EYES RIGHT.

Brag's a good dog,
But Holfat is better.

THE undersigned would return his sincere and humble thanks to the citizens of Bloomburg and vicinity, for the favors thus far bestowed upon him, and would still further ask a continuance of the same, so long only as satisfaction is rendered. He would not say, Come one come all, but come as many as conveniently can. Neither would he promise, (as others have,) to do his work better than can be done in any other shop in the place—but in short, he would neither brag nor banter, but defy any one who does brag to do work neater than he does, in all cases. He has also lately received the

NEW YORK & PHILADELPHIA FASHIONS.

His shop is at the old stand occupied by him for a number of years—And the latch string will be found out at all times. As to prices he wishes to be understood that he intends to do work as low as any of his neighbors, and as usual, all kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work done at his shop.

NEW YEAR.

Now is the very nick of time to subscribe for the New Year 1845.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER
With the largest Subscription List in the World.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.
For the purpose of facilitating the formation of Clubs, of new or old subscribers not in arrears, we offer the following

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS.

In fact, whatever offer is made, by any other Family Journal, at all approaching in worth, value or pretensions, to the Saturday Courier, will be furnished by us.
The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years, that it would be superfluous to say much that subject here. We may remark however, that to the industry, talent and enterprise, which have for years kept this paper a bright exemplar for all its imitators, will constantly be added the productions of every available writer, and continued judicious and liberal expenditures will continue to be made, as well in the Literary as the Typographical departments. Our means will always enable us to be in advance of all others, and we shall be so.

Histories of Modern Republics.
A new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features, will be a series of Condensed Histories of Modern Republics, by a fresh and vigorous writer who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

Biographies and notices of Distinguished Literary and Scientific Men.
Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the Courier, will be a full and interesting account of the rise, progress, and present elevated standing of all distinguished men, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad,) in all departments of Art, Science, Literature, Statesmanship, Poetry, Mechanics, Planting, Agriculture, Printing, Merchandize, &c.

This will be a very interesting feature for the Young. It will be a department of the Courier, which it has ever been our aim to render of inestimable value to those for whom we feel so deep an interest as we do for the Young Men of our great and growing Country. The Lives of distinguished Men are of such value to those who are yet forming their characters, for the purpose of emulating their parts, correctly, on the Great Stage of Human Life.
Indeed, we hope that this Department of the Courier will be worth more (each year) to every family who has sons and daughters to be reared, than five times the amount we ask for a year's subscription to the Saturday Courier.

Incidents, Histories, Scenes, Battle Grounds, &c. of the American and all other Revolutions.
Under this head, [which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier,] we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts (occasionally beautifully illustrated) of the thrilling incidents, so profusely studied through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest or value to the readers of the Philadelphia Saturday Courier. This will be of deep consequence, also, to every member of any family of the American Republic, who may choose to do themselves and us the favor of securing, regularly, the visits of the Courier at their Family Fireside.

POPULAR TOPOGRAPHY.—To gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to present vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, caves, scenery, &c.
Our original domestic Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the minds and pens in the country. These chaste productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.
