THE TEMPERANCE BALL. TUNE-"Rosin the Beau." Coms all ye true friends of the nation, Attend to humanity's call, Come aid in your country's salvation, And toll on the temperance ball And roll ou, &c.

Ye democrats come to the rescue, And help on the glorious cause, And millions hereafter will bless you. With heart-cheering song of applause. With heart cheering song, &c.

Come whigs, bid adieu to hard cider, And boldly step into the ranks, To spread the proud banner sull wider, Invite all the friends of the banks. Invite all the friends, &c.

And, when we have form'd the blest union. We'll firmly march on, one and all-And roll on the temperance ball. And roll on, &c.

The wife on her infant is gazing, But not now in sorrow alone-A husband her virtue is praising, The dark cloud of sorrow is gone. The dark cloud of sorrow, &c.

The maiden, now truly delighted-Her heart besting wildly with joy-Confides in the vow that is plighted-Her youth is a Washington boy. Her youth is a Washington boy, &c.

The dandy with jealousy's eyeing, His goblet of wine with a tear-The corpulent alderman's sighing, Farewell to his muggin of beer. Farewell to his muggin, &c.

The sot from society's creeping, No more reeling boldly about-The old broken bottle is weeping, The last drop of misery out. The last drop of misery, &cc.

How can you stand halting, while beauty Is sweetly appealing to all, To come to the standard of duty, And roll on the temperance ball, And roll on the temperance ball, &c.

LADIES' AND GENILLMAN'S MAGAZINE FOR 1845.

ARAHAM'S MAGAZINE has long enjoyed The enviable reputation of being the best periodical in the U. S. both in the quality and number of its embellishments, and in the tone of its literary matter. It is the cheapest as well as the best For the year 1844 the publisher has given about 100 pages more original matter than any of his cotemporaries more original steel engravings, in addition to fashion plates and colored flowers. The cheapness and merit of a three-dollar magazine over all others are apparent, which has made an outlay of Seven Thousand Dollars greater than others, and an addition of engravings over other magazines that would embellish the costliest Annual. The publisher is however satisfied that nothing but real excellence can maintain the high position his periodical has attained in the United States,

The publisher does not hesitate to say that h defies all competition with Graham's magazine for 1845. His immense subscription list, the ment the engravers engaged, the number and variety of Jame Glerm, whereon is erected a elegant plates already purchased and on hand, and the immense facility which his capital and position give to prosecute the work render any efforts at rival a matter of ridicule, Every number of the work issued, bears with it the evidence of its triumphant success, and establishes the impossibility of successful competition, improves and extends for good works, that nothing of a humbur order will be tolerated.

Every number of Graham's Magazine is issued at a cost of nearly $4000-the plates alone consist ing nearly half the sum most of the plates are I om Original American Paintings, executed expressly We'll shout when we meet in communion, for the proprietor, for engravings for the magazine. Among the pictures painted for the volume for 1845, are two by Sully, the greatest artist, several by Leutze, Chapman, Inman, Conaroe, Rothermel. Thomson, and others of the best artists of America. The cost of getting up embellishments in this style may be estimated when we state that some of these pictures cost $200 a piece, and will cost us ome of them three times that sum to have them engraved and worked off for the edition of .Graham' But ne cost shall be spared to keep our proud

vorld. GRAHAM'S ELEGANT EMBELLISH-

MENTS.

The most splendid engravings of all sorts lend heir charm to the pages of Graham's magazine Everything in the way of novelty and beauty that ry frame has ever been invited is laid under contribution Nothing that capital and taste can supply is mit ted. First, as the most elegant and appropriate, a well as the most popular embelltshment, we place Sartain's Brilliant Mezzotint Engraving. We were the first to introduce this beautiful style of work, as a regular embellishment of the popular nonthlies. Its wide spread reputation thro? the means of our amplelist, called forth a host of imitators, but up to this time nothing has been produced to rival the glorious pictures given in Graham 'The Shepherd's Love,' and 'The Coquette, These with a host of others, done for us by Mr Sartain, stand 'unprecedented and alone' at the head of American engraving. We have severa of these inimitable plates under way, and shall ave one in the January number. FO POSTMASTERS AND OTHERS

He look'd around, he blush'd, he laugh'd, He sipp'd the sparkling wave ; In it he read, who drinks this draught, Shall dig a murderer's grave.

He started up like one from sleep, And trembled for his life ; He gazed, he saw-his children weep, He saw his weeping wife.

In his deep dream he had not felt Their agonies and fears ; Bai now he saw them as they knelt, To plead with prayers and tears.

But the foul fiend, her hateful spell Threw o'er his wildered mind, He saw in every hope a hell, He was to reason blind.

He grasp'd the bowl to seek relief ; No more his conscience said : His bosom friend was sunk in grief, His children begged for bread.

Through haunts of horror and of strife, He pass'd down life's dark tide ; He cursed his beggar'd babes and wife : He cursed his God-and died !
