Barrell bad said to me before that if any of ny introduced, we smit it. fer of the kind was made I shoul I keep to myself until we could get to into a preper shape to expose it but I felt unwilling to trust my reputation in any one man's hands. Mr. Laparte encouraged me to go on to be careful as to what I said and see what would come of it. Mr. Laporte then left my room in a manner that appeared to me be excited. We Luparts then stated (what I did not know before) that Mr. M' him iu a similar manner to myself.

Last evening my brother in law had gentleman had been there and had left a Judge Leports's room and showed it to him. plicated in the charge of bribery. (Here Mr. F read a note inviting him to) No. 22 as his room was engaged.)

abandoning the whole thing. I observed rived from their investigation: to Mr. L-had I not better mention this to that I had doubts what to do. I stated the dess carried out in full

Mr M'C came to my room about 11 Lehigh county Bink; at Allentown, i high County Bank. I asked him for it and he showed me a receipt from the President and Cachier of the Bank fut $100 .mitted. 3000, from Moses N Beach. He said to could desposit the money -or would I take purpose proposing to the Hon: John aelected any one. He says, I want to pav you $250 to night, and $250 when the report was made: I said the better way would be to settle the thing on the spotwe probably might not see each other afterwards. He said he would give me his note endorsed by any one I could name for the remaining $250. I mensioned that this offor was to desposit $500-leaving the im-twenty minutes till he could go over and get the additional $250? I said it would night as the investigation would go on to day I mentioned that the committee on

Mr. Knoz, from the committee or which was read.

REPORT.

That immediately after their appoint nent, they entered upon the discharge both sat down begged me to be quiet not to and in the presence of the said Daniel say, that in their opinion, there is noth olutions: MCook, who was altened by his coun had taken the evidence of all those per- throughout under the advice of the Hon.

The Committe have appended

Mr. Is advised me by all means not to will state briefly the facts proved and would result from such an exposure as go into the gentleman's room. I felt like the conclusions to which they have ar could only be made by permitting the It appears from the evidence intro

"Mr" Ward, [who had come into his room.] duced, that the said Daniel M'Cook re- Comittee concur in the opinion, that the iel M'Cook. sides in the county of Carrol, in the exposure and proper punishment of this Resolved. That the Committee be dis matter to Mr. Ward-stated my doubts sides in the county of Garrol, in the exposure and proper punishment of this Resolved. That the Committee be dis whether te abandon the project or receive State of Ohio, and at the present time highhanded ontrage, will teud to preserve charged from the further consideration of the money. He said that I should go on - holds the office of clerk of the several unimpared the confidence of the people the subject that the thing would not be completed un- courts of said county; and that he is in the purity of legislative actionhere in the capacity of an agent for the The committee deem it due to Messrs.

Hillands, S cel and Barber, the three o'clock last evening, and exhibited a bun- this Siete, his particular object being to members of the Committe on Banks. dle of papers and read a list of them, num. lobtain from the committee on Banks in who are mentioned in the testimony, as bering from seven to eight. Mr. Burrell this House, a report against the proposed being understood to be favorable to the had said to me if he (Mr. C.) said anything repeal of the charter of the said bank, and Lehigh county Bink, that there is not to ask him for a certain receipt, said to that in the attempt to procure the vote the slightest evidence for a supposition have been given for the stock of the Le- of Victor E. Pioltet, a member of said that they had been tampered with in recommittee, for a favorable report to lation to this affir: Their characters said bank, the offence charged was com for honor and integrity forbids this idea and it was clearly proved that they had never exchanged a word with Mr. M'-In the first place, the said Daniel M' me-your brother in law has co ne to town. I said yes-he has gone out. (He had Cook attempted to procure the vote of Cook, and that they did not even know stepped out at my request.) He asked me Mr. Piollet through the influence of his him, until after his arrest by the Ser if I had selected a friend with whom he personal and political friends; for that gent at Arms.

In view of all the circumstances, you it myself? I stated to him that I had not Laporte, to whom he had been casually Committee is constrained to say, that a introduced, that he would deposit with most gross contempt of the dignity of him $500 dollars, for the use of said La- the House, and a fligrant attempt to seen that the reductions proposed by the porte's son, to whom he said he had corrupt one of its members, has been Cabinet on American produce are most imwritten to come to Harrisburg, and to perpetrated by Daniel M'Cook. The whom he proposed the money should evidence is clear, to the point; and be paid as soon as the committee made leaves no room for doubt. If any a favorable report. Joubt could possibly exist in the face

Being repulsed by Judge Laporte, of the paid testimony in the case, they pression that I would not take a less sum and an stienipt made at his instance to must all at once be dispelled, by the He stated to me that he had not money induce Elisha S. Goodrich, Esq, clerk production of the identical money with then-that Mr. Beach, and the men with of the Sanate and a citiz in of the same which the corrupt attempt was made. whom he acted, and from whom he got the county with Mr. Piollet, for the con- Upon this conclusive fact, rests a conmoney, were in town, I think at Herr's ho- sideration of one hundred dollars, which sideration of much importance in this, and is expected to increase the business of sure the continuance of the great benefits to would be the greatest misfortune if a contel, and asked me if I could wait fifteen or was offered to induce the said vote, hav and all similar cases.

ing failed, it seems that he determined It may be alledged, that it was the do as well in the morning. Mr M'C said to approach Mr. Prollet in person; and duty of a gentleman who was approach it was important to have it settled that on Saturday last, having sought and ob-ed, to repel incattempt at the first blosh. tained an interview with him, he stated It must be remembered that a previous character and reputation [and Mr. M? any punishment which his House could the subject made the fullowing report, Cook appears from the evidence to have inflict, would be entirely inadequate, and neen] could so far forget what was due that the ends of justice would be to himself and to his fellow men, to the more certain of fulfilment by placing voluntarily attempt and actually con the offender within the power and un blighting consequences sgainst the well of the Commonwealth, your Committee their efficiency. very singular at the time. In four or five of the duties assigned them, and com- being of Government to Treason itself would respectfully offer for the consid aftince to be consummated by the actu al payment of the money. And your proper officers the person of the said Dan affected has prevailed to the utmost extent Sir Robert Peel-I never entertained the

JOHN C. KNOX. ALEXANDER GWIN. R: T. GALLOWAY.

The resolution passed the Leuislature, and Mr. McCook gave bonds for his appearance at the Lext term of the Dauphen County Couris.

FOREIGN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

The news is of the most important and gratifying character. It is of the most paific kind, and the important change in the

Peel will tend to preserve the peaceful relations of the two countries. It will be oursped portant to our merchants and agriculture. Both Sir Robert Peel and Lord John Russel condemned the course pursued by tage be yet more extensively applied, the manufacturing districts, navy is opposed by Lord John Russell.

this him all Mr. M'C. had said to me. Mr. follows, gives the substance of the testimo- committe, is to increase their surprise punishable at common law by our courts jam deeply sensible of the importance of en-forring to the state of our relations with the ind regret, that any man possessed of of justice. And in view of the fact that forcing economy in all branches of the ex- United States, and he must say that for penditure, yet I have been compelled, by a thought her Majesty's expressions on the due regard to the exigency of the public subject highly proper and becoming. He service, and to the state of our naval and thought too, that the paragraph recommendmilitary establishments, to propose some ing an increase in the army and navy estiummate, an offence second only in its der the control of the judicial tribunats increase in the estimates which provide for mates one of the best, under present circumstances, in the whole speech, [hear] and he

My Lords and Gentlemen;-I have ob saw it with considerable gratification, when minute he returned with Mr. Burrell, They nenced the examination of witnes. It is proper for your Committee to eration of the House, the following res- served, with deep regret, the very frequent he found the chief magistrate of a great instances in which the crime of delibera country, from whom he expected better ing in the conduct of Mr. Piollet, con Resolved, That the Attorney General or tive assassination has been of late commit things, venture to set at naught all those sel, James M'Cormick and Thaddeus nected with this transaction, calculated his Deputy, in the county of Dauphin; be ted in Ireland. It will be your duty to conclude and regulations which sivilized nations Cook had on Saturday I think approached Stevens, Eig's . and continued the ex to throw the least suspicion upon him as requested to take the necessary steps to ar- sider whether any measures can be devised observed towards each other, rest and bring to ;rial, in said county, the calculated to give increased protection to It would be acting contrary to the v room by my landlord. He stated that a sone supposed to be acquainted with the J ha Laports, Surveyor General, the person of Daniel M'Cook, upon the charge life, and to bring to justice the perpettators tenor of his life, which had been the facts connected with the transaction, fa- Hon, Jesse Miller. Secretary of the of having attempted, by the payment of of so dreadful a crime, I have to lament efficient, useful and proper powers of note far me. Jopened it, read it, took into vorable or otherwise to the person im. Common wealth, and Jeremiah M. money, corruptly to procure the vote of that in consequence of the failure of the policy or otherwise to the person im. Common wealth, and Burrel, E.q., a highly respectable mem Victor E. Piollet, Esq., a member of the tato crop several parts of the United King the speech, and he was sure there was a to ber of this legislature, who all urged Pennsylvania Legislature, in favor of the dom, there will be a deficient supply of an disposition on the part of the house to place their report a copy of the evidence, and upon him the beneficial effects that Lehigh County Bank, and that, upon the article of food which forms the chief sub at her majesty's command those means assuing of the warrant of arrest, the Ser-sistence of great numbers of my people, which would maintain the honor of the gant at Arms be directed to deliver to the The disease by which the plant has been country. Cheers, > in Ireland. slightest apprehension that any contrast br-

> I have adopted all such precautions as it iween the language employed in Her Mawas in my power to adopt for the purpose lesty's speech, in reference to those unforof alleviating the suffering which may be tunate disputes that still prevail between caused by this calamity and I shall confighties country and America, and that which dentivirely on your co-operation in devis- has been used by the Chief Magistrate of ing such other means for effecting the same the United States, would have been made benevolent purpose, as may require the in this Bopse. I Lever thought that that sanction of the Legislature. I have had could have been mistaken or misrepresentgreat satisfaction in giving my assent to the ad. We have no hesitation in announcing measures which you have presented to me our sincere desire, for the interest of this from time to time, calculated to extend com- country, for the interest of the U. States, merce and to stimulate domestic skill and and for the interest of the civilized world, industry, by the repeal of prohibitory and in continuing to strain every effort which > the relaxation of protective: duties. The is consistent with national honor, for the prosperous state of the revence, the in- purpose of amicably terminating those discreased demand for labor, and the general putes. Hear.

commercial policy proposed by Sir Robert improvement which has taken place in the I never had any apprehension that our internal condition of the country, are strong i mentions or our language would be mistestimonies in favor of the course you have represented, and the speech which the Hon. gentleman, (Mr. Hume.) the uniform and

I recommend you to take into your early consistent advocate for the strictest economy, has just made, confirms me that my onsideration whether the principles on anticipations will not be disappointed. which you have acted may not with edvan-(Cheers) And if any proposal which her Mr. Packenham on the Oregon question in whether it may not be in your power, after Majesty's Government may feel it their du refusing Mr. Buchannan's offer without careful review of the existing duties upon ty to make for the maintainance of essential consulting his government. The reduction many articles the produce or manufacture rights, or of the national honor, shall be reof duties on American produce, proposed of other countries to make such further re- sponded to and supported by the House. by Sir Robert Peel, meets with much favor ductions and remissions as may tend to in then let me not be misiaken. I think it which I have adverted, and, by enlarging test about the Oregon between two such The proposition to increase the army and our commercial intercourse to strengthen powers as England and the United States. the bonds of amity with foreign powers, could not, by the exercise of moderation & Lord Morpeth has given his name to a Any measures which you may adopt for good sense be brought to a perfectly honhis wishes, urging upon him as reason, why attempt was made on Mr. Laporte, for document prepared by the Peace Society. effecting these great objects will, I am con- orable & satisfactory conclusion. (Cneers.) Banks did not meet till after the adjourn- his vate should be favorable to the bank the purpose of reaching Mr. Piollet, by recommending addresses from merchants vinced, be accompanied by such precautions The Oregon and River Platte Quesment of the House, and that my brother in that the opposition to the bank was M'Cook, and that an intimation and a and other classes in England to similar class as shall prevent permanent loss to the rev- tions .- Lord John Russell referred, in his law would be in a few minutes-that it without cause; and that the persons in warning, was given to Mr. Piollet, that ses in the United States, in favor of perpet- enue, or injurous results to any of the great place in the House, to certain statements aterests of the country. put forth in America, and had been report-I have full reliance on your just and dis- ed to have been made to the Congress of passionate consideration of matters so deep, the United States, which made it desirable ly affecting the public welfare. It is my that some explanation should be given on earnest prayer that with the blessings of the subject. He had thought that the Presi-Divine Providence on your conneils, dent of the U. S. had last year made deyou may be enabled to promote clarations to Congress on this subject which were not comfortable to the uses of civilized triendly feelings between different countries, or to the friendly relations of the classes of my subjects, provide additional security for the continuance to peace and to two States, but would appear, however that maintain contentment & happiness at home, a proposition for a compromise had been made from the President to her Majesty's by increasing the comforts of the great body. government, and he (Lord John Russell) of my people. conceived that that proposition had changed The Queen emphasized the portions of the speech which referred to the continu- the state of the question ance of peace and to the reduction of the The proposition itself might be satisfacory, or not satisfactory; but having been The Earl of Hume movel the address in made, it did appear to him to require a a brief speech, at which he glanced at most statement from those in authority in this ountry of the terms on which they would of the topics touched upon in the speech rom the throne. He concluded with read e satisfied to settle this question. That ng the words of the address, which merely proposition, as he understood, had not been eccived by her Majesty's government, but choed the speech. Lord De Ros seconded the address and had been declared to be totally inadmissi interrupted, and sets of barbarity have been expressed a hope that the pacific relations b'e by our Minister in America. He Lord with America would not be disturbed by the John Russell' confessed he thought that was a hasty proceeding on the part of the The Duke of Richmoud made an angry representative of her Majesty in the United

would be a more ample and thorough ex- sustained. posure il I were to receive the money, and I consented to ge on.

it a handful of bills of the denominations of attend to the business of the bank before No man of honest purpose, could by observed the words Plainfield Bank on the sation. notes as he counted them over $460-395 in notes and took from his pucket two gr eagles to make out the sum. He remarked that I must wait for the other -hundred dollars till the report of the committee was made-be would have to ask me to do it. 600m.

I then sent for Mr. Buehler, my landlord. he esma, and opened the drawer and asked him to coant that money, pointing to it, he said he was busy, and I said, 4 want you to count that money -- I have reasons for it -it was paid to me a few minutes ago for favorably to the bank. my vote in the Committee on Banks, and I intend to take it up to ask the House to duced) package. It may not be improper ey was made, it was a matter of great doubt with me whether i should receive it or not. and but for the counsel and advice of friends should not have received it.

The cross-examination elicited lutte new. The witness, at this stage of the proceedings arowed that nothing took place at the first meeting to lead him to enspeet corcupt intentions, although he had resulted t that after the first interview he had consultthe three who would go-for the Bink. he action testified by Messes. Edie Pom by directing the Sergeant at arms to re-would do as well in the morning-and we terested were members of the same po he would probably be corruptly apparted I then went to Messes Burrel and litical party, to which he (Piollet) be- proached, and that it was for the pure Laporte, strongly inclined to abandon the longed, and that men of high standing pose of making a complete exposure, project, so far as receiving the money was and influence in the democratic party, that he concluded to let the matter take concerned. Those gentleman thought it were anxious that the bank should be such a course, and go just as far as the author of it intended, and would push At this interview, no intimations it. It is insufficient to say, and is not were given that money would be paid sustained by the evidence, that M'Cook This morning, at 2 o'clock, as 7 went up from the barber shop, I found M'Cook, in for the desired vote; but on Monday was drawn in, and induced to act as be my room. He said he had been waiting morning he sgain called on Mr. Prollet, did .- His previous deliberate intention. for me for some time, and said he had the and stated to him that he had written is clearly proved, and that he carried in money. He took off his hat and took from to his father to come to Harrisburg, to out, is no man's wrong but his own.

loubt.

1, 2, 3, 5 and 10 dollars; saw them as he the Committee, and that he had offered possibility he induced to commit a counted them over in his lap by the fire: him three hundred dollars as a competed crime, by the mere fact that no man stays his hand. Your Committee view this as an offer The offence being then elearly proved made to Mr. Piollet of that sum of mon- the question that presents itself, is this Russia, through the success of our joint me ey, to induce him to vote as desired, as what action shall the House take to init is apparent that the intention of the sure the punishment of the offender? This said M'Cook was not to procure the case being without procedent in this I unlocked my bureau drawer, whereil keep services of the father of a member of Commonwealth, it is important that the my letters, and remarked, you can put the the Committee, merely to assist in ex-action of the House upon it, should be money there. He done so and left my plaining the matter, but his evident in dictated by prudence and care, as it will tention, was to propose to Mr. Piolle doubtless hereafter, in some degrees, be

I instandy rang the bell-the servant in that indirect matter, that he would looked upon as a precedent, although it afflicted the States of the Rio de la Plata. came, and I sent him to Mr. Burrell's room give him the sum mentioned, for his is to be hoped, that as it is the first, so it to tell bim to come; the servant returned vote. This interview is retrengthened may be the last case that may ever he and said he was not there, and I sent him by what subsequently occured, as we acted upon by a Pennsylvanian Legisfor Mr. Laporte, and he returned and said learn in the same conversation, he (M' lature.

he was no where to be found in the house: Cook) stated, that three of the commit Your Committee can scarcely find land ce agreed to report favorably, and that guage sufficiently strong to express their King of the French. I am endeavoring to he would deposit with him or any oth- otherrence and detestation of the per per effect a pacification of these States. The or person he would name. $500 dollars, trators of such offences as the one they Convention concluded with France, in the if he (Piollet) would vote for a report were charged o investigate They strike course of last year, for the more effectual

It is unnecessary to give a detailed poison the head springs of legislation, statement of all that occurred at the thwart the high and pure purpose of the make a disposal of it,' he counted it and different interviews. Suffice it to say people, and laugh at law and morality. and scaled it up in that (here it was pro- that, on Tuesday morning, $400 dollare If they be permitted to go unwhipt of the coast of Africa. It is my desire that was paid by said Daniel M'Cook, to the justice, and he thus encouraged to pros- our present union, and the good understand. sion to state here that after the offer of the mon said Victor E. Piollet, and an addition- ecute their infamous vocation, hones ing which so happily exists between us, I one hundred dollars promised, upon legislation will be impossible, and our may always be employed to promote the condition of a favorable report being whole frame of representative govern interests of humanity and to secure the made, thus proving the commission of ment in the end become but a whitened peace of the world he offence charged beyond reasonable sepulchre.

It is due from the House, to its own And in the spinion of the committee, honor and dignity, to public justice and the evidence off-red and received on he- good morals, that such an example shall half of the said Daniel M'Coos, does be made, as will deter men from simi attempt at bribery. He also stated that Mr dence before them. There are no ma- cloude and taints of corruption. M'C, had not told him of any other mem- tertal discreptucies between the testi- This House can only punish the conber of the committee being brided. In ex. mony of Mr. Piollet before the Com- tempt against its privileges, by a repriplanation as to whether Mr M'C named mittee, and his statements of the trans mand from the Honorable Speaker, and ual amity, and the reference of all points of misunderstanding to the arbitration of disinterested nations.

THE QUEENS SPEECH At the opening of Parliament, the Queen made the following speech.

My Lord's and Gentlement - It gives me great satisfaction to meet you in Parliament, and to have the opportunity of recurring to your assistance and advice. I continue to receive from my allies, and from other foreign powers, the strongest assurance of the desire to cultivate the most friendly relations with this country. I rejoice that in concert with the Emperor of diation, I have been enabled to adjust the differences which had long prevailed between the Otteman Porte and the King of Persia, and had seriously endangered the tranquility of the East. For several years a desolating and sanguinary warfare has

The commerce of all nations has been committed, unknown to the practice of a civilized people. In conjunction with the Oregon dispute.

a deadly blow at our free institutions, suppression of the slave trade, is about to active cosoperation of the two Powers on mination.

Hear, hear. Quarrels might take place be- him an answer, and have therefore to crave stamed Mesers, Hiland, Steel and Barber. roy as d others and in regard to the ev lain in custody the offender during Gentlemen of the House of Commons- tween different nations, but these two great that he will postpone his question until an digt as the report of the committee, which it has made upon the minds of your to the investigation of your Committee is fore you at an early period. Although I There was a paragraph in the speech re- On the subject of the Oregon territory I attack on the policy of Sir Robert Peel and States.

the conduct of the Anti-Corn-Law League. Lord Stanley stated that he left the Cab- the negotiations had re commenced or were net because he thought that the proposed going ou? He was not desirous that the be carried into immediate execution by the scheme would not give sufficient protection papers should be presented to the House; to the agriculturalists.

HOUSE OF COMMONS-JAN. 22.

England and the United States. Mr. Hume after complimenting Sir Ro- gotiations.

He also asked Sir Robert Peel whether bert Peel upon his proposed liberal policy. I regret that the conflicting claims of said, there was one other point to which he he proposed to lay on the table any papers Great Britain and the United States in re- would refer, and that was, to express a hope explanatory of the ground upon which her spect of the territory on the Northwestern that the Right Honorable Baronet would Majesty's government thought it necessary coast of America, although they have been continue to maintain the good understand- to interfere with the warfare which has oc not impair or in any degree weaken lar offences, and clear the atmosphere a- made the subject of repeated negotiation, ing which from her Majesty's speech ap- curred in the States of the Rin de la Plata? that after the brat interview he as consider the clear case made by the direct evi- round our legislative halls from all still remain unseuled. You may be assur- peared to prevail between France and Eng- Sir Robert Peel .-- With reference to the red that no effort, consistent with national land. (Hear) It was in the power of the question just put by the noble lord, I beg honor shall be wanting on my part to bring British Government united with that of to say, that not forseeing that he would this question to an early and peaceful ter- France to command the peace of the world put it. I am not at present prepared to give

Several other witnesses were examined; idence of good character, the effect that its session. But the offence committed, The estimates for the year will be laid be- nations united would prevent war. Hear, other time.

But what he wished to ask was, whether he was willing to leave the negotiation in The address was carried without a divisible hands of her Majesty's government un til they could state that a satisfactory result had been attained, before he asked for my information of the particular state of the ne