

not intend, as early as strength will permit to pass them in review, in the form of a general address. The three last years have disclosed the spirit and tendency of the federal party, as they have never before been exhibited. And the lesson must not be passed over, if we are determined to fulfil the duty of transmitting genuine American principles and institutions to our successors.

'In respect to my liberation, I would add that it was a compulsory discharge, or thrusting out without a restoration of political and personal rights. These I am invited to re-acquire by taking a special oath of allegiance and thereby confessing a breach of allegiance by acting as Governor under the People's Constitution. Honor, duty, consistency and self-respect forbid such an act; and my friends do not need to be assured that no such oath will ever be taken. I have asked nothing of the Algerine faction. Public opinion abroad, and at home has opened the doors of their Bastille and the same potent agency will compel what has been omitted at no distant day.'

BURYING ALIVE.

In France, there has been much discussion recently, in relation to premature interments. L. G. um, author of a work on the subject, has petitioned the King and Chambers for the adoption of measures to prevent the occurrence of this horrible calamity.—Among the cases enumerated is that of a young female in one of the provincial towns, who had twice in her life been in a trance, from which she had recovered. She died, as it then appeared, for three physicians, who were called in to examine the body of the young woman, declared that she was positively dead. Considering, however, what had previously occurred, the authorities of the place permitted the body to be kept above ground for one week, unless decomposition should in the mean time take place. The week passed without any symptom of decomposition, and three days more were allowed; but at the end of that time the in-humation was peremptorily ordered. The body was in the coffin, the lid of which was about to be nailed down, when another young female, who had been a school companion of the supposed deceased, knelt down to kiss her for the last time. As she remained in this position for nearly five minutes, her friends became alarmed lest her grief and agitation should become too great, and were about to tear her from the body, when she warned them off with her hand, exclaiming, at the same time, 'Elle n'est pas morte.'

In kissing the lips of the supposed corpse; this female had fancied that the body breathed, and breathing in her turn into her mouth, she soon convinced herself that her imagination had not deceived her. In ten minutes it was evident to all present, by the application of a glass over the mouth, that the breath had not departed entirely from the body which was then removed from the coffin and placed in a warm bed. In an hour by the use of restoratives, the poor girl, who was before on the point of being consigned to an untimely tomb, was able to speak. Her statement was a harrowing one. She said that she had all along been quite conscious of what was passing around her, but incapable of making the least sign to show that she was not dead. She had even heard the bells tolling for her funeral. She recovered entirely, and lived several years.

HORRIBLE STORY.

An application was made last week to the New York Court of Chancery for a divorce and the petition of the wife disclosed some of the most extraordinary, as well as the most revolting, series of facts ever submitted to any civil tribunal. The applicant was married at Charleston, S. C., in the spring of the present year. Her maiden name was Albertina Brunel, and the man she united herself to was called Francis M—. Immediately after their marriage, they started for New York, and at the first populous city they reached the bride was ordered to prostitute herself in order that she and her husband might live. As she at first refused, he threatened to beat her, but did not at that time carry out his threats because he happened to make a raise by falsely representing himself to an Odd Fellow's Lodge as a distressed member of that fraternity, travelling to New York for work. On their arrival at Philadelphia, however, the woman says he actually accompanied her into the streets and introduced gentlemen to her, and also took lodging for her in a brothel in that city. At the latter end of June they arrived at New York, and he took lodgings for his wife at a house of the same kind, and as she alleges, actually resorted to force to compel the unfortunate creature to pursue such a loathsome pursuit for his support. She then complained to the police, and the husband was arrested for an assault and held to bail, and her extraordinary statement attracting the attention of a member of the bar, he inquired into the truth of her story, and took the necessary steps to have such a mercenary marriage dissolved. The woman is described as young and pretty.—[Baltimore Sun.

WARLIKE.

Orders were received on Saturday requiring Capt. Duncan, now at Fort Hamilton, a few miles below New York, to be in readiness at a moment's warning with his company of Flying Artillery to march for Texas. It will require two small vessels to transport this company with their horses. Their destination is the mouth of the Arkansas.

The Washington Union says: 'We understand that Major Donelson has in all human probability, completed his great task, and is anxious to return home. He has asked permission to leave Texas, and letters of recall have been sent to him. In fact, it is not easy to perceive the necessity of sending a new Charge to the United States, as President Jones proposes.'

WORMS KILLS THOUSANDS.

CHILDREN are most subject to them, but per sons of all ages are liable to be afflicted with them. Bad breath, paleness about the lips, flushed cheeks, picking at the nose, wasting away, loss of appetite, are among the symptoms of worms. Many are doctored for months, for some other imaginary disease, when one box of Sherman's Worm Lozenges would effect a cure. D. Ryan, corner of Prince street and the Bowersy, cured a man of worms that was reduced to a skeleton, and by only one box of Sherman's Lozenges. Let us now say that an Alderman, Th. Hon. B. B. Beardsley has saved the life of one of his children by them. The sale of over 3,000,000 of boxes has fully testified. They are the most infallible worm destroyers medicine known. What family will be without them?

Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma, and all affections of the lungs, will find a healing value in Sherman's Cough Lozenges. They cured the Rev. Richard De Forest; the Rev. Mr. Steeter, Jonathan Howarth, Esq. and that worthy old hero, Leonard Rogers, from the consumptive's grave. They cured in one day the Rev. Mr. Turner, the Rev. Mr. Handcock, Wm. H. Altier, Esq. of distressing coughs. They are the pleasantest cough medicine and cure the most obstinate of any known remedy.

Headache, Seasickness and Palpitation, relieved or cured five to ten minutes by Sherman's Cough Lozenges. Persons attending crowded rooms in travelling will find them to impart buoyancy of spirits and renew their energies. Those suffering from too free living will find a few of the lozenges to dispel the horrors and looseness of spirits. Mr. Krath, of the Sunday Mercury, has repeatedly cured himself of severe headache by them. Captain Chadwick, of the packet ship Wellington, has witnessed their efficacy in a great many cases of seasickness. They operate like a charm upon the agitated or shattered nerves, as Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster does upon rheumatism, lumbago, pain or weakness in the side, back, breast or any part of the body. Mr. H. G. Duggers, 39 North street; Henry R. Goulding; 35 1/2 Clifton street; Moses J. Henriques Esq. and a multitude of others have experienced the wonderful effects of these Plasters.

Price only 12 1/2 cents. Caution is necessary to see that you get the genuine Sherman's Lozenges and Plasters, as there are many worthless articles attempted to be palmed off in place of them, by those who would trifle with your life for a shilling.

Dr. Sherman's warehouse is at 100 Nassau street.—For sale by

HISTORY OF WYOMING BY CHARLES MINER.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are respectfully solicited for the forthcoming History of Wyoming. The work, now ready for Press, will make an Octavo volume of six hundred pages, of which five hundred pages will embrace the main body of the narrative. The Appendix, besides a variety of maps and illustrative articles, will contain the 'Hazyton 7 Travellers,' revised with numerous additions, personal anecdotes, incidents and sketches of character, making about an hundred pages.

The author thinks proper to say, that no pains have been spared to obtain information upon every point connected with this subject. He has gathered himself, as Wyoming has become a classic ground, as innumerable errors have heretofore existed in regard to its story, and as its very interesting civil history has been scarcely touched upon, that almost every gentleman would desire for his library, in respect to it, an authentic narrative.

The purpose of taking up subscriptions in advance, is to enable the author to judge what number of copies it would be proper to publish.

The Book will be neatly printed in octavo form, on excellent paper, with several illustrative plates, bound in cloth, in modern style, and delivered to subscribers at Two Dollars a copy.

No money to be paid until the Book is delivered. Subscribers received at this Office.
