

MRS. CAUDLE'S CURTAIN LECTURES.

LECTURE II.

Mr. Caudle has been at a tavern with a friend.

Poor me! Had I'm sure I don't know who'd be the poor woman! I don't know who'd be the poor man!...

'And now, I suppose, it will be the tavern every night. If you think I'm going to sit up for you, Mr. Caudle, you're very much mistaken. No; and I'm not going to get out of my warm bed to let you in, neither. No; not Susan hasn't sit up for you. No; not you shouldn't have a latch key. I'm not going to sleep with the door upon the latch to be murdered before the morning.

'Fugh! Pah! Whew! That filthy tobacco smoke! Is't enough to kill any decent woman. You know I hate tobacco, and yet you will do it. You don't smoke yourself? What of that? If you go among people who do smoke, you're just as bad, or worse. You might as well smoke—indeed, better. Better smoke yourself, than come home with other people's smoke in your hair.

I never knew any good come to a man who went to a tavern. Nice companions he picks out there! Yes; people who make it a boast to treat their wives like slaves, and ruin their families. There's that wretch, Pretty man. See what he's come to. He doesn't now get home till two in the morning; and then in what a state! He begins quarrelling with the door maid that his poor wife may be afraid to speak to him. A mean wretch! But don't you think I'll believe Mrs. Pretty man. No; I wouldn't put up with it from the best man that ever trod.

You'll not intend to stay out till two in the morning! How do you know what you'll do, when you get among such people? Men can't answer for themselves when they get boozing with one another. They never think of their poor wives, who are grieving and wearing themselves out at home. A nice head ache you'll have to-morrow morning—or rather this morning; for it must be past twelve. You won't have a head ache! It's very well for you to say so, but I know you will and then you may nurse yourself for me. H! that filthy tobacco again! No; I shall not go to sleep like a good soul! How's people to go to sleep when they're suffocated.

'Yes, Mr. Caudle, you'll be nice and ill in the morning! But don't you think I'm going to let you have your breakfast in bed, like Mrs. Prettyman. I'll not be such a fool.—No; nor I won't have discredit brought upon the house by sending for soda water early, for all the neighborhood to say, 'Caudle was drunk last night!' No; I've some regard for the dear children if you haven't. No; nor you shouldn't have both for dinner. Not a neck of mutton crosses my threshold. I can tell you.

'You won't want soda, and you won't want broth! All the better. You wouldn't get 'em if you did, I can assure you.—Dear, dear, dear! That filthy tobacco! I'm sure it's enough to make me as bad as you are. Talking about getting divorced—I'm sure tobacco ought to be good grounds. How little does a woman think when she marries, that she gives herself up to be poisoned!—You men contrive to have it all of your own side, you do. Now, if I was to go and leave you and the children, a pretty noise there'd be! You, however, can go and smoke an end of pipes.—You didn't smoke! It's smoking people. Folks are known by their company. You'd better smoke yourself, than bring me home the pipes of all the world.

'Yes, I see how it will be. Now you've once gone to a tavern, you'll always be going. You'll be coming home tipsy every night, and tumbling down and breaking your shoulder, and bringing all sorts of disgrace and expense upon us. And then you'll be getting into a street fight—oh! I know your temper too well to doubt it, Mr. Caudle—and be knocking down some of the police. And then I know what will follow. Yes, you'll be sent for a month or six weeks to the treadmill! Pretty thing that for a respectable tradesman Mr. Caudle, to be put upon the treadmill with all sorts of thieves and vagabonds, and—there, again, that terrible tobacco!—and till that of every kind. I should like to know how you children are to hold up their heads. (Her father has been upon the tread-mill?) No; I won't go to sleep. And I'm not talking of what is impossible. I know it will all happen—every bit of it. If it wasn't for the dear children, you might be ruined, and I wouldn't so much as speak about it, but—oh, dear, dear! at least you might go where they smoke good tobacco—but I can't forget that I'm their mother. At least they shall have one parent.

'Taverns! Never did a man go to a tavern who didn't die a beggar. And how your pot companions will laugh at you when they see your name in the Gazette. For it must happen. Your business is sure to fall off; for what respectable people will buy toys for their children of a drunkard? You're not a drunkard! No; but you will be!—It's all the same.

'You've begun by staying out till midnight. By and bye it will be all night. But don't you think, Mr. Caudle, you shall ever have a key. I know you. Yes; you'd do exactly like that Prettyman, and what did he do—only last Wednesday? Why, he let himself in about four in the morning, and brought home his pot companion Leandy. His dear wife woke at six, and saw Prettyman's dirty boots at her bedside. And where was the wretch, her husband? why he was drinking down stairs—swilling. Yes, worse than a midnight robber, he'd taken the keys out of his dear wife's pockets—what that poor creature has to bear!—and had got at the brandy. A pretty thing for a wife to wake at six in the morning and instead of her husband, to see his dirty boots!

'But I'll not be made your victim, Mr. Caudle, not I. You shall never get by my keys for they shall lie under my pillow—under my own head, Mr. Caudle.

'You'll be ruined; but if I can help it, you shall ruin nobody but yourself.

'Oh! that hor—hor—hor—i—ble too—ac—co!

Brandreth's Pills.

PICTURE OF HEALTH.

HEALTH is characterized in an individual by the absence of all pain, suffering, or affection in any part of his body; by the free and regular exercise of his functions without any exception. They consist in having a good appetite at meals, an easy digestion, free evacuations, without looseness or costiveness at least once in every twenty-four hours, and without heat, dryness, or burning at the passage, the free issue of the water without acrimony or burning, and without a reddish sediment which is always a sign of a present or an approaching pain; quiet sleep without agitation or troublesome dreams; no taste of bile or other bad taste in the mouth upon rising in the morning; no sourness or disagreeable rising of the stomach; a clean tongue; a sweet breath; no itching, pimples or spots on the skin; no piles; no burning heat upon any part of the body; no excessive thirst when unexposed to labor or other known cause; no inter-ruption to any natural evacuation, nor pain at their periodical return.

Where the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health, it is of the greatest importance that no time be lost in sending for a doctor, or in the use of foolish remedies; too often the result of speculation; instead of this course to a dose of BRANDRETH'S PILLS be taken, which will not deceive, but will at once restore health to the organ or part that requires it.

THE FAMILY NEWSPAPER AND FIRE-SIDE FRIEND.

Neutral in Politics and Religion. NEW YEAR.

Now is the very nick of time to subscribe for the New Year 1845.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER

With the largest Subscription List in the World. TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS. For the purpose of facilitating the formation of a Class, of new or old-subscribers not in arrears, we offer the following:

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS. Three copies of the Saturday Courier, 1 year, or one copy for three years... The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years, that it would be superfluous to say much on that subject here.

Historical and Modern Republics. A new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features, will be a series of Condensed Histories of Modern Republics, by a fresh and vigorous writer who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

Biographies and notices of Distinguished Literary and Scientific Men. Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the Courier, will be a full and interesting account of the rise, progress, and present elevated standing of all distinguished men, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad.)

Incidents, Histories, Scenes, Battle Grounds, &c., of the American and all other Revolutions.

Under this head, [which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier], we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts (occasionally beautifully illustrated) of the stirring incidents, so profusely illustrated through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest to value the readers of the Philadelphia Saturday Courier. This will be of deep consequence, also, to every member of any family of the American Republic, who may choose to do themselves and us the favor of securing, regularly, the visits of the Courier at their Family Fireside.

POPULAR TOPOGRAPHY.—To gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to present vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, caves, scenery, &c. Our original domestic Tales, Essays, Poems, &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the minds and pens in the country. These choice productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.

OUR ENGRAVERS comprise subjects in all branches of Art and Nature, suitable for the family circle, and appear in rapid succession. OUR TRAVELLER is constantly traversing the world, in search of the wonderful and instructive.

Dr. Jayne's FAMILY MEDICINES.

JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.

This Hair Tonic has produced beautiful new Hair in the heads of hundreds who had been bald for years. It also purifies the head from Dandruff—Cures itching of the scalp—Preserves the hair from falling off or becoming permanently gray.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BAL-SAM.

IS a certain, safe and effectual remedy for Dysentery, Diarrhoea or looseness, cholera morbus, summer complaint, colic, griping pains, sour stomach, sick and nervous headach, heartburn, waterbrash, pain or sickness of the stomach, vomiting, spitting up of food after eating and also where it passes through the bowels unchanged; want of appetite; restlessness and inability to sleep; wind in the stomach and bowels; cramp, nervous tremors and twitches; seasickness; fainting; melancholy and lowness of spirits; fretting and crying of infants and for all bowel affections and nervous diseases.

DR. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE.

Which is perfectly safe and so pleasant that children will not refuse to take it. It effectually destroys worms, neutralizes acidity or sourness of the stomach, increases appetite, and acts as a general and permanent Tonic and is therefore exceedingly beneficial in intermittent and remittent fevers and indigestion; &c. and is a certain and permanent cure for the fever and ague.

DR. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS.

They may be taken at all times and in most diseases.—In inflammatory, intermittent, remittent, Bilious, and every other form of Fever—Jaundice and Liver Complaint. For Dyspepsia they are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretions of the stomach and liver, and producing healthy action in those important organs. They are very valuable in all diseases of the Skin, and for what is commonly called 'Impurity of the blood'; also for Female Complaints, Costiveness, &c., and in fact every disease where an Aperient, Alterative, or Purgative Medicine may be required.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

It always cures Asthma—two or three large doses will cure the Croup or Hives in Children, in from fifteen minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of Hooping Cough, and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with 'Consumption,' have been restored to perfect health, by it.

In fact, as a remedy in Pulmonary Diseases, no medicine has ever obtained a higher, or more deserved reputation. The above Medicines are all for sale at the store of JOHN R. MOYER, Bloomsburg. 38

No Humbug!

CHARLES KAHLER Tailor.

EMBRACING the present opportunity of expressing his thanks to his friends, and the public generally, for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received, informs his friends and the public in general that he still continues to carry on the above business at his old established stand, on the corner of Main and East streets, where he hopes, by strict attention to business, to receive and merit a share of public patronage as heretofore. He deems it unnecessary to go into the details of being, or to use any silly words about his skill in the PROFESSION OF GARMENT CUTTING as his shops of long standing, and his work he thinks will speak for itself, and far more loudly than words. But he would merely say that, he warrants his work done with neatness, durability, and in the latest fashionable manner, and will ensure a good fit in all cases. N. B. Charges moderate to suit the times. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work, at market prices. Bloomsburg, Nov. 9 1844.—29.
