from this State. What say the Whigs probably pass to morrow as amended. J. of Columbia County to the suggestion? We shall see,

"I would respectifully suggest to both parties the propriety now, in this crisis of affairs, that those representatives in low. Congress from Pennsylvania who have stood up manfully on all Pennsylvan questions, during this session, shall be re-elected by the united votes of both parties, except where the representation of Mr. John Pursel. tives shall decline a re-election, or is pledged to give way to another equally sale man. This would be but justsee to those who have done their duty man- of a number of my friend I have been infully; it would be a noble reward to office of SHERIFF of Columbia county at them, alike honorable to them and to the next general Election. Should I be so city of Hugh Smith. their political opponents, who thus fortunate as to receive a majority of your water party objections. I ask the can candid and dispassionate consideration of both parties, to this object. It wou'd be a proud speciacle to see Pennsylva nia at length united, and moving in one solid Macedonian phalanx upon the great question, and that speciacle would strike terror into the enemies of her prosperity who now lough and jeer a her stupidi'y and fidelity."

THE TARIFF.

On Monday last, Mr. Webster, hav ing concluded a speech against the Bill Mr. J. M. Clayton moved its cammittal to the Committee on Finances, and after consideral discussion it was so re fered, with instructions to discriminate in favor of the raw material, and against British manufactures, and at the same time to increase the revenue, so as to provide more adequate means for the support of the government. It was deeided in the affirmative by the following of Madison township, as a candidate for WASHINGTON, July 28-3 o'clock, P.M. The finance Committee reported back the Tariff bill this morning to the Senate wishout amendment, & asked to be discharg ed & they were discharged accordingly. Mr. Jarnigan voting yea.

On motion of Mr. Webster, the 9th section, was then stricken out by a rote of 28 to 26-Messis Benton and Jamagin voting

An amendment was offered by Rev erdy Johnson for recommitment to a select committee, with instructions to amend by inserting a clause making a discrimination in favor of raw materials which was rejected by the casting vote of the Vice President-the vote being 27 to 27, Januagin being absent.

Some further amendments were offerer by Mr. Hammond and rejected, discriminating in favor of iron and coal.

The question being taken on ordering the bill to be engrosed for a third reading it was decided in the affirmative by the easting vote of the Vice President-the vote of the Senate being 27 to 27, and Mr. Jarnagin being absent.
