

THE LADY THAT WAS TOO FASHIONABLE.

Why should we speak of the fashion in a city where it is so inconsistent. Yesterday's fashion is gone to-day, and that of to-day will be gone to-morrow.

In Paris, those who dress according to the fashion are always busy, they must not lose a moment in the day; there is the morning dress, day dress, evening dress, and concert or ball dress, and this is not all; one must have fashionable carriages and horses, fashionable liveries, and fashion is always fleeting.

Those people to whom fashion is every thing, are extremely unhappy when they are found wanting in the smallest particular. This way of living the creature is no longer in fashion; coats are not buttoned up so high as this now; this hat is not of the new shape, this color is in bad taste; and this case is completely gone by.

If you have been so unfortunate as to go out without the knowledge of all this you are lost. Run, hide yourself quick before any one sees you, or your reputation is gone.

Fortunately for the Parisians, they are not all slaves of fashion. Men of talent think very little of it; they have other things to think about. Some austere philosophers and cynics affect to despise it; they sometimes carry this to far. Est Modus in Rebus.

The following circumstance befel a lady in Paris, to whom fashion is every thing. This lady was forty years old—she was not handsome—but she often wore things that made her less so.

'It is the fashion,' was her favorite saying. 'One cannot go wrong when one is in the fashion.'

'But if the fashion is a ridiculous one?' said the friends.

'Fashion can never be ridiculous.' 'If it is unbecoming?' 'It is of no consequence.'

'To wear your dresses to your knees?' 'I would wear them so. I would always be in the fashion.'

The husband of this lady, who was by no means of her way of thinking, took it into his head one day to compose a little piece, and put it into the Journal des Modes, with a picture, representing a lady whose hair was dressed with a carrot.—Underneath was written—

New style of dressing hair, drawn back, a la Chinoise! natural carrot. The lady examined it long and seriously.

'Oh what a singular head-dress! how now? Ah, they will wear vegetables in their hair after this?'

The husband shrugged his shoulders, exclaiming—

'How ridiculous—it is not common sense. I hope you will not make yourself ridiculous in that matter.'

'Why not, my dear? it is the fashion and that is enough. I must have a carrot—I must have one immediately—a fine large carrot. We are going to the opera—I must have my hair dressed so.'

The husband affected to oppose her the lady persisted. She put the carrot in her hair and went to the opera.

The effect was extraordinary, but no what she expected. Every lady laughed, and so very openly that it was impossible for her to misunderstand it.

The lady came home very melancholy, and quite disconcerted.

'It is very singular; I was dressed in the last fashion, and yet the people laughed at me.'

'My dear,' replied her husband, 'all fashions are not becoming to you. I have told you so a thousand times. You should adapt your dress to your looks—a carrot is not becoming to a blonde.'

Since then, this lady has not followed the fashions so implicitly.—Lady's Book.

ELOQUENCE.

The following was given by some contemporary specimen of Western eloquence:

'Americans! The great country—wide—vast—and in south west unlimited. Our republic is yet destined to reannex South America—to occupy the Russian possessions, and again to recover possession of British provinces, when the power of the old thirteen Colonies won from the French on the plains of Abraham! all rightly ours occupy.—Ours is a great and growing country. Faneuil Hall was its cradle! but whar—whar will be found timber enough for its coffin! Scoop all the water out of the Atlantic Ocean and its bed would not afford a grave sufficient for its corpse. And yet America has scarcely grown out of the gristle of boyhood. Europe! what is Europe? She is no whar; nothing a circumstance cipher a mere obsolete idea.—We have faster steamboats swifter locomotives, larger creeks bigger plantations, better mill privileges, broader lakes higher mountains, deeper estuaries louder Thunder, forked lightning, braver men, hand some women and more money than England dar have!—(Thundering applause.)

AN INFAMOUS CASE.

Mrs. Fagette, an innocent and girlish some fifteen years old, and of rather a prepossessing appearance was brought before the magistrate in Orleans on the 14th instant charged with larceny. It appeared that she was engaged by a Mary Thompson to attend a cigar store. She gave the girl a new dress and some trinkets such as earrings, a necklace &c., to make her attractive in the store as she termed it. She went further; for according to the oath of the girl herself who swore she overheard the infamous bargain she had concluded with some wretch, possessing the limaments of a man that for the sum of $350 the poor young creature was to be made the victim of dishonor. Becoming alarmed at the danger of her position she flew to the humble but honest roof of her mother taking with her the dress and trinkets which Miss Thompson had given her. This was the extent of her theft—herein lay her crime! The Recorder discharged the complaint, regretting that there was not a law to punish the complainant.—Rochester Dem.

The Tallahassee Floridian says—in it is remarkable that Washington county, in this Territory, with a population of 1200 souls, equal industry and integrity to that of any other, has not a physician, lawyer, judge, court house, a single store where ardent spirits are sold, no jail and consequently has no taxes to pay, except, perhaps, a small pittance for territorial purposes.

He deems it unnecessary to go into the game of brag, or to use any soft sopper about his SKILL in the PROFESSION OF GARMENT CUTTING as his shop is of long standing, and his work he thinks will speak for itself, and far more loudly than words. NEW YEAR.

Now is the very nick of time to subscribe for the New Year 1845.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER

With the largest Subscription List in the World.

TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

For the purpose of facilitating the formation of Clubs, of 50 or 100 subscribers not in arrears, we offer the following

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS.

Three copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, or one copy for three years $5

Five copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, or one copy for three years 10

Five copies of either of the $3 Magazines Five copies of either of the $8 Magazines

Five copies of the Saturday Courier, and 1 copy of Frost's new Pictorial History of America, a $5 book, 10

In fact, whatever offer is made, by any other Family Journal, at all approaching in worth, beauty or pretensions, to the Saturday Courier, will be furnished by us.

The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years, that it would be superfluous to say much on that subject here. We may remark however, that to the industry, talent and enterprise, which have for years kept this paper a bright exemplar for all its imitators, will constantly be added the productions of every available writer, and continued judicious and liberal expenditures will continually be made, as well in the Literary as the Typographical departments. Our means will always enable us to be in advance of all others, and we shall be so.

Histories of Modern Republics.—A new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features, will be a series of Condensed Histories of Modern Republics, by a fresh and vigorous writer, who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

Biographies and notices of Distinguished Literary and Scientific Men.—Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the future, will be a full and interesting account of the lives, progress, and present elevated standing of all distinguished men, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad,) in all departments of Art, Science, Literature, Statesmanship, Poetry, Mechanics, Planting, Agriculture, Printing, Merchandize, &c.

This will be a very interesting feature of the Young Men of the Country. The Lives of Distinguished Men are of such value to those who are yet forming their own character, for the purpose of emulating their parts, correctly, on the Great Stage of Human Life.

Indeed, we hope that this Department of the Courier will be worth more (each year) to every family who have sons and daughters to be reared, than five times the amount we ask for a year's subscription to the Saturday Courier.

Incidents, Histories, Scenes, Battle Grounds, &c. of the American and all other Revolutions.

Under this head, [which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier,] we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts [occasionally beautifully illustrated] of the thrilling incidents, so profusely tinged through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest to value the readers of the Philadelphia Saturday Courier. This will be of deep consequence, also, to every member of any family of the American Republic, who may choose to do themselves and the favor of securing, regularly, the visits of the Courier, at their Family Fireside.

POPULAR TRAVELLING.—To gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to present vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, caves, scenery, &c.

Our original domestic Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the minds and pens in the country. These cheap productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.

Our ENGRAVINGS comprise subjects in all branches of Art and Nature, suitable for the family circle, and appear in rapid succession.

OUR TRAVELLER is constantly traversing the world, in search of the wonderful and instructive.

OUR AGRICULTURIST occupies weekly an important space, with all matters of interest for the noble tillers of the soil.

Our European Correspondents, in Liverpool, London, Ireland the East, &c. keep us regularly advised of all subjects of special interest.

Our Markets and Prices Current embrace all the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money and Land, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our Prices Current of inestimable value to the Traveller, Farmer, and all Business Classes whatever.

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S MAGAZINE FOR 1845.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE has long enjoyed the enviable reputation of being the best periodical in the U. S. both in the quality and number of its embellishments, and in the tone of its literary matter. It is the cheapest as well as the best for the year 1844 the publisher has given about 100 pages more original matter than any of his contemporaries more original steel engravings, in addition to fashion plates and colored flowers. The cheapness and merit of a three-dollar magazine over all others is apparent, which has made an outlay of Seven Thousand Dollars greater than others, and an addition of engravings over other magazines that would embellish the costliest Annual. The publisher is however satisfied that nothing but real excellence can maintain the high position his periodical has attained in the United States.

The publisher does not hesitate to say that he defies all competition with Graham's magazine for 1845. His immense subscription list, the merit and number of his contributors, the high order of the engravers engaged, the number and variety of elegant plates already purchased and on hand, and the immense facility which his capital and position give to prosecute the work, render any efforts at a rival matter of ridicule. Every number of the work issued, bears with it the evidence of its triumphant success, and establishes the impossibility of successful competition, improves and extends for good works, that nothing of a humbug order will be tolerated.

Every number of Graham's Magazine is issued at a cost of nearly $4000—the plates alone consisting nearly half the sum most of the plates are of Original American Paintings, executed expressly for the proprietor, for engravings for the magazine. Among the pictures painted for the volume for 1845, are two by Sully, the greatest artist, several by Leutze, Chapman, Inman, Conover, Rothermel, Thomson, and others of the best artists of America. The cost of getting up embellishments in this style may be estimated when we state that some of these pictures cost $200 a piece, and will cost us some of them three times that sum to have them engraved and worked off for the edition of 'Graham's' But we cost shall be spared to keep our proud position at the head of the Periodicals of the world.

GRAHAM'S ELEGANT EMBELLISHMENTS.

The most splendid engravings of all sorts lend their charm to the pages of Graham's magazine. Everything, in the way of novelty and beauty that has ever been invented is laid under contribution. Nothing that capital and taste can supply is omitted. First, as the most elegant and appropriate, as well as the most popular embellishment, we place Sartain's Brilliant Mezzotint Engraving.

We were the first to introduce this beautiful style of work, as a regular embellishment of the popular monthlies. Its wide spread reputation, the merits of our engraver, called forth a host of imitators, but up to this time nothing has been produced to rival the glorious pictures given in Graham's. 'The Shepherd's Love,' and 'The Coquette,' these with a host of others, done for us by Mr. Sartain, stand 'unreplicated and alone' at the head of American engraving. We have several of these imitable plates under way, and shall give one in the January number.

TO POSTMASTERS AND OTHERS

The high merit of Graham's magazine considered the publisher flatters himself that the following liberal terms will induce thousands to subscribe.

TO CLUBS.

The following proposals are made—2 copies for $25; 5 for $10; 8 for $15; 11 for $20.

To the Postmaster, or other persons forming a club, the Publisher will forward a Novel for every subscriber sent, so that by varying the books, a complete library may be obtained by any person in a short time.

Single Copies, three dollars per annum in advance. And to the person sending the money, a copy of 'Ringwood the Rover,' Herlet's price Novel and also a copy of The Gems of Art and Beauty, a beautiful work for a lady's Center Table, containing thirteen splendid steel and mezzotint Engravings, will be forwarded gratis. Brandreth's Pills.

PICTURE OF HEALTH.

HEALTH is cherished in an individual by the absence of all pain, suffering, or affection in any part of his body; by the free and regular exercise of his functions without any exception.— They consist in having a good appetite at meal times, an easy digestion, free evacuations, without looseness or costiveness at least once in every twenty-four hours, and without heat, dryness, or burning at the passage, the free issue of the water without acrimony or burning, and without a reddish sediment which is always a sign of a present or approaching pain, quiet sleep without agitation or troublesome dreams, no taste of bile or other bad taste in the mouth upon rising in the morning, no sourness or disagreeable rising of the stomach; a clean tongue; a sweet breath; no itching pimples or spots on the skin; no piles; no burning heat upon any part of the body; no excessive thirst when exposed to labor or other known causes; no interposition to any natural evacuation, nor pain at their periodical return.

Where the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health, it is of the greatest importance that no time be lost in sending for a doctor, or in the use of foolish remedies too often the result of speculation; instead of this course a dose of BRANDRETH'S PILLS be taken, which will not deceive, but will at once restore health to the organ or part that requires it.

All who wish to preserve their health, all who are determined to defend it, all who are the victims of disease, all who are light and sleep prematurely to the grave, who, without hesitation, have recourse to the Brandreth Pills, when the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health.

Those who live in a country where contagious or other diseases
