

SMALL VS. LARGE FARMS.

The greatest obstacle to the improvement of Agriculture in this country, is the propensity of the farmer—the mania I might well call it—to own more land than he can till to advantage.

This great truth is already beginning to be understood in other countries, and is attended with corresponding advantages.

The law is universal—it applies to every country—that the secret of success in agriculture consists in the thorough cultivation of a small piece of ground, which, well manured and well worked, yields up its treasures in prodigal profusion.

He has chalked out to himself a hard lot and voluntarily enters on a state of servitude worse than Egyptian bondage.

What a harassed, unhappy being must be the owner of such a farm! He has no time for recreation or mental improvement.

Work—work—work! From weary chime to chime; Work—work—work!

Such a man has little to pride himself on his extensive possessions, and, paradoxical as it may appear, he would, in nine cases out of ten, add to his riches as well as to his enjoyment, by giving a way one half of them at least.

A NOVELTY IN MARITIMONY.—A few days since three arrived at Southport, Wisconsin, in the steamer Empire.

Would that some of our belles could be persuaded that a stage strut is not dignified, nor a pendulum oscillation below the waist graceful!

WORMS KILLS THOUSANDS.

CHILDREN are most subject to them, but persons of all ages are liable to be afflicted with them. Bad breath, paleness about the lips, dizziness, picking at the nose, wasting away, leucorrhoea in the bowels, joints or limbs, disturbed sleep, frightful dreams, moaning and sometimes of voracious appetite, are among the symptoms of worms. Many are doctored for months, for some other imaginary disease, when one box of Sherman's Worm Lozenges would effect a cure.

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the lungs, will find a healing vein in Sherman's Cough Lozenges. They are sold by the Rev. Richard De Forest, and that worthy old hero, Leonard Rogers, from the consumptive's grave. They cured in one day the Rev. Mr. Donohoe, the Rev. Mr. Handcock, Wm. H. Attree, Esq. of distressing coughs. They are the pleasantest, easiest and most efficacious cure of any known remedy.

Headache, Sea-sickness and Palpitation, relieved of from five to ten minutes by Sherman's Camphor Lozenges. Persons attending crowded rooms in travelling will find them to impart buoyancy of spirit and renew their energies. Those suffering from too free living will find a few of the lozenges to dispel the horrors and lowness of spirits. Mr. Krath, of the Sunday Mercury, has repeatedly cured himself of severe headache by them. Captain Chadwick, of the packet ship Wellington, has witnessed their efficacy in a great many cases of sickness. They operate like a charm upon the agitated or shattered nerves, as Sherman's Plaster Man's Plaster does upon rheumatism, lumbago, pain or weakness in the side, back, breast or any part of the body. Mr. H. G. Daggens, 300 1/2 street; Henry R. Goulding; 35 1/2 Chatham street; Moses J. Henriques Esq. and a multitude of others have experienced the wonderful effects of these Plasters. Price only 12 1/2 cents. Caution is necessary to see that you get the genuine Sherman's Lozenges and Plasters, as there are many worthless articles attempted to be palmed off in place of them, by those who would trifle with your life for a shilling.

Dr. Sherman's warehouse is at 106 Nassau street.—For sale by John R. Moyer—Bloomsburg Wm L. Walker & Co.—Berwick Low & Thompson—Lime Ridge E. & J. Lazarus—Orangeville M. G. HISTORY OF WYOMING BY CHARLES MINER.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are respectfully solicited for the forthcoming History of Wyoming. The work, now ready for Press, will make an Octavo volume of about six hundred pages, of which five hundred pages will embrace the main body of the narrative. The Appendix, besides a variety of curious and illustrative articles, will contain the "Hazetor Travellers," revised with numerous additions, personal anecdotes, incidents and sketches of character, making about an hundred pages.

The author thinks proper to say, that no pains have been spared to obtain information upon every point connected with this subject. He has flattered himself, as Wyoming has become classic ground—as innumerable errors have heretofore existed in regard to its story, and as its very interesting civil character has been scarcely touched upon, that almost every gentleman would desire for his library, in respect to it, an authentic narrative. The purpose of taking up subscriptions is to enable the author to judge what number of copies it would be proper to publish.

The Book will be neatly printed in octavo form, on excellent paper, with several illustrative plates, bound in cloth, in modern style, and delivered to subscribers at Two Dollars a copy. No money to be paid until the Book is delivered. Subscriptions received at this Office.

Brandreth's Pills.

READ and understand! The time will come when the medicine, Brandreth's Pills, will be appreciated as they ought and deserve; it will be understood that Dr. Brandreth has the strongest claims upon the public. It is true that every individual who makes a trial of the Brandreth Pills, concede them to be the best medicine they ever used. They are indeed a medicine of such value there is no mistake. Their value in a climate so changeable as ours cannot be sufficiently appreciated. A free perspiration is at once restored, thus they cure colds, and consumption is prevented. Those who have a redundancy of bile find them of the most essential service, and should there be a deficiency of that important fluid the Brandreth Pills have an equally beneficial effect. Often has this important medicine saved valuable lives in those regions where the dreadful yellow fever was prevailing. A few doses taken immediately upon the infection being received into the system, will be almost certain to prevent any material inconvenience. And at no stage of this dreadful epidemic is there so proper a medicine as the Brandreth Pills. Let this medicine be universally used in this disease, and no loss of blood allowed, and few, very few, would be its victims. So it is with other diseases. Assist nature with this all important medicine to remove morbid humors from the blood, and do not resort to bleeding or mercury, and we shall have a very great scarcity of persons afflicted with chronic maladies. The feathered tribe—the animal kingdom—over which we are the lords, are not afflicted with chronic maladies; neither should we be if it were not for our prurient which occasions them. Follow nature. Use the medicine which harmonizes with her, which mildly but surely removes all the impurities of the blood, which strengthens the feeble, and yet reduces those of too full habit to a healthy standard. Let me again say that every department of the manufacture of Brandreth Pills is personally superintended by me, and that every box with my three labels upon it may be relied upon to have the beneficial effect described if used according to the directions accompanying.
