THE GARLAND.

"—With sweetest flowers enrich'd,
From various gardens cull'd with care."

CLEAR THE WAY.

Men of thought! be up and stirring
Night and day;
Sow the seed—withdraw the curtain—
Clear the way
Men of action, aid and cheer them,
As ye may!

There's a fount about to stream,
There's a light about to beam,
There's a warmth about to glow,
There's a flower about to blow:
There's a midnight blackness changing
Into gray;
Men of thought, and men of action;
Clear the way!

Once the welcome light has broken,
Who shall say,
What the unimagined glories
Of the day?
What the evil that shall perish
In its ray?

Aid the dawning, tongue and pen;
Aid it, hopes of honest men;
Aid it paper—aid it type—
Aid it, for the hour is ripe,
And our earnest must not slacken
Into play.
Men of thought, and men of action!
Clear the way!

Lo! a cloud's about to vanish
From the day;
Lo! the right's about to conquer
Clear the way!
And a brazen wrong to crumble
Into clay.

With that right shall many more
Enter smiling at the door;
With the giant Wrong shall fall
Many others, great and small,
That for ages long have held us
For their prey:
Men of thought, and men of action,
Clear the way!

CHANGE.

Change is written on the tide,
On the forest's leafy pride,
On the streamlet glancing bright,
On the jewelled crown of night—
All whereon the eye can rest,
Shows it legibly impress.

All things earthly, like a dream,
Pass, and are not what they seem,
O'er their features, while we gaze,
Swiftly sweeps some varying phase.
Lo! the storm hath passed away—
Mark the rainbow's vivid ray!
Where? Tis past. We look again—
Sunshine brightens all the plain—
Let thy spirit bathe in light—
Look again—thou look'st on night!

Lo! within its mother's arms,
Smiles the babe in infant charms:
Look again—on that fair brow,
Care hath ploughed its furrows now,
Wordless now those lips no more,
Hark! what eloquence they pour,
Eloquence that chains and burns,
Startles, soothes, and wins by turns.

Such is life all fair to-day,
Dark, to-morrow, dull and grey—
Changing ever, like the moon,
Or the fleecy clouds of June,
Now in brightness, now in gloom—
Now the cradle—now the tomb.

But beyond this shifting sky.
Look with faith-illumined eye,
There, upon that glorious shore,
Change and death are known no more,
There the dark domain shall cease,
There is permanence and peace.

When is a carpenter like a young lady!—When he's making sashes.

Why is a person going to bed, like the American tragedian? Because he's Forrest.

An advocate lately gained a suit for a poor young woman. When she was told of her success she exclaimed. 'I have nothing to repay you with but my heart.' 'I shall not take any fees of you,' answered the advocate. 'You may hand it over to my clerk.'

He who refuses to do justice to the defenceless will often be found making unreasonable concessions to the powerful.

Brandreth's Pills

READ and understand! The time will come when the medicine, Brandreth Pills will be appreciated as they ought and deserve; it will be understood that Dr. Brandreth has the strongest claims upon the public. It is true that every individual who makes a trial of the Brandreth Pills concede them to be the best medicine they ever used. They are indeed a medicine about which there is no mistake. Their value in a climate so changeable as ours cannot be sufficiently appreciated A free perspiration is at once restored, thus they cure colds and consumption is prevented.—Those who have a redundancy of bile find them of the most essential service and should there be a deficiency of that important fluid the Brandreth Pills have an equally beneficial effect. Often has this important medicine saved valuable lives in those regions where the dreadful yellow fever was prevailing A few doses taken immediately upon the infection being received into the system will be almost certain to prevent any material inconvenience And at no stage of this dreadful epidemic is there so proper a medicine as the Brandreth Pills. Let this medicine be universally used in this disease and no loss of blood allowed, and few very few would be its victims. So it is with other diseases. Assist nature with this all important [illegible] morbid humors from the blood, and do not resort to [illegible] shall have a very great scarcity of persons afflicted with cronic maladies. The feathered tribe—the animal kingdom over which we are the lords, are not afflicted with chronic maladies; neither should we be if it were not for our prize which occasions them. Follow nature. Use the medicine which harmonizes with her, which mildly but surely removes all the impurities of the blood, which strengthens the feeble and yet reduces those of too full habit to a healthy standard. Let me again say that every department of the manufacture of Brandreth Pills is personally superintended by me, and that every box with my three labels upon it may be relied upon to have the beneficial effect described if used according to the directions accompanying.
