

A DAMPER.

A correspondent of the New Haven Courier, writing from Schem's Head...

Upon my arrival at this place, I noticed a pretty girl who, from her youthful appearance and manners I supposed to be a candidate for matrimony...

I am rejoiced to hear, said the girl that you have succeeded so well in business, and I suppose (she added with a laugh) that you intend taking a wife back with you...

"Oh!" replied his fair companion, "that will be very agreeable—it will make the neighborhood so lively."

I hope it will prove so to you, Hetty, for I have indulged the hope, responded the gentleman, with a warmth which brought the blushes to the cheeks of his beautiful colloquist...

More than friends, Hetty, ejaculated the lover. "Certainly!" returned the lady almost breathless with surprise...

"Mercy on me! Henry, Mr. ———, I mean—Julia, John, come here!" said she beckoning to her brother and sister, who were a few rods distant...

"I do not understand you sir." "Then you are already engaged?" "No—yes—why, Mr. ———, you are jesting—are you not aware—?"

"Speak—for heaven's sake—of what?" "Why," said the lady, recovering her composure and ultimately breaking into a merry laugh, "I have been a married woman these six weeks!"

"Oh—!" "But I have no room for more, and if I had, it is very doubtful whether I ought to write it."

THE ARABIAN HORSE.

I have observed that artists never give that singular appearance of fatigue—and one might almost say of illness—which is the characteristic of Arabian horses...

In the rum bottle, discontent seeks for comfort, cowardice for courage, and modesty for impudence! Very true, but does he find it? A man with the glass, is like a fly with the glass; the more can't get through, the more he runs his head against it.

A dealer in shell fish advertises that his oysters are as young man just out of the country, and will go down as Goliath when killed by a sling.

AMERICAN SERVANTS.

Numberless amusing stories are told illustrating the unfitness of our republican youths, educated in the country, for the situation of servants in fashionable circles...

A young man from Vermont was hired by a family who were in great want of a footman. He was a most friendly personage, as willing as he was free and easy...

THE YELLOW DOG.

Dan Marble tells a good story about the Yankee who lost his yellow dog. Approaching a wood chopper by the road side, the Yankee cries out—Mister, have you seen a yaller dog agoin' along here, about a year, a year and a half, or two years old?

THE FAMILY NEWSPAPER AND FIRESIDE FRIEND. Central in Politics and Religion. NEW YEAR.

Now is the very nick of time to subscribe for the New Year 1845.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER With the largest Subscription List in the World.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

For the purpose of facilitating the formation of Clubs, of NEW or OLD subscribers not in arrears, we offer the following:

- EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS. Three copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, or one copy for three years $5. Seven copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year 10. Twelve do do 15. Seventeen do do 20. Two do do and 1 copy of either of the $3 Magazines 5. Five copies of the Saturday Courier, and 2 copies of either of the $3 Magazines 10. Five copies of the Saturday Courier, and 1 copy of Frost's new Pictorial History of America, a $5 book, 10.

In fact, whatever offer is made, by any other Family Journal, still approaching in worth, beauty or pretensions, to the Saturday Courier, will be furnished by us.

The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years, that it would be superfluous to say much on that subject here. We may remark, however, that to the industry, talent and enterprise, which have for years kept this paper a bright exemplar for all its imitators, will constantly be added the productions of every available writer, and continued judicious and liberal expenditures will continually be made, as in the Literary and Typographical departments. Our means will always enable us to be in advance of all others, and we shall be so.

Histories of Modern Republics.—A new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features, will be a series of Condensed Histories of Modern Republics, by a fresh and vigorous writer who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

Biographies and notices of Distinguished Literary and Scientific Men.

Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the Courier, will be a full and interesting account of the life, progress, and present elevated standing of all distinguished men, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad), in all departments of Art, Science, Literature, Statesmanship, Poetry, Mechanics, Planting, Agriculture, Printing, Merchandise, etc.

This will be a very interesting feature for the Young. It will be a department of the Courier, which it has ever been our aim to render of inestimable value to those for whom we feel so deep an interest as we do for the Young Men of our great and growing Country. The Lives of Distinguished Men are of such value to those who are yet forming their own characters; for the purpose of enacting their parts, correctly, on the Great Stage of Human Life.

Indeed, we hope that this Department of the Courier will be worth more (each year) to every family who have sons and daughters to be reared, than five times the amount we ask for a year's subscription to the Saturday Courier.

Incidents, Histories, Scenes, Battle Grounds, &c., of the American and all other Revolutions.

Under this head, (which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier,) we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts (occasionally beautifully illustrated) of the thrilling incidents, so profusely studied through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest to the readers of the Philadelphia Saturday Courier.

POPULAR TOPOGRAPHY.—To gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to present vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, coves, scenery, etc.

Our original domestic Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the minds and pens in the country. These chaotic productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.

OUR ENGRAVINGS comprise subjects in all branches of Art and Nature, suitable for the family circle, and appear in rapid succession.

OUR TRAVELLER is constantly traversing the world, in search of the wonderful and instructive.

OUR AGRICULTURIST occupies weekly an important space, with all matters of interest for the noble tillers of the soil.

OUR EUROPEAN CORRESPONDENTS, in Liverpool, London, Ireland, the East, &c. keep us regularly advised of all subjects of special interest.

Our Markets and Prices Current embrace all the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Produce, &c., the state of Stock, Banks, Money, and Land; and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our Prices Current of inestimable value to the Traveller, Farmer, and all Business Classes whatever.

Brandreth's Pills.

PICTURE OF HEALTH.

HEALTH is characteristic in an individual by the absence of all pain, suffering, or affliction in any part of his body; by the free and regular exercise of his functions without any exception— They consist in having a good appetite at meal times, an easy digestion, free evacuations, without looseness or costiveness at least once in every twenty-four hours, and without heat, dryness, or burning at the passage, the free issue of the water without acrimony or burning, and without a reddish sediment which is always a sign of a present or an approaching pain; quiet sleep without agitation or troublesome dreams; no taste of bile or other bad taste in the mouth upon rising in the morning; no sourness or disagreeable rising of the stomach; a clean tongue; a sweet breath; no itching, pimples or spots on the skin; no piles; no burning heat upon any part of the body; no excessive thirst when unopposed to labor or other known cause; no interruption to his natural evacuation, nor pain at their periodical return.

Where the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health, it is of the greatest importance that no time be lost in sending for a doctor, or in the use of foolish remedies, to often the result of speculation; instead of this course a dose of BRANDRETH'S PILLS be taken, which will not deceive, but will at once restore health to the organ or part that requires it.

All who wish to preserve their health, all who are determined to defend their life against the encroachments of disease which might send them prematurely to the grave, will, without hesitation, have recourse to the Brandreth Pills, when the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health.

Those who live in a country where contagious or other diseases prevail, should often think of this true picture of health, and observe himself with particular attention, in order to act accordingly. The wise and rightly directed will follow this advice the unwise are left to their own destruction.
