Encouragement to Young Men.

What encouragement to industriou habits and perseverance, is the acquisi tion of knowledge and the improvement of the mind? As we look back upon the past, we read of bundreds who have risen to stations of honor by their own exertions. There is not an in stance on record, where a man pur forth all his energies, and determined to do something, who did not reach the top of his ambition. It is not those who have what is called a liberal education, who are the most useful men in the world, and who alone can occupy stations of trust and honor. On the contrary, the most talented men in our country belong to that class who received their education at the work bench, plough, the press, and the anvil Who are the prominent men in our Congressional and Legislative hallsin the pulpit and at the bar? Those who were cradled in poverty, and fought their way through much sorrow and tribulation-who met with hard rubs on every side-who were despised and sneered at by the proud and the rich. Poor and friendless young man do you feel discouraged? Do you sometimes sink to the earth in dispair?
