THE GARLAND

"——With sweetest flowers enrich'd,
From various gardens cull'd with care."

PADDLE YOUR OWN CANOE.

My father died, God rest his soul,
When years I numbered two,
And left me 'midst this world alone
To paddle my own canoe.

A step grandaddy, now no more,
Taught me my P's and Q.—
And ever in my ears he dinn'd
You'l paddle your own canoe.

My home was on Elysian spot
Of bright and sunny hue;
And therefore I the sooner left,
I'o p addle my own canoe.

And through the world I roamed at large.
O'er land and ocean blue;
And though the struggle oft was hard,
I paddled my own canoe.

For thus I argued—man to man
Is often times untrue,—
Then while with health and strength you're blest,
Just paddle your own canoe.

As partners in the strife for gain
Self-interest will pursue;
And leave you with their debts, perh aps,
To paddle in your canoe.

And then no sympathy you'll find
From friends that once were true—
They knew you lost when first ceased
To paddle your own canoe.

But I one cherished object sought,
And ever kept in view;
A friend of pure unsullied heart,
To paddle in my own canoe.

A friend she is in need e and deed—
Her interest mine is too:
We twain are one—I still may say
I paddle my own canoe.

GOING TO LAW,

An upper and a lower mill,
Fell out about their water,
To war they went—that is, to law—
Resolved to give no quarter.

A lawer was by each engaged.
And hotly they contended;
When fears grew slack, the war they wag ed,
They judged were better ended.

The heavy costs remaining still,
Were settled without bother—
One lawyer took the upper mill,
The lower mill, the other.

LOVE'S PHILOSOPHY.

The fountaine mingle with the river,
And the rivers to the ocean;
The winds of heaven mix forever
With a sweet motion;
Nothing in the world is single,
All things by law divine,
In one another's being mingle—
Why not I with thine?
See the fountain kiss high heaven,
And the waves clasp one another;
No sister flower would be forgiven,
If it disdained its brother:
And the sun-light clasps the earth,
And the moonbeams kiss the sea;
What are all these blessings worth,
If thou kiss not me?

When a man undertakes to praise you to your face, don't believe the tenth part he says. He is only flattering your vanity to use you for his own purposes.

A proverb says, 'Labor while the day lasts, for the night cometh when no man work.' There was no printers when that was written!

A Brazilian introduction is—This is my friend, if he steals any thing I am accountable for it.

BALDNESS AND LOSSOF HAIR.

Is caused by a want of healthy action in the which throw off the perspiration from the head. When these vessels are weak or diseased perspiration is thick and clamy and adheres to the mouths of the pores, and clogs them up, and dries and forms scurf and dandruff. Less blood is then carried to the roots of the hair, and for want of which the hair has not sufficient nourishment, and consequently becomes dry and harsh, and begins insensibly to fall off which continuing to increase, eventually produces baldnes. Restore the capillera vessels of the head to their former healthy circulation, and fine silky new hair will make its appearance, which will increase in quantity and volume, until the hair becomes thick and healthy.

Jayne's Hair Tonic is the only preparation that has ever been known to produce new hair on bald heads, which it has done in innumerable instances, and will seldom fail if properly and perseveringly used.

☞ The above Medicine are all for sale at he store of JOHN R. MOYER, Bloomsburg.

WORMS IN CHILDREN.

OF all diseases to which children are exposed none are so fatal to them as worms. Unfortunately children are seldom free from them, and as they imitate the symptoms of almost every other complaint they often produce alarming effects without being suspected. Worms are not only a cause of disease themselves but by their irritation aggravate all other diseases, wandering from one part of the body to the other, winding themselves up in large balls and obstructing the bowels and frequently the throat, causing convulsions and too often death. The desired remedy will be found in Dr Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge—which will very soon destroy the worms and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return of them
