ORGANIC REMAINS. The Franklin (Tenn) Democrat, of the 13th instant, says:—Mr. Shumaker, living six miles south of this place, in digging a well on the top of a hill near his house, discovered the bones of an animal of most enormous size. One of the teeth and one joint of the neck bone is now in our office of Dr. S. S. Mayfield: The tooth weighs four pounds six and a half ounces, and is in a high state of preservation. The enamel on the tooth is near half an inch thick, and as hard as flint.

A WHOLESOME MURDERESS. A Mrs. Reed, under sentence of death at Lawrenceville, la., for the murder of her husband, after several ineffectual attempts to hang herself, has confessed, not only the poisoning of her husband, for which she was condemned, but two other persons before, as well as the murder of a nephew for his money; and, as though those enormities were not enough, she has also confessed having caused the death of two children by starvation!

HOT DROPS. The Mormons are likely to excite much indignation by such paragraphs as the following, which appears in a late number of Nauvoo Neighbor. 'May God, who never errs, sprinkling upon ever man in that city, that believes the saints (Mormons,) as upon Pitsburg—now and then, a hot drop.

A CHOISE WINDFALL. Mr. Daniel Shannon, a worthy inhabitant until recently, of this village, says the Jackson (Mich) Gazette, received a letter a few days since informing him of a deposit in a bank in Ireland, in his favor, of £200,000, which proves to be a portion of an estate to which he is heir at law. We take it there are but few of our citizens who would not like to be in his shoes, about these days.

'PUTTING IT ON THICK.' A house painter of our acquaintance has a son, a mere lad, who occasionally assists him in his jobs. He used the brush dexterously, but unfortunately he had acquired the habit of 'putting it on a little too thick.' The other day his father, after having frequently scolded him for his lavish daubing and all to no purpose, gave him a severe fagellation. 'There, you young rascal,' said he, after performing the painful duty, 'how do you like that?' 'Well, I don't know dad,' whined the boy, in reply, 'but it seems to me you put it on a darned sight thicker than I did.'

At the time appointed for the performance, the bridge gave way and several hundred persons fell into the river. Forty dead bodies had been taken out, and it was feared many more were yet in the river.

PARENTS, WHY DO YOU ALLOW your children to suffer from worms, when there is such a pest to them as Sherman's Lozenges! Many diseases and even death, arise from worms without their ever being suspected. The following are a few symptoms of worms—pain in the joints or limbs, offensive breath, picking at the nose, grinding of the teeth during sleep, and it itches a paleness about the lips, with flushed cheeks, a growing sensation at the stomach, headache, drowsiness, disturbed dreams, sudden starting in sleep with fright and screaming, voracious appetite, griping, a sense of something rising in the throat, itching towards night, a frequent desire to pass something from the bowels, and sometimes a discharge of slime and mucus. Be sure you get the genuine, as some unprincipled dealers attempt to palm off their worthless imitations. For sale by JOHN R. MOYER, Bloomsburg.

HISTORY OF WYOMING BY CHARLES MINER. SUBSCRIPTIONS are respectfully solicited for the forthcoming History of Wyoming. The work, now ready for Press, will make an Octavo volume of about six hundred pages, of which five hundred pages will embrace the main body of the narrative. The Appendix, besides a variety of curious and illustrative articles, will contain the "The Hazeton Travellers," revised with numerous additions, personal anecdotes, incidents and sketches of character, making about an hundred pages. The author thinks proper to say, that no pains have been spared to obtain information upon every point connected with this subject. He has flattered himself, as Wyoming has become classic ground—as unnumbered stories have heretofore existed in regard to its story, and as its very interesting civil character has been scarcely touched upon, that almost every gentleman would desire for his library, in respect to it, an authentic narrative. The purpose of taking up subscriptions is to enable the author to judge what number of copies it would be proper to publish. The Book will be neatly printed in octavo form, on excellent paper, with several illustrative plates, bound in cloth, in modern style, and delivered to subscribers at Two Dollars a copy. No money to be paid until the Book is delivered. Subscriptions received at this Office.

PROSPECTUS OF THE UNITED STATES JOURNAL. By James E. Dow & Co. THE first number of our new paper will be issued this (6th) day of May, with an entire new dress—new type, fine white paper, with other points well adapted to a "business" exposition of the moderate principles it will ardently and unflinchingly oppose each and every effort to establish a mammoth monetary bank and other speculative corporations, and consolidations of wealth, which subvert the rights of the people and undermine the pillars of the Republic; it will oppose an oppressive and anti-republican tariff system, the assumption of the State debts by the General Government, and all other Federal principles which have an inevitable tendency to destroy public property as well as individual happiness. Against all such political obstructions we shall wage unflinching, uncompromising war.

The Farmer and Mechanic who produce all the real capital of the nation, will find in our paper an unswerving champion of their inalienable rights; the long cherished principles of the editors are well known to the public to require no phrases on this point. To the Miscellaneous Department particular attention will be devoted, the Ladies will always find in our columns a choice selection from the current literature of the day, as well as original contributions from the most talented writers of which our country can boast. A general summary of Foreign and Domestic news will be furnished a regular price current and a correct list of the prices of stocks will also be given. The contributors have already secured the highest cooperation of a large number of the most distinguished literary and political writers of the day, arrangements will also be made, at the earliest possible period, to establish our columns by the contributions of correspondents from abroad. With this liberal and imperfect outline of our plan, we very respectfully submit our claims to an extensive patronage to the consideration of a generous public. THEOPHILUS HICK, Editor. JESSE E. DOW, } Engravers.
