SAGACITY OF A DOG.

A curious instance of the intelligence of a dag is related. The animal belonged to a celebrated chemist, who tried upon it the essful inroads upon the Federal forces, our effect of a certain poison, and upon the next friends are not idle in the Dictator's own day administered a counter poison, which Kennucky. They are daring enough to had the effect of preserving the poor crea ince's fife. The next day another dose was offered him, but merci ! said he, he would not touch it. Different sorts of parsonous drugs were presented to him, but he reso lutely refused all. Bread was offered, but he would not touch it; meat, but he turned from it; water, but he would not drink. To re assure him his master offered him bread and meat of which he himself ate in the dog's presence, and of that the sagacious animal besi, ated not to partake. He was taken to a fountain but he would drink ne where but from the spot where the water gushed free and fresh. This continued for several days, until the master, touched by the extraordinary intelligence of the poo creature, resolved to make no more attempt upon him with his poisons. The dog in now very gay and very happy, but will eau of nothing that he does not see his master touch, nor will be drink except from the purest spot of the fountain.

EXTRAORDINARY RESCUE.

The schooner Herald, which arrived a Baltimore on the 25th ult, brings the following singular intelligence. A boy twelve years of age was taken from a wreck on the 19th, in lat. 38 40, long. 72 30, who had been imprisoned in the forecastle for nine days. The crews of the Herald, from Bos ton; and the Washington from North Caro lina, cut a hole through the bow of the cap sized brig, and to their great surprise they found a bule prisoner in dark and solitary confinement, sitting on the head of a cash with his feet in water, but having plenty of provisions near him. The boy stated that he was from Jamaica; but could not tell how long he had been in confinement, and sup posed the test of the crew of the brig had not learn the name of the brig, or that of the captain, but from the fact that a boat was picked up at sea on the 14th ult, with the captain and crew of the brig Sir Lionei Smith; from New York for Kingston, Ja maica, which vessel was capsized on the 10th ult, and a boy drowned (as was supposed) in the wreek, it is reasonable to infer that this is the same vessel.

AN INNOCENT MAN HUNG BY A MOB

Under this caption, the Paris (Mo.) Mer rury, narries some curious particulars cun nected with mobilato. Some years since Mr. James Barnes, son of Aquilla Barnes of Missouri, was hung by a mob in Arkan sas, because he was suspected of having murdered the 'Wright family' in one of the counties in that State. Barnes, to the very last, asserted his innocence, but the muwere inexorable, and he was hanged by them. It now appears from statements in the Van Bures (Ark.) Intelligencer, that the real murderers have been found, and are n confinement at Faveneville, in that State -Three are three of them, by the names of Star and Ruese, and they are said to have requently beasted of the crimer they will be convicted, it is said, on the testimony of many witnesses, to these confessions.
