbytery. The subject was debated for several days, and then the resolutions were adopted by the following vote:—On the ordination question, ayes 151, nays 24, on the quorum question, ayes 131, nays 44.

Dreadful accident at Williamsburg —The New York papers of Saturday record a dreadful accident at Williamsburg on Friday evening. Six children were killed and one badly hurt by the caving of a bank of earth. It appears that they were playing beneath the bank, when it gave way and buried them beneath many tons of earth. Vigorous men, with spades, were instantly at work, and succeeded in rescuing alive the adopted daughter of Mr. Clevenger, ferry master, named Ida Wiggins, who is now able to speak, although horribly bruised and deprived of an eye. The other six were dead before the men at work reached them. One is the daughter of Mr. Paul, druggist, aged 9 years; three are children of Mr. Lewis Jones, carpenter, of Grand street, Harriet and Abigail, aged about 9 and 6 years, and Mary Jones, aged about 18 months; Martha, daughter of George Darlington, aged 4 or 5 years; the sixth is Della Spence, 14 years old, daughter of a laboring man.

The fourth Candidate—Joe Smith has sent recently fifty one missionaries into different States to preach Mormonism, and electioneer for the Prophet as a candidate for the presidency

Immigrants—The number of Immigrants arrived at New York on Friday was 2423. There have arrived at the Quarantine Ground during the month of May, 235 vessels from foreign ports, being an increase of $3 over the corresponding month of last year. The above vessels brought 8950 passengers, being an increase of $140 passengers.

Lakes Huron and Superior—The estimated expense of constructing a canal, 12 feet deep and 100 wide, in the most substantial manner, connecting Lakes Huron and Superior, is $454,107 53. Its length will be about a mile. One of the bills before Congress contains an appropriation for this object. The canal is intended to be large enough to admit the passage of steamers of 600 tons.

Rumors—The following are the latest rumors. What degree of credit is to be attached to them we cannot say.
 It is rumored that Col. Johnson has declined running on the ticket with Mr.
 Tyler, and that Gov. Shannon is to be the substitute. It is also rumored that Mr. Rantoul, of Boston, is to be nominated as Secretary of the Treasury.

COUNTERFEITERS—A nest of counterfeiters has been discovered in Massachusetts and Pulaski counties in the Southern part of Illinois. Several arrests have been made, and one of the fellows tried and sent to the penitentiary. Some fifteen or twenty have been indicted, and supposed this is not more than half the number engaged in the villainous business. The money made was principally half eagles. A Dr. Wyatt, of Massac, was the head of the gang.

The number of deaths in the city of New York last week was 173.

 To Authorize the Removal of the Seat of Justice in the County of Columbia, and for other purposes.
 WHEREAS, a large majority of the taxable inhabitants of the County of Columbia have, by their memorial, set forth to the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, the great hardships and inconvenience they suffer in consequence of the seat of justice for said county being located at Danville, which they state to be situated on the verge of the county, and praying the same may be removed to the town of Bloomsburg. For remedy whereof, Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and burg, in the county of Columbia, to erect, or cause to be erected, at THEIR OWN PROPER EXPENSE, in the town of Bloomsburg suitable mensions than the county buildings now at Danville, for a Court House, prison, and different offices direction of the county Commissioners; who are he will sell cheap.

 He has in his Bee house, several swarms of bees in operation in hives of the above description, which he would invite the public to call and examine, for he believes that all who do so, will at once acknowledge that they are the best hives now in use.
