

Massachusetts has more newspaper than any three other of the six New England States. In Boston there are thirteen dailies those of the first class being maintained at an expense for operatives alone of not far from $15,000 a year each. To carry on all the New England papers, requires an annual expenditure, on the part of the proprietors, of a vast sum. The capital invested in them is estimated at $500,000.

Whole amount due the county, Jan. 7, 1845, including extortioners & Commissions to Collectors, $15,491 31 1/2

We the undersigned, Auditors of Columbia county, being duly elected to settle and adjust the accounts of the Treasurer and Commissioners, have carefully examined the accounts and vouchers of the same for the year 1844. Do certify, that we find them to be correct as set forth in the foregoing statements and that we find a balance of cash in the Treasury, for county purposes, of six hundred and three dollars and fifty three cents, and a balance outstanding due the county from the above mentioned sources, of fourteen thousand eight hundred and eighty seven dollars and seventy eight cents and a half. Given under our hands, this 11th day of January A. D. 1845.

JOHNSON H. IKELER, JAMES C. SPROUL, PETER KLING, Auditor.

We the undersigned, Commissioners of the County of Columbia, do certify that the foregoing is a full and correct statement of the receipts and expenditures of said county, for the year 1844.

Witness our hands this 11th, day of Jan A. D. 1845

JOHN B. EDGAR, SAMUEL MEARS, FREDERICK M'BRIDE, Com'rs
