

A White Girl held in Slavery declared to be free—About a year ago we noticed a case before the Supreme Court of Louisiana, in which a girl in slavery, named Nelly Miller, claimed to be born in Germany and of German parents; of having come to this country when an infant with her father and mother, who reached here as 'redeemptions,' and died shortly after their arrival. The owner, John F. Miller, alleged that she was born a slave & his property, as such he brought her up, and as such he sold her to Louis Belmont. The girl, seems, has been a quarter of a century subject to the degradation of domestic bondage and servile labor before she claimed her release. The Supreme Court last week rendered a judgment in her favor, and she is now free. Ought not those who have held her in bondage so long be compelled to pay her for her services during that time, as some compensation for the wrongs that she has suffered at their hands.

RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATURE.
On Saturday, after passing the bill to restore Dorr to liberty, the House laid on the table, by a vote of 38 to 30, a bill to restore him to his privileges as a citizen. A series of resolutions, protesting against the manner in which the State of Maine had interfered in the State affairs of Rhode Island, were introduced and passed, in the House, by a vote of 41 to 26. The resolutions were ordered to be printed, with the proceedings of the Court that tried Dorr, copies to be sent to Governors of States and others. The General Assembly adjourned to meet again in October.

AN ODD COINCIDENT.
During the gale on the night of Sunday week, says the Howard district Press, a young hickory tree, in full vigor in the garden of Mrs. Elliott, was entirely twisted off at the trunk. The tree having been planted by Mr. George Elliott and father on the day of Gen. Jackson's election to the Presidency, it is considered somewhat remarkable that it should be so suddenly destroyed on the night of his decease.

MEXICO—JOSEPH BONAPARTE.
The New York Evening Gazette says the following fact is not generally known except to a few persons in that city:—Shortly after the termination of the power and influence of Iturbide, the dominant party in Mexico despatched a vessel to New York, with three important persons commissioned to offer the throne of Mexico to Joseph Bonaparte, who then resided in New Jersey. The Commissioners, on their arrival, accompanied by Mr. B., of New York City—then largely connected with the financial affairs of Mexico—proceeded to the residence of Joseph, and made the offer, in pursuance of their instructions. The ex-King of Spain took twelve days to consider on the proposition and after due deliberation, declined the offer, and the Commissioners returned in the small armed craft to Vera Cruz.

As an indication of the rapid growth of the great valley of the West, we find it stated in a late number of the Cincinnati Gazette, that the first child born of American parents west of the Allegheny mountains, who knew Washington as a surveyor on the banks of the Kanawha, is yet alive and scarcely numbers four score and ten. It is further said that the second child born in Cincinnati lives, and has not seen the middle age of life, yet the city has now some eighty thousand inhabitants.

There are more than three hundred chartered colleges in the United States, exclusive of medical and law schools and sixty theological seminaries. Their professors, students and alumni, make a college population in the United States of more than 50,000 men.

We are positively assured that when sheep are poisoned with 'ground-ivy,' eggs will be found an immediate cure. One person to hold open the sheep's mouth, and another to break and drop down its throat two eggs, for each sheep.

A Temperance lecturer is now attempting to prove that the beast who was chained a thousand years, and then let loose to scourge mankind, is nothing else than Rum! This, then, is what is meant by the beast's having so many horns, and so many mouths to match them.—Philad Gazette.

The Connecticut Legislature has passed a law, which imposes a fine of twenty dollars on any person who refuses to accept a military command to which he may be elected.

We are request to mention that the Prithonatory has received the Pamphlet Laws for 1845, and that they are ready for delivery.

DR. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS.

They may be taken at all times and in most diseases—In Inflammatory, intermittent, Remittent, Bilious, and every other form of Fever—Jaundice and Liver Complaint.
