

Useful and Cheap.—A parlor stove has been invented at Baton Rouge, La., with an attached Gastrometre, by which as much gas can be extracted from the coal during the day as will serve for light during the evening.

They have raised a rival to Tom Thumb in Tennessee, who is now exhibiting in New Orleans. He is named E. C. Lowry—is twenty years of age, and measures only two feet eight inches high, and weighs about forty pounds. His head is of the natural size for one of his age, with a manly and intelligent expression of countenance.

The dwarf Tom Thumb is said to have netted to Mr. Barnum, by his exhibition in England, over $100,000. Barnum hired the little fellow for a number of years.

The Madisonian says:—"Almost every afternoon, when the weather is pleasant, an intelligent-looking, brisk-moving, singularly dressed old gentleman, may be seen pulling for the long bridge, like Peter Schenck, after his shadow, smiling to every greeter and gazing about him with an eye as insatiate as that of the sea Eagle, on an ocean-crag. Having reached the bridge, the spectator beholds him with astonishment, change his walking staff into a fishing rod with its tackle complete, and after taking from his capacious breeches pocket a tobacco box filled with angle worms, seat himself on the rough pier, and bob with astonishing patience, for any thing below, from a bull minnow to a ponderous cat fish. As the looker on beholds this interesting gentleman of the old school dressed in rusty black, with low crowned hat and silk stockings, & knee breeches, chewing the quid of expectation and springing up with the alacrity of youth at every bite, he is induced to ask his name. Judge, however, of his astonishment, when the polite draw-keeper informs him that this second edition of Sir Roger d'Coverly was formerly a Senator in Congress, the Chancellor of Kentucky, and Secretary of the U. S. Treasury.

The Sheriff of Columbia county, N York, in a house of which he had gone to take possession, found a stranger, who in explanation of his being there, said that "he was coming along, saw the house empty, and thinking it was a dispensation of Providence moved in." He was got out only by main force.

At Mile-end-Town, near London, on Good Friday, a pig and a pigeon ran a race of a hundred yards. The pig came in in 7 1/2 minutes beating the pigeon some 7 yards.

Millerism, per se, is funny enough, but Main Millerism is grotesque in the extreme. The Bangor Whig is luminous on this idiosyncrasy; it says that "Holy Rolling," or "Sain of the Lord," "Holy Dancing," "Holy Laughing," "Rolling in pools of water by the roadside," are among the religious services of that sect, in that region. The editor adds, "One woman took her china tea-set and broke it into small pieces. As a general thing, they refrain from labor, and dispose of their property, apparently without a thought of its value or the labor and painstaking it demanded to collect it. They consume their forces for fuel—have no regard to regular hours of refreshment or rest. And for all these things they think they have the command of God."

Charge to New Grenada.—This appointment has been tendered to the Hon. B. A. Bidlack, of Pennsylvania, the U. S. Journal, late Madisonian, says.

QUEER DESCRIPTION. A Western editor says: "A violent gale has just passed over us and destroyed nearly one half of our beautiful village, and turned a great number of our inhabitants homeless and houseless into the streets—many of the old garrets were filled to suffocation by people with their gable ends out."

The Application of Steam to common canal boats, by which they will be propelled without making any commotion of the water that will injure the banks of the canal is about to be attempted in Wilmington, Del., by Messrs. Betts, Lloyd and Taggart.

GEN. JACKSON'S PAPERS. The Globe says a letter has been received by Mr. Blair, from General Jackson, informing the latter that he has left all his papers to him, and requests him to use them in vindicating his character should it be assailed.

Notes purporting to be issued by the Mechanics' and Traders' Bank of Philadelphia, are in circulation. There is no such institution in existence. $10 superior notes on the Bank of Northern Liberties, Philadelphia, are also in circulation. They can be detected by the title of the Bank, which in the counterfeit reads "Northern Liberty Bank."

THE HON. CHARLES HUNT, of Gardner, Me., has bequeathed $15,000 for various religious objects.

HURRICANE AT CHICAGO. The Chicago News states that a great hurricane visited that section of country on the 23d ult., and that almost every house between that place and Nashville, a distance of thirty miles, was either blown down or damaged.

"TELL YOUR NEIGHBORS" That Sherman's Cough Lozenges will cure a severe cough or cold sooner than anything they can take, that they allay all irritation, promote expectation, and give quiet rest to the sufferer when it cannot otherwise be obtained. Tell them that Sherman's Worm Lozenges are a specific for worms, and have been tried with perfect success in more than 400,000 cases, and have never been known to fail—and being prepared by a regular physician, are perfectly safe, as they have never been known to do injury in any case in which they have been used. Say to them that Sherman's Camphor Lozenges are a remedy for the headache, curing from three to five minutes, and relieving from palpitation nervous diseases and depression of spirits. And last, not least, tell them that if they have rheumatism, pain or weakness in his back, chest, side, loins, or any part of the body, that Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster is decidedly the best strengthening plaster in the world, and will cure them quicker than anything of the kind they ever saw. And tell them, also, that Dr. Sherman prepares Lozenges for fever and ague, heartburn, dyspepsia, and all the ills the body is liable to, and being a regular physician, all his remedies are prepared under his own inspection, and can be relied upon for all for which they are recommended.

WORMS KILLS THOUSANDS. CHILDREN are most subject to them, but persons of all ages are liable to be afflicted with them. Bad breath, paleness about the lips, flushed cheeks, picking at the nose, yawning, yawning, pain in the bowels, joints or limbs, disturbed sleep, frightful dreams, moaning and sometimes of voracious appetite, are among the symptoms of worms. Many are doctored for months, for some other imaginary disease, when one box of Sherman's Worm Lozenges would effect a cure. D. Ryan, corner of Prince street and the Bowers, cured a man of worms that was reduced to a skeleton, and by only one box of Sherman's Worm Lozenges; this now as fit as an Alderman. Th. Hon. B. B. Bousley has saved the life of over 2,000 of his children by them. The sale of over 2,000,000 of boxes has fully testified to them. They are the only infallible worm-bug destroying medicine known. What family will be without them?

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma, and all affections of the lungs, will find a healing value in Sherman's Camphor Lozenges. They saved the Rev. Richard De Forest, the Rev. Mr. Streeter, Jonathan Howarth, Esq., and that worthy old hero, Leonard Rogers, from the consumptive's grave. They cured in one day the Rev. Mr. Dunbar, the Rev. Mr. Handcock, Wm. H. Atter, Esq. of distressing coughs. They are the pleasantest cough medicine and cure the soonest of any known remedy.

Headache, Sea-sickness and Palsy, relieved or cured in ten minutes by Sherman's Camphor Lozenges. Persons attending crowded rooms, travelling will find them to impart buoyancy of spirits and renew their energies. Those suffering from too free living will find a few of the lozenges to dispel the haze and lowness of spirits. Mr. Knath, of the Sunday Mercury, has repeatedly cured himself of severe headache by them. Captain Chadwick, of the packet ship Wellington, has witnessed their efficacy in a great many cases of sickness. They operate like a charm upon the agitated or shattered nerves, as Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster does upon rheumatism, lumbago, pain or weakness in the side, back, breast or any part of the body. Mr. H. G. Dargess, 30 Ann street; Henry R. Goulding; 351 Chatham street; Moses J. Henriques Esq., and a multitude of others have experienced the wonderful effects of these Lozenges.

Price only 12 cents. Caution is necessary to see that you get the genuine Sherman's Lozenges and Plasters, as there are many worthless articles attempted to be palmed off in place of them, by those who would trifle with your life for a shilling. Dr. Sherman's warehouse is at 106 Nassau street.—For sale by John R. Moyer—Bloomsburg Wm L. Waller & Co.—Berwick Low & Thompson—Lime Ridge E. & J. Lazarus—Orangeville M. G.
