

Concluded from first page.
Arundel gracefully accepted the command, and it was then agreed that he and Jacob should mount guard, while Joseph placed the soldiers in their sylvan grave. In half an hour all were ready, to proceed the place of destination being now the American camp. Six of the muskets they hid near the spring. Marion, brave girl carried one by her own request. Mabel led poor little Arthur by the hand, and with Joseph leading the way, the prisoners in the centre, guarded also by Jacob, and the ladies and Arundel in the rear, they marched steadily on their way, for they were anxious to reach the camp before night fall.

Fortunately, about a mile from the camp they were met by a party of American soldiers who escorted them in triumph to the head quarters of the General, who received them with every attention which could be paid in a camp, and assigned them comfortable quarters, for rest and refreshment they needed greatly.

Joseph, through the influence of Arundel was raised to the rank of lieutenant after, regularly joining the army, where he had before served as volunteer.

Both brothers survived the war and when it was ended and peace was restored Thomas came and dwelt in a cheerful home made happy and pleasant by Joseph and Marion.
'It was a favourite remark of Jacob's, Marion sometimes used to say looking affectionately at her happy husband 'that the blackest cloud has a bright spot near it, and I'm sure I thought the cloud black enough when we felt into the hands of that cruel British sergent; but I little thought how bright a light would come from that cloud to me.'

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.

So great has been the demand for Foiger's Ointment or All Healing Balm, and it has given such general satisfaction to those who have used it and become acquainted with its virtues that it now stands pre-eminent as a remedy in Diseases of the Lungs, and the testimony which has been given by different persons who have been cured by it is altogether voluntary on their part. They have given it in the hope that all who may find themselves in need of this remedy may apply for it without delay.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Shimeall, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Free Church. Mr. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical relief, I take pleasure in bearing my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Ointment or All Healing Balm. Of its efficacy I can speak from my own experience. Being subject from exposure more or less to the vicissitudes of our climate to frequent attacks of Influenza, Hoarseness, &c. I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous relief, and always by perseverance in its use, effectual relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation was induced to give the Ointment a trial and he pronounced the effect produced upon him a perfect claim affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a friend far advanced in Consumption. After the use of the first bottle her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a long cherished and firmly established prejudice against the thousand and one specifics put forth in these days as sovereign panaceas, for all disease, I assure you that nothing short of my firm conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin so respectable, and to the effects of it as herein certified, both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, sir, respectfully yours, R. C. SHIMEALL.

Have you a Cough, which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the side, shortness of breath, night sweats?

Do you raise Blood when you cough and find your strength gradually failing? You will find that these symptoms if not promptly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint

Asthma, which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life burdensome.

Here is the Remedy. Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained and do not be put off with any other. It has produced a cure in as desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put to flight in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties do not deceive. The short dry cough is quickly overcome and easy and healthy expectation takes its place. Spitting of blood is immediately checked. Night sweats with pain in the side and chest, debility and difficulty of breathing yield in a short time. Asthma with all its dreadful accompaniments is at once relieved. Bronchitis and in fact all the diseases of the throat and Lungs give way before this remedy when all other means have failed.

Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other remedy, pronouncing it to be equally as good but remember life is at stake, therefore

Be not Deceived. The above medicine for sale by the following agents.

E. P. Lutz, Bloomsburg. W. L. Waller & Co Berwick; E. & J. Lazarus, Orangeville; Levi B. Bel-Jerseytown; Derr & McBride, White Hall; S. Baily, Catawissa. 6m3
