

A Postmaster Detected in Robbing the Mail.—It appears that on the 6th of March 1846, Mr. Edmund Tiffany, residing in Nasquehanna county, mailed two letters at the Brooklyna Post-office, in the above county, one addressed to Wetmore & Co., and the other to White & Burns, of the city of New York, and each letter containing $40, principally in ten dollar notes—four of these bills were marked with a black line drawn across the back; also, the date of mailing was marked in the hand write of Mr. Tiffany—these letters never reached their destination. Officer A. M. C. Smith of New York, whom it appears has been appointed special agent by the Postmaster General, to investigate this matter, was informed that two of the ten bills, marked as above, were discovered in the Honesdale Bank, Pennsylvania. These bills had been deposited by a Mr. Zenas H. Russell, who received the same from Eben H. Clark the Postmaster at Cherry Ridge, in this county. Upon procuring this information officer Smith in company with Mr. Tiffany, proceeded to Cherry Ridge, and upon an interview with Mr. Clark, respecting the robbery, and from the fact of the money being traced from him, which was identified to be stolen money belonging to Mr. Tiffany he became much alarmed, and finally acknowledged the fact of abstracting the letters and money from the mail, and paid Mr. Tiffany back the $80, and asked to be forgiven, and hoped that the matter might be settled in this way. He also gave him $2 more to give to Mr. John Gillman, from whose letter he had abstracted that amount, and also asked him to forgive him. The whole of these proceedings were taken on last Friday, before E. Patience, Esq., justice of the peace, in Wayne county Pennsylvania. He was committed for examination. —New York Herald.

A HINDOO FEMALE.
One day when Lady Raffles, while in India, was almost overwhelmed with grief for the loss of a favorite child, unable to bear the sight of her other children, or the light of day, and humbled on her couch in a feeling of misery, she was addressed by a poor, ignorant native woman, of the lower class, who had been employed about the nursery, in terms not to be forgotten:—'I am come because you have been here many days shut up in a dark room, and no one comes to see you. Are you not ashamed to grieve in this manner, when you ought to be thanking God for having given you the most beautiful child that ever was sent? Were you not the envy of every body? Did any one ever see him or speak of him without admiring him? And instead of letting this child continue in this world till he should be worn out with trouble and sorrow, has not God taken him to heaven in all his beauty? For shame!—leave off weeping and let me open a window.'

More Rumors.—We understand, says the Petersburg, Va. Intelligence, of the 25th ult., that a bearer of despatches to our Government, in 12 days from Gen. Taylor's camp, passed through our town on Thursday. What the nature of these despatches were, we could not ascertain; but, we learn that the bearer of them stated, two day before he left Gen. Taylor, a battle with the Mexicans was daily expected; that Gen. Taylor had delivered a war speech to his army, and that daily accessions to the Mexican army were pouring in from all quarters.

Nauvoo, the former abode of the Mormons in Illinois, is almost entirely deserted. It is said that the property and farms in the city and neighborhood are very valuable and present great inducements for speculators—as the Mormons sell at half price in order to be off to California.

A HEROINE.—A man painted black and otherwise disguised, attempted to rob a woman residing near Beallsville, Monroe county, Ohio. She had sold a horse (says the Belmont Chronicle) for $75, which fact the villain knew. He demanded the whole amount. She gave him some bank notes, and desired that he should count them. As he stooped to do so, she struck him over the head with a heavy poker, and then alarmed the neighborhood. In a few minutes the man was found dead.

Pacific Express.—A Government Express, with despatches for the squadron in the Pacific, is said to have gone overland via St. Louis, the Prairies and Upper California, to meet a vessel at the Bay of San Francisco.

A Disclosure.—A woman, who goes by the name of 'Johnny,' was run over a day or two ago, and taken to the City Hospital, where her sex was first discovered. For several years she has been an omnibus driver in Broadway. She will tell nothing of her history.

What are you writing such a big hand for, Pat? Why you see, my grandmother's deaf, and I'm writin' a loud letter to her.

The Route to Oregon.—The Cincinnati Chronicle says:—A curious fact, connected with our rights and position in Oregon, was stated to us by a military friend. It is this:—After leaving the South West Pass, the only route which we have to reach the Valley of the Willamette and the Columbia, passes a large distance within the Mexican territory—Upper California. This is the route always taken by the emigrants.

The road to Oregon, is from Independence to the Kansas river; thence up the Valley of the Arkansas to the South West pass. Now this Pass is just four miles North of the 42d degree of latitude. This was a bare escape from the Mexican territory.

But when they leave the South West Pass; in order to turn the second range of Mountains, they are obliged to go southwardly, in a circuitous route, till they reach the valley of Green river in California. At the southern point of their journey, they are more than a hundred miles in the Mexican territory. From that point they turn North West, and get into valleys running into the Columbia.

This fact is of importance; for if we can find no other route, we may be obliged to purchase a portion of California, in order to secure the Right of Way.

Captain Fremont is now exploring California. He was last at Monterey. We may expect a very full report from him of the real situation and character of that country.

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.

So great has been the demand for Foger's Ossaonian or All Healing Balm, and it has given such general satisfaction to those who have used it and become acquainted with its virtues that it now stands pre-eminent as a remedy in Diseases of the Lungs, and the testimony which has been given by different persons who have been cured by it is altogether voluntary on their part. They have given it in the hope that all who may find themselves in need of this remedy may apply for it without delay.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Stineall, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Free Church. Mr. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical remedy, I take pleasure in bearing my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Ossaonian or All Healing Balm. Of its efficacy I can speak first from my own experience. Being subject from exposure more or less to the vicissitudes of our climate to frequent attacks of Influenza, Hoarseness, &c. I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation was induced to give the Ossaonian a trial and he pronounced the effect produced upon him a perfect charm affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a female friend far advanced in Consumption. After the use of the first bottle her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a lung cherished and firmly established pneumonia against the thousand and one specifics put forth in these days as sovereign panaceas for all disease, I assure you that nothing short of my firm conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin as respectable, and to the effects of it as proven and certified; both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, Sir, respectfully yours, R. C. SHIMEALL.

Have you a Cough, which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the chest, shortness of breath, night sweats?

Do you have Blood when you cough and find your strength gradually failing? You will find that these symptoms if not properly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint

Asthma, which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life burdensome.

Here is the Remedy. Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained, and do not be put off with any other. It has produced a cure in as desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put to flight in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties do not deceive. The short dry cough is quickly overcome and easy and healthy expectoration takes its place. Spitting of blood is immediately checked. Night sweats with pain in the side and chest, debility and difficulty of breathing yield in a short time. Asthma with all its dreadful accompaniments is at once relieved. Bronchitis and in fact all the diseases of the throat and Lungs give way before this remedy when all other means have failed.

Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other remedy, pronouncing it to be equally as good but remember life is at stake, therefore

Be not Deceived. The above medicine for sale by the following agents:
E. P. Lutz, Bloomsburg, W. L. Waller & Co. Newark, E. & J. Lazarus, Orangeville; Levi B. B. Jerseytown; Derr & McBride, White Hall; S. B. Bally, Catawissa.

C. King's Ointment, which has not only cured me of the piles but has greatly benefited my health otherwise.

Jay's Life Preservative, An alternative and depurative preparation, combining all the medical virtues of those articles which long experience has proved to possess the most safe and efficient character, and unobscured specialties for the cure of Scrophula, King's Evil, white swellings, ulcers, Scrophulous eruptions and indolent tumors, rheumatism, gout, scurvy, neuralgia or tic-douloureux, cancer, gonorrhea or gonorrhoea, (swelled neck) enlargement of the bowels, joints or ligaments or of the ovaries, liver, spleen, kidneys, &c.
