MY MAIDEN AUNT

BY HOLMES.

My aunt my dear unmarried aunt! Long years have o'er her flown, Yet still she strains the aching clasp That binds her virgin zone, I know it hurts her—though she looks As cheerful as she can. Her waist is ampler than her life, For life is but a span. My aunt, my poor deluded aunt, Her hair is almost gray; Why will she train that winter curl In such a spring like way? How can she lay her glasses down, And say she reads as well, When through a double convex lens She just makes out to spell. Her father—grandpapa forgive This string lip its smiles— Vowed she would make the finest girl Within a hundred miles He sent her to a stylish school, 'Twas in her thirteenth June; And with her, as she rules required, 'Two towels and a spoon.' They braced my aunt against a beard, To make her straight and tall; They laced her up, they starved her down, To make her light and small; They pinched her feet, they singed her hair, They screwed it up with pins; O, never mortal suffered more In penance for her sins. So when my precious aunt was done, My grand father brought her back (By day light, lest some rapid youth Might follow on the track, 'Ahl' said my grandpapa, as he shook Some powder in his pan, 'Why what could this lovely creature do Against a desperate man.' Alas! nor chariot, nor barrouche, Nor banish cavalcade, Tore from the trembling father's arms His all accomplished maid. For her how happy had it been! And Heaven had spared to me To see one sad, ungathered rose On my ancestral tree. From the Daily Chronicle SPRING. Spring is coming, Birds are humming, Notes of sweetest minstrelsy; Flowers are spreading, Perfume shedding, Over the mountain, vale and lea: Streamlets dancing, Sunbeams glancing, On their waves of glittering gold; Insects flying, Breezes sighing, Soft as tales by beauty told. Forest waiving, Rivers laving, Castle bold and cottage rude, Music swelling, Echo telling, From her woodland solitude. Groves are bending, Beauty lending, To the glen and rocky way, Cascade leaping, Wild vines creeping, Nature in her holiday. Lakes are sleeping, Silence keeping, Vigils o'er their silvery tide, Hares are bounding, Red deer bounding, Swiftly up the mountain side. Nature singing, Rapture bringing, Harmony on every strings Hear it raise, In notes of praise, Welcome, welcome, gentle spring. New Holtsie, Pa. A. R. K. TO A FLOWER. Dawn, gentle flower, From the morning earth! Jf'e will gaze and wonder At thy wondrous birth! Boom, gentle flower! Lover of the light, Sought by wind and shower, Founded by the night! Fade, gentle flower, All while leaves eince; Having shown thy beauty, True 'tis for repose. Die, gentle flower, In the silent sun! Sol all pangs are over, And thy tasks are done.

Day hath no more glory, Though he soars so high Thine is all man's story, Live—and love—and die!

ANECDOTE OF NAPOLEON.

The following anecdote was related to us some time since, by an officer in the Voltigeurs. On the evening preceding the battle of Austerlitz Napoleon left his tent for a few moments, leaving a snuff box which he was in the habit of using upon the camp table. On his return he took up the box—opened it and thrust in his finger and thumb as usual, when an idea struck him that there was something wrong in the box, he immediately inquired if any person had been seen entering his tent during his absence. The guards replied, 'No sire,' he then summoned the attendance of two of his guards, and taking up a small spangle that was present, he compelled the animal to inhale a small quantity of snuff, in three minutes the animal went into convulsions and died—a second was tried with the same results—Napoleon told then his general, that when he returned the box was in the precise position in which he left it—but on putting his fingers into the snuff he had an instinctive feeling that the snuff contained in the box was not in the same state as when he left it, his general advised an immediate inquiry—this Napoleon opposed, with his usual sagacity—telling them it would not answer to have his soldiers know that the life of their general had been attempted in his own camp and in his own tent on the eve of a great battle.

Mesmerism—Copper Mining.—A New York letter says:—A copper company (I speak sober truth on the best authority,) is now sinking shafts in search of ore in New Jersey, under the direction of a clairvoyant subject, who is put to sleep by a professor of the art for that express purpose. I obtained my information from the professor himself.

LEGISLATURE OF RHODE ISLAND. Byron Dimon has been elected Governor, and Elisha Harris Lieut. Governor, by the Legislature of Rhode Island. The vote for Governor was—for Byron Dimon, 61; Charles Jackson, 30. For Lieut. Governor—Elisha Harris, 61; Jesse L. Moss, 37.

A HARD RUB FOR TRUTH. Old parson M., of—Worcester co., sometime used to be absent on a missionary tour. Once on a time, having just returned from one of these excursions, he found his congregation quite drowsy, and wishing to wake them up, he broke off right in the midst of his sermon, and began to tell them of what wonderful things he had seen in York State—among other wonders he said he had seen monstrous great 'mosquitoes' so large that many of them would weigh a pound!—The people were by this time wide awake, Yes continued the parson M., and moreover, they are often known to climb trees and bark!

The next day one of the deacons called upon him telling him that many of the brethren were much scandalized by the stories he told the day before. 'What stories?' says Parson M. 'Why sir you said that the Mosquitoes in York State were so large that some of them would weigh a pound?' 'Well,' rejoined the minister, 'I do really think that a great many of them would weigh a pound!'

GOOD—VERY GOOD—A valued friend ours, who has a most intelligent daughter, was yesterday at the breakfast table questioned in this wise by his interesting child: 'Papa, why is the Fourth of July, and Washington's Birth Day, like the new President of Mexico?' 'I'm sure I don't know, my good girl,' the parent replied. 'Well then, I'll tell you. Because they are General Parade Days, (Pardes.)'

An exchange paper says it is easy to be seen when a girl thinks much of her beau, far, when he approaches her, she sooner leans up to him like a sick kitten to a hot brick.

ENOCH HOWELL, TAILOR. RESPECTFULLY, informs the public that he Has Removed his Shop to Epsytown, where he will always be ready, as heretofore, to make any kind of clothing, at the shortest notice and in the best and most fashionable style. From his long experience in the business, he flatters himself that he shall continue to give general satisfaction and thereby hopes to receive a share of the public patronage. Particular attention paid to cutting. All kinds of country produce taken in payment for work. Epsytown, May 9, 1846.—43

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.

OF HEALING BALSAM. OF GREAT HAS BEEN THE DEMAND FOR FOTGE'S Olosonian or All Healing Balsam, and it has given such general satisfaction to those who have used it and become acquainted with its virtues that it now stands pre-eminent as a remedy in Diseases of the Lungs, and the testimony which has been given by different persons who have been cured by it is altogether voluntary on their part. They have given it in the hope that all who may find themselves in need of this remedy may apply for it without delay.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Shimesh, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Free Church. Mr. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical remedy, I take pleasure in bearing my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Olosonian or All Healing Balsam. Of its efficacy I can speak first from my own experience. Being subject from exposure more or less to the vicissitudes of our climate to frequent attacks of Influenza, Hoarseness, &c. I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous, and always by perseverance in its use, effectual relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation was induced to give the Olosonian a trial and he pronounced the effect produced upon him a perfect charm affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a female friend far advanced in Consumption. After the use of the first bottle her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a long cherished and firmly established prejudice against the thousand and one specifics put forth in these days as sovereign panaceas for all disease, I assure you that nothing short of my firm conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin so respectable, and to the effects of it as herein certified, both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, Sir, respectfully yours, R. C. HONMALL.

Have you a Cough, which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the side, shortness of breath, night sweats!

Do you raise Blood when you cough and find your strength gradually failing? You will find that these symptoms if not properly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint.

Asthma, which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life burdensome.

Here is the Remedy. Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained, and do not be put off with any other. It has produced a cure in as desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put to flight in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties do not deceive. The short dry cough is quickly overcome and easy and healthy expectoration takes its place. Spitting of blood is immediately checked. Night sweats with pain in the side and short debility and difficulty of breathing yield in a short time. Asthma with all its dreadful accompaniments, of the throat and Lungs give way before this remedy when all other means have failed. Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other remedy, pronouncing it to be equally as good but remember life is at stake, therefore

Brandreth's Pills

READ and understand! The time will come when the medicine, Brandreth's Pills will be appreciated as they ought and deserve; it will be understood that Dr. Brandreth has the strongest claims upon the public. It is true that every individual who makes a trial of the Brandreth Pills conclude them to be the best medicine they ever used. They are indeed a medicine about which there is no mistake. Their value in a climate so changeable as ours cannot be sufficiently appreciated. A free preparation is at once restored, thus they cure colds and consumption is prevented. Those who have a redundancy of bile find them of the most essential service and should there be a deficiency of that important fluid the Brandreth Pills have an equally beneficial effect. Often has this important medicine saved valuable lives in those seasons where the dreadful yellow fever was prevailing. A few doses taken immediately upon the infection being received into the system will be almost certain to prevent any material inconvenience. And at no stage of this dreadful epidemic is there so proper a medicine as the Brandreth Pills. Let this medicine be universally used in this disease, and no loss of blood allowed, and few lives would be its victims. So it is with other diseases. Assist nature with this all important medicine to remove morbid humors from the blood, and do not resort to bleeding or leechery, and we shall have a very great security of recovery. It cures with chronic maladies, the febrile and the aninal sluggishness ever which we are the Lord, are not afflicted with chronic maladies, neither should we be if it were not for our pride which occasions them. Follow nature. Use the medicine which harmonizes with her, which mildly but surely removes all the impurities of the blood, which strengthens the feeble and yet reduces those of too full blood to a healthy standard. Let me again say that every department of the manufacture of Brandreth Pills personally superintended by me, and that every box with my three labels upon it may be relied upon to have the beneficial effect described if used according to the directions accompanying it.

THE WARM WEATHER.

The sudden changes of the weather, during this season of the year, exhibit a most baneful effect on the human system, debilitating and prostrating it. The stomach and bowels become deranged, giving timely notice to all, who are inclined to give attention to the warning voice of nature. At such times Jayne's 'Garniture' never fails to afford immediate relief, checking the disease and restoring the patient to vigorous health. Mothers cannot be too cautious with their children during this month, and the months following, and in the earliest stages of this summer disease, whether from teething, oppressive heat, or other causes, they should at once resort to this never failing remedy. Hundreds of certificates from respectable persons in this city, are in possession of the proprietor, ready to exhibit to all who may desire to see them at his office, No. 8 South Third street, Philadelphia.

LIFE! FIRE!! FIRE!!!

All that a man hath will be given for his life; so we find recorded in the most ancient and best of books, but as we see thousands dying around us with Consumption, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, and other Pulmonary affections, we are led to doubt the correctness of the above assertion, especially since it is so well known that a certain remedy may be obtained, which always arrests these diseases. Dr. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT never fails to give relief, and successful every other means have failed. This can be and has proved in thousands of instances, where it has effected radical cures, after the patient had been given up by all his friends and physicians.
