Cholera, Summer Complaint, Diarrhœa, Dysentary and all other derangements of the stomach and bowels, cured by Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam

New York, 30th month, 14, 1838.

Friend Dr. Jayne—It gives me much pleasure to inform you of the result of a case in which I administered thy Carminative Balsam, and I consider it a matter of duty to thee and the public to give you the following statements. Being called to visit a patient in Lydig's alley, I found he was vomiting and purging most violently with severe Tormina and Cramps in the upper and lower extremities, and also in the abdominal parietes. The cramp was so violent, that it took four men to rub him incessantly to keep down the spasm, and to use his own words he said it seemed to him as if his bones would snap in two. There was also violent chodic pains around the ubilical region attended with very distressing nausea. In short I considered it to be a case of genuine cholera. I found on inquiry the patient had been unwell the day previous, with a looseness of the bowels. That six hours before I saw him he was seized with the complaint and had gradually got worse. The extremities were cold and he was nearly pulseless. I immediately gave him a spoonful of thy Balsam which in a few moments was ejected from the stomach, but on giving it a few times the stomach became settled and he expressed himself relieved. I then gave him a cathartic and opium powder. In two hours from the time I saw him he felt quite easy and fell asleep, and slept well for five hours; but on waking the symptoms again returned. I directed more of the Balsam to be given him when the disease subsided and the patient was convalescent. It took one bottle to effect a cure. I have also so often witnessed the beneficial effects of the Carminative Balsam in summer complaints and diarrhœa that I would not be without for its weight in silver.

I remain thy friend,

JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.

We have heretofore numbered ourselves among those who believed that the 'Hair Tonic,' prepared by Dr. Jayne, was one of the many quack nostrums whose virtues are never seen beyond the fulsome puffs of their authors. We are willing, at length, to make public acknowledgment of the error of our belief. An intimate friend, some two or three months since all the top of whose cranium was as bald as a piece of polished marble, margre all our jesting and ridicule of the idea of attempting to cultivate so barren a spot, purchased a bottle or two of the Hair Tonic from Dr. Jayne, and according to his directions, applied it. During the present week the same friend ushered himself into our presence, and uncovering his hitherto naked head, astonished us with a thin, but luxuriant growth of hair, from one to two inches in length—upon the very premises we had believed as unyielding to cultivation as the rockless and that skirts the Atlantic. This is no puff, but it is religiously true, and to those who doubt it the gentlemen can be pointed out. What is more in favor of this 'Tonic,' the case here cited was not one of temporary baldness—no sudden loss of the hair—but was one of years standing, though the gentleman is but forty five years of age.—Philadelphia Spirit of the Times.
