

BROTHERLY LOVE.

A Bostonian on a visit to Philadelphia says the only specimen of 'brotherly love' he has seen in that city was a strife between sixteen cabmen for the privilege of conveying him to his hotel.

SHERIFF BACKENSTOS ACQUITTED.—J. B. Backenstos, Sheriff of Hancock county, Ill., has been tried at Peoria on the charge of murder, connected with the death of Worrell, the anti-Mormon last fall. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The jury could not have arrived at any other conclusion justly. The Missouri Reporter says, 'In the first place, he did not shoot Worrell, nor was Worrell shot at his instigation or with his consent, and in the second place, if Worrell had been shot by him, the act would have been, under the circumstances, perfectly justifiable.' We hope that this verdict will encourage the public officers in the neighborhood of the Mormons to discharge their duties fearlessly, if difficulties shall again occur between the saints and the anties.

EXTRAORDINARY LONGEVITY.—Do in Bladen county, N. C., on the 14th October last, Mr. William Pridden, aged 123 years! He entered his 124 year in June last. He volunteered to serve his country in the Continental Army of the Revolution, and though then exempt by reason of his being over age, he served a full term in that war, and has received a pension for many years past. He has lived to follow all his children to the grave, except one, an aged daughter. His grandchildren are aged people, and he has left great grandchildren upwards of 40 year of age, and great great grandchildren about twelve year of age. He retained his faculties till his death, except his sight, which he lost a few years ago. He was able to walk until few days before his death when attacked by fever, of which he died.—Fayetteville Observer.

THRILLING INCIDENT IN RUSSIA.—The following melancholy incident is much talked of: it shows the effects of the terrible decision of Character exhibited by the Russian Czar.—It is well known that there are many sailors in the Russian fleet who are Israelites. A review of the fleet on a late occasion by the emperor; two sailors particularly excited his attention, both by the precision which they performed several difficult manœuvres, and by the agility and daring which they displayed. The Emperor was so much pleased that he immediately promoted one to be captain; the other he appointed Lieutenant on the spot. There is, however, an ukase forbidding Jews to wear epaulettes, and the Admiral of the fleet, who stood by the emperor, knowing that they were Jews, stated the difficulty to his imperial majesty. 'Pshaw!' cried the Emperor, 'that does not signify in the least—they shall immediately embrace the Greek religion, of course.' When this determination was communicated to the young men, sorrow and despair seized upon them at the thought of receiving honor and promotion on such inexorable terms. Knowing that remonstrance or refusal would be in vain, they requested of the Emperor permission to exhibit still more of their manœuvres, as he had not seen all they could do. This being granted, they ascended the topmast, embraced each other, and locked in one others arms, they threw themselves into the sea and disappeared forever. What effect the self sacrifice produced upon the Czar is not related.

SMITH O'BRIEN AND OREGON.—The great leader of the Irish people; second only in the influence to O'Connell, made at the last meeting of the Association, one of the most noble displays of manly eloquence ever uttered in the Convention Hall. After treating on a variety of topics conversant with the business of the day, he advanced to the presence of the American people, and openly declared his belligerent attitude towards America. That Irishman had sanctimoniously retained England in her unjust wars, and that such would not be the case any longer; then quoting the Edinburgh Review, he declared in the name of the Irish people, that if England should obstinately persist in wanton waste of blood and treasure, for the barren shore of Oregon, the Irish people should not be any party to the injustice! This is a most remarkable speech, coming from a gentleman of Smith O'Brien's well known firmness, influence and great property. This has produced a great sensation. Should Ireland be able to preserve an inflexible neutrality, England cannot, will not go to war for one year. Dublin Correspondence of the Tribune.

American sailors have 'bigger' hearts than any other people of like means. The crew of 'Old Ironsides' subscribed $1,000 to the relief of the Putzberg sufferers.

M. CLAY.—The L. King's Observer of Dec. 20 says:—Mr. Clay left Ash land on Wednesday morning last for New Orleans, on private and professional business. He expects to be gone several months, and may probably visit Cuba during the winter.

THE YOUNG STATE OF TEXAS.—The President has affixed his signature to the joint resolutions, and Young Texas is no longer a 'hone star,' but is one of the bright sisterhood whose united splendor and power excite the admiration, astonishment and apprehension of the government of the old world. The annexation of Texas is another moral lesson in the acquisition of territory (which the United States has set the rapacious robbers in Europe. Instead of sending its armies in the country to seize the territory, and compel an unwilling people to submit to its dictation as Great Britain, France and Russia have done, and continue to do when they wish more territory, the United States, has peacefully acquired its rights to Texas, with the full consent and approbation of the people, and at their earnest solicitation. Such a lesson, though it may be lost upon governments accustomed to a shorter and more unscrupulous proceeding, is not without its value to our country, for it serves to show the principles of justice, moderation and respect for others' rights, which characterize republican rule, and must raise the American people to the respect and admiration of the great in all parts of the world.

The senate, as we learn from Washington, confirmed, in Executive session on the nomination of the Hon. Louis McLane (appointed by the president of the U. S. in the recess of Congress) to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States to the Kingdom of Great Britain. This confirmation puts the rumors of Mr. McLane's wish to return to U. S. a little out of countenance. A large number of nominations to office, by the President are said to be before the Senate, some of the of importance, but no confirmation, it is understood, have yet been made, except the above. Among the nominations made is that of George W. Woodward, of the State of Pennsylvania, to be Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States.

THE MORMONS AGAIN.—Great apprehension exists lest the Mormons should emigrate to Oregon. The Platte (Mo.) Argus urges that the first effect of adding the Mormons to the present population of Oregon, will be to place the balance of power in their hands, and this will be thrown to that party which will make the best bargain with the Mormon leaders. It infers that the feeling of hostility to the United States engendered by recent proceedings will make them favor the British interest, and says that their emigration should be prevented. This is a curious position for any class of people to be placed in. One portion of the community not disposed to permit them to remain where they are and another not to allow them to go elsewhere.

The Van Buren (Arkansas) Intelligencer of the 22d ultimo states that great numbers of emigrants, with their wagons horses and cattle, continue to pass through that place on their way to the new State of Texas. The old Southern States will thus lose a considerable portion of the active and enterprising part of their population. Whether their loss will be a gain to the emigrants is perhaps not so certain.

A CALCULATION.—Some writer in the New York News, estimates that the quantity of silk used in England amounts to more than 4,000,000 pounds; for the production of which the labor of fourteen thousand million of the silk insects are required, and which live and die annually, to supply the people of a small portion of the earth with the luxury of wearing their profane and unbecoming items should be recorded in the annals of the world.

MARRIED.—On the 25th inst., by the Rev. William J. Ever. Mr. MORIS HOWER to Miss ELIZABETH STECKER, both of Franklin township.

On Thursday the 25th inst., by A. R. Jacoby Mr. SAMUEL OHL of Hemlock township to Miss MARIA BARBARA STRAU of the same place.

DIED.—In this town on Monday last, Mr. LEWIS MEASLE, aged about 50.

In Esopus town, on Monday last, Mr. BENJAMIN CURTISS, aged about 30.

Mr. Curtiss was a stranger, having been in this vicinity but a few days, and represented himself as a trader, formerly of Massachusetts and having a wife and two children living near Whitesboro, Luzerne co.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.

A gentleman of a scrofulous habit, became affected with Ulcerations of the Throat, Nose, and a disagreeable and troublesome disease of the skin. Indeed his whole system bore the marks of being saturated with disease. One hand and wrist were so much affected that he had lost the use of the hand, every part being covered with deep, painful, and offensive Ulcers and his hand and wrist were as hollow and porous as a honeycomb. It was at this stage of his complaint when death appeared inevitable from a loathsome disease that he commenced the use of JAYNE'S ALTERNATIVE, and having taken sixteen bottles, is now perfectly cured.—Public Ledger.

This ALTERNATIVE operates through the circulation and purifies the blood, eradicates disease of the Skin, Cancer, Scrofula, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and other Chronic diseases, is truly astonishing.
