IT HAS PERFECTLY CURED ME.

PHILADELPHIA, December, 1837
To Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir—The astonishing and miscellaneous beneficial effects your valuable EXPECTORANT had on my neighbor, the Rev. Mr. Rushing, made so favorable an impression on my mind, that after consulting with several friends, and learning that you were a regular Practitioner of Medicine, I called upon you, and purchased half a dozen bottles, and to-day you that I lived to take them, you should have a good report from me.

I am alive and well this day! Thanks be to a merciful God, and your Expectantant, I now I come forward cheerfully to fulfill a promise.

For twenty long years had I been a constant sufferer from the effects of a hard, dry cough, pain in the breast, and difficulty of breathing; the last five of which chills and fevers, every spring and fall, added to my misery, I was worn away to a mere skeleton; with the greatest difficulty only could I get up and down stairs, my appetite was gone, and my strength had so far failed me, that my friends were persuaded I could not survive many weeks, unless I obtained relief. Indeed, sir, my situation was so perfectly miserable to myself and so distressing to my family, that I felt willing to die, whenever it should please the Master to take me home. But I heard of your medicine, and relief came. Yes! it proved the "Balm of Gilead" to my poor afflicted body. Before I had taken one bottle, I experienced a mitigation of all my symptoms, and to my great joy I found in the continued use of it the happiest relief. In short, SIR, IT HAS MADE A PERFECT CURE OF ME—and I can truly say, I have no desire to be better.

With everlasting gratitude, I am dear sir, your obliged friend,
MARY GILL,
Corner of Rose Street and Germantown Road, Phila.
The above Medicine are all for sale at the store of JOHN R. MOYER, Bloomsburg.
