

KITCHEN MESMERISM.

Mr. Hood, in the last number of his Magazine—and a capital number it is—has some witty remarks on Miss Mercant's letters. He concludes them with an epistle from one of the inmates of the kitchen:—

'Dear Mary.—This evens begin you well and to advise you to late Mismersing. Its dun with yure H-ho's, and t easy as takin sites at Peper, or talking o yure fingers. If I was nigh you I'd lars you in no time to make Passes, which is only pawin like, without touchin, a sumbaddy's face or back, which givem a titivating feeling on the galvane nerves. And then off they go into Trance in a giffy, and talk to the sleep like orators, I should say Oracle, and anser whatever ax. Whereby you may get your fortin told, and find o other folks sweatharts and luv secrets. And disker Theeves better than by Bible and Key. And have yure inward disord-rs told, and was good for then Saiky's was the indigestibles, and I take as much robbub as would hide a shallin. All which is done by means of the sombulist, that's the sleeper, seeing through every thing quite transparent, their Trance axis called Clare Voying's, that they can pait out munny hid under the Eath, & burried bones, and springs of water, and vanes of mettel, and munny things besides.

'Yesterday I was mesmerized mesell into a Trance, and clare voyed the chork Gout in John's stomach as plane as Margt Clifts. So I proscribed him to take Colly flower, with yure rites should have been Collycinth, but I forgot the propper word. Howsummever he did es two large ones, and promises to cure round.

'It wud make you split yure side with laffin to see me mesmerize o Thomas and make him go into all sorts of odd postures and anticks and capers like a Botterel, for waterver I do he must copy to the snappa of a finger, and cant object to nothing for as the song says I've got his Will and his Power. Likewise you can make the sombulist taste whatever you think proper, so I gave him mesmerized Water wick at my Command is trank moggified on his pallat to Shampain and makes him as drunk as Old Gooseberry, and then he will jump Jim Crow or go down on his bened knees and confess all his peckadillos Watch is as divertin as readin the misteries o Paris.

'The wust to mesmerize is Reuben the Cotchman, not that hes too wakful, for hes generally beery, and goes off like a shot, but he wont talk in his sleep only enotes.

'The Page is more passible and very clare voying. He have twice seed a pot of gold in the middle flower-bed. He says theres a skelliton bricked into the star-case wall, so that we never dares at nite to go up alone. Also, he sees Visions and can professy and have folded two Earthquicks and grate pleg.

'Cook wants to mesmerize too but wat with her brain so much at the fir and her full habit she always gos off to sleep after the Sombulist. But sukey can do it very well. Tho in great distress about Mrs. Hardin's baby wick. Sukey offered to mesmerize in luv o sarrup of Poppies or Godfrey's Cordia, but the poor innocent wont wake up agin, nor haven't for two hull days. As would be a real blessin to Muthers and Nusses in a moderate way, but mite be carried too far and require a Crowners Quest. And yet that's the only Trial we have made out the House, but we mene to mesmerize the Baker, and get out of him who duz he really mene to offer to, for hes quite a General Lov'er.

'Sum pepel is very dubius about mesmerizing, and some wont have it at any price; but Missus is for it, very strong and says she means to believe every atom about it till sumbaddy proves quik the reverse. She practises making passes every day, and is studing Preology besides for she says between the two you may play upon peple's penny-cranniums like the Pany, and put them into any Key you like. And of course her fast performance will be a Master piece on the Head of the Family.

Your loving Friend,
Eliza Passmore.

LAMENTABLE.

The following case of domestic infelicity is too directly in point to be lost, and is too well depicted in the language by the newspaper in which we find it, to be improved by our hands. It is this:

'A young planter in the upper part of the State, lately married to a beautiful and intellectual lady, after the honey moon, has passed, was pained to observe that his young bride looked through full at times, and appeared to suffer much from ennui. Thinking this might be caused by the absence of female companions he induced several young ladies, relatives, to make his house their home, in hopes thereby to render her completely happy. This arrangement had not the desired effect. His beloved though apparently joyous and cheerful while conversing with him, as conversation lagged relapsed into that melancholy mood. Surprised at this, he fell to pondering the cause, and after a lengthy reflection, he came to the conclusion to send to N. Y. for a piano, to be forwarded by the first ship bound for Nachas, Vicksburg, or Grand Gulf. Well the musical composition at length arrived—and a splendid one it was—of beautiful mahogany, ornamented, and polished to the value of a five hundred doll. And then it discoursed such ravishing melody, as the snowy fingers of the young bride pressed the keys. The young planter was in raptures, and congratulated himself on having procured the identical one thing needful to his wife's felicity. Poor man!—he paid his poor compliment to his amiable partner's intellect if he thought she could contentedly pass her leisure hours in drumming over a piano forte!

He was mistaken. Though 'music hath charms' like love, it is not the only desideratum in the world; for while it pleases the ear and touches the heart, but ministers not to the mind! The lady seldom courted Apollo, and her husband had the mortification of feeling that he had not yet made his domestic a paradise to her he avowed. At last to solve the riddle of her discontent, he asked her if she did not at times regret having entered the marriage state. 'Oh no, indeed,' she replied with great earnestness—'never for a moment have I been other than your happy wife; but I sometimes—Well, sometimes what, dearest?—If I must tell you then—sometimes I regret that you do not take the newspaper, Papa takes half a dozen.'

Let every young husband who loves his wife, and who would keep her happy, and thus preserve an amiable temper, remember the case here cited and steadily avoid the error pointed out.

'There is a time for all things,' said crusty old fellow to his wife. 'I'll believe that,' answered his wife in a shrill voice, 'when you pay for your newspaper.' Hit him again, old woman.

EMBRACING the present opportunity of expressing his thankfulness to his friends and the public generally, for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received, informs his friends and the public in general, that he still continues to carry on the above business at his old established stand, on the corner of Main and East streets, where he hopes, by strict attention to business, to receive and merit a share of public patronage as heretofore. He deems it unnecessary to go into the minutiae of his trade, or to use any soft soldier about his SKILL in the PROFESSION OF GAYMENT CUTTING, as his shop is of long standing and his work is well known to all eyes, and far more than hands words. But, he would merely say that, he warrants his work done with neatness, durability and in the latest fashionable manner, and will give a good fit in all cases.

In fact, whatever offer is made, by any other Family Journal, at all approaching in worth, beauty or pretensions, to the Saturday Courier, will be furnished by us.

The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years, that it would be superfluous to say much on that subject here. We may remark however, that to the industry, talent and enterprise, which have for years kept this paper a bright exemplar for all its imitators, will constantly be added the productions of every available writer, and continued judicious and liberal expenditures will continually be made, as well in the Literary as the Typographical departments. Our means will always enable us to be in advance of all others, and we shall be so.

Histories of Modern Republics.—A new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features, will be a series of Condensed Histories of Modern Republics, by a fresh and vigorous writer, who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

Biographies and notices of Distinguished Literary and Scientific Men.—Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the Courier, will be a full and interesting account of the rise, progress, and present elevated standing of distinguished men, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad), in all departments of Art, Science, Literature, Statesmanship, Poetry, Mechanics, Painting, Agriculture, Printing, Merchandize, &c.

This will be a very interesting feature for the Young. It will be a department of the Courier, which it has ever been our aim to render of inestimable value to those for whom we feel so deep an interest as we do for the Young Men of our great and growing Country. The Lives of Distinguished Men are of such value to those who are yet forming their own characters; for the purpose of emulating their parts, correctly, on the Great Stage of Human Life.

Indeed, we hope that this Department of the Courier will be worth more (each year) to every family who have sons and daughters to be reared, than five times the amount we ask for a year's subscription to the Saturday Courier.

Incidents, Histories, Scenes, Battles, Grounds, &c., of the American and all other Revolutions.

Under this head, (which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier), we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts (occasionally beautifully illustrated) of the brilliant incidents, so profusely studied through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest to value the readers of the Philadelphia Saturday Courier. This will be of deep consequence, also, to every member of any family of the American republic, who may choose to do themselves and us the favor of securing, regularly, the visits of this Courier at their Family Fireside.

FOUR LAR TOPOGRAPHY.—To gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to present vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, caves, scenery, &c.

Our original domestic Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the minds and pens in the country. These elegant productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.

OUR ENGRAVINGS comprise subjects in all branches of Art and Nature, suitable for the family circle, and appear in rapid succession.

OUR TRAVELLER is constantly traversing the world, in search of the wonderful and instructive.

OUR AGRICULTURIST occupies weekly an important space, with all matters of interest for the noble tillers of the soil.

Our European Correspondents, in Liverpool, London, Ireland, the East, &c. keep us regularly advised of all subjects of special interest.

Our Markets and Prices. Current embrace all the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money and Lard, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our Prices Current of inestimable value to the Traveller, Farmer, and all Business Classes whatever.

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S MAGAZINE
FOR 1845.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE has long enjoyed the enviable reputation of being the best read in the U. S. both in the quality and number of its embellishments, and in the tone of its literary matters. It is the cheapest as well as the best. For the year 1844 the publisher has given about 100 pages more original matter than any of his contemporaries, more original steel engravings, in addition to fashion plates and colored flowers. The cheapness and merit of a three-dollar magazine over all others are apparent, which has made an outlay of Seven Thousand Dollars greater than others, and an addition of engravings over other magazines that would embellish the costliest Annual. The publisher is however satisfied that nothing but real excellence can maintain the high position his periodical has attained in the United States.

The publisher does not hesitate to say that he defies all competition with Graham's magazine for 1845. His immense subscription list, the merit and number of his contributors, the high order of the engravings engaged, the number and variety of elegant plates already purchased and on hand, and the immense facility which his capital and position give to prosecute the work render any efforts at rival a matter of ridicule. Every number of the work issued, bears with it the evidence of its triumphant success, and establishes the impossibility of successful competition, improves and extends for good works, that nothing of a humbug order will be tolerated.

Every number of Graham's Magazine is issued at a cost of nearly $4000—the plates alone consisting nearly half the sum most of the plates are from Original American Paintings, executed expressly for the proprietor, for engravings for the magazine. Among the pictures painted for the volume for 1845, are two by Sully, the greatest artist, several by Leutze, Chapman, Inman, Comroe, Rothermel, Thomson, and others of the best artists of America. The cost of getting up embellishments in this style may be estimated when we state that some of these pictures cost $200 a piece, and will cost us some of them three times that sum to have them engraved and worked off for the edition of 'Graham' but we do not wish to spare to keep our proud position at the head of the Periodicals of the world.

GRAHAM'S ELEGANT EMBELLISHMENTS.
The most splendid engravings of all sorts lend their charm to the pages of Graham's magazine. Everything, in the way of novelty and beauty that has ever been invented is laid under contribution. Nothing that capital and taste can supply is omitted. First, as the most elegant and appropriate, as well as the most popular embellishment, we place Surtain's Brilliant Mezzotint Engraving.

We were the first to introduce this beautiful style of work, as a regular embellishment of the popular monthlies. Its wide spread reputation thro' the means of our engraving, called forth a host of imitators, but up to this time nothing has been produced to rival the glorious pictures given in Graham, 'The Shepherd's Love,' and 'The Coquette,' these with a host of others, done for us by Mr. Surtain, stand 'unprecedented and alone' at the head of American engraving. We have several of these imitable plates under way, and shall give one in the January number.

TO POSTMASTERS AND OTHERS
The high merit of Graham's magazine considered the publisher flatters himself that the following liberal terms will induce thousands to subscribe.

TO CLUBS.
The following proposals are made:—2 copies for $5; 5 for $10; 8 for $15; 11 for $20.

To the Postmaster, and other persons forming a club, the Publisher will forward a Novel for every subscriber sent, so that by varying the books, a complete library may be obtained by any person in a short time.

Single Copies, three dollars per annum in advance. And to the person sending the money, a copy of "Ringwood the Rover," Heriot's price Novel and also a copy of The Gems of Art and Beauty," a beautiful work for a lady's Chamber Table, containing thirteen splendid steel and mezzotint Engravings, will be forwarded gratis. Address,
GEORGE R. GRAHAM,
No. 89 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

Brandreth's Pills.
PICTURE OF HEALTH.

HEALTH is cherished in an individuality in the absence of all pain, suffering, or affliction in any part of his body; by the free and regular exercise of his functions without any exception.— They consist in having a good appetite at meal times, an easy digestion, free evacuations, without looseness or costiveness at least once in every twenty-four hours, and without heat, dryness, or burning at the passage, the free issue of the water without acrimony or burning, and without a reddish sediment which is always a sign of a present or an approaching pain; quiet sleep without agitation or troublesome dreams; no taste of bile or other bad taste in the mouth upon rising in the morning; no sourness or disagreeable rising of the stomach; a clean tongue; a sweet breath; no itching pimples or spots on the skin; no pain; no burning heat upon any part of the body; no excessive thirst when unopposed to labor or other known cause; no interruption to any natural evacuation, nor pain at their periodical return.

Where the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health, it is of the greatest importance that no time be lost in sending for a doctor, or in the use of foolish remedies, too often the result of speculation; instead of this course take a dose of BRANDRETH'S PILLS, which will not deceive, but will at once restore health to the organ or part that requires it.

All who wish to preserve their health, all who are determined to defend their life against the encroachments of disease which might send them prematurely to the grave, will, without hesitation, have recourse to the Brandreth Pills, when the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health.

Those who live in a country where contagious or other diseases prevail, should often think of this true picture of health, and observe himself with particular attention, in order to act accordingly. The wise and rightly directed will follow this advice: the unwise are left to their own destruction.
