

THE GARLAND.

—With sweetest flowers enriched,
From various gardens culled with care.

A MOTHER'S GRIEF.

To mark the sufferings of the babe
That cannot speak its woe;
To see the infant's tears gush forth
Yet know not why they flow;
To meet the meek uplifted eye
That feign would ask relief
Yet can but tell of agony,
This is a mother's grief.

Through dreary days and darker nights
To trace the march of death;
To hear the faint and frequent sigh
The quick and shortened breath—
To watch the last dread strife draw near
And pray that struggle brief,
Though all is ended with its close,
This is a mother's grief.

To see in one short hour decay'd
The hope of future years;
To feel how vain a father's prayers,
How vain a mother's tears;
To think the cold grave now must close
O'er what was once the chief
Of all the treasured joys of earth
This is a mother's grief.

Yet when the first wild thro' is past
Of anguish and despair,
To lift the eye of faith to heaven
And think my child is there.
This best can dry the gushing tear
This yields the heart relief,
Until the Christian's pious hope
O'er comes the mother's grief.

SONG FOR MILLIONS.

Our God is good, his works are fair,
His gifts to man are rich and rare,
His holy presence every where,
O'er land and sea,
Proclaims that all should equal share
Sweet liberty:

The air with sounds of freedom rings,
Where'er the bee bestirs his wings:
From any bird
And joyful twittering insect things
That sound is heard.

'Tis first of Nature's wise decrees,
It floats upon the healthful breeze!
It speaketh in the rustling trees,
Without control,
It rolls o'er waves of mighty seas,
From pole to pole.

Whenever mortal man hath been,
In deserts wild, or prairies green,
In storm, or solitude serene,
O'er hills or plains,
He hath in Nature's kingdom seen,
That freedom reigns.

Dear Liberty! foul Slavery's ban,
Destroy the tyrant's never can
For when the flight of time began,
God made all free,
He breathed into the soul of man,
Pure love for thee!

That Love inspired Great Bruce & Tell,
Before them despots fled and fell,
That love hath often rung his knell
Of coward knaves,
Whose powerful villainies compel
Men to be slaves.

And yet that love shall millions bless,
His powers with all their wrong redress,
Base tyranny shall soon confound
The rights of all;
Then woe to him that dare oppress
With chains and thrall!

For God is good, his words are fair,
His gifts to man are rich and rare;
His holy presence every where,
O'er land and sea,
Proclaims that all should equal share
Sweet Liberty!

A Yankee down east has invented a machine that will reap thrash, winnow & grind also, spin cotton, scrape potatoes, rock the cradle, darn stockings, pair nails, whittle shingles, whistle yankee doodle, play checkers, and puff itself in the newspapers.

'Misther, misther! what have you done? said a little shaver with protruding eyes to a 'greeny' who had just finished tying his horse to a spruce pole, as he thought on Marzime street.

'Done!' said the fellow; what d'ye mean? I haint done nothin', not as I knows on.'

'Why yith you have thir. You've jeth hitched your hoth to the Magnetic Telegraph, and you'll be in Bothin in leith than two minith, if you don't look out!'

A Doctor in England advertises in the papers, that he has removed to a residence near the grave-yard, for the greater convenience of his patients.

Some modern Socrates says that courtship is the wine of love, and matrimony the small beer.

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.

FOUGER'S OLEOGENAN.

OR HEALING OLEOGENAN.

So great has been the demand for Fugier's Oleo-Genan or All Healing Balm, and it has given such general satisfaction to those who have used it and become acquainted with its virtues that it now stands pre-eminent as a remedy in Diseases of the Lungs, and the testimony which has been given by other persons who have been cured by it is altogether voluntary on their part. They have given it in the hope that all who may find themselves in need of this remedy may apply for it without delay.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Shinnall, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Free Church. Mr. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical remedy, I have pleasure in bearing my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Oleo-Genan or All Healing Balm. Of its efficacy I can speak first from my own experience. Being subject from exposure more or less to the vicissitudes of our climate to frequent attacks of Coughs, Hoarseness, &c. I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous and always by perseverance in its use, effectual relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation, was induced to give the Oleo-Genan a trial and he pronounced the relief produced upon him a perfect claim affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a female friend advanced in Consumption. After the use of the first bottle her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a long established and firmly established phthisis against the thousand and over species put forth in these days of infidelity and quackery for all disease, I assure you that nothing short of my own conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin so respectable, and to the effects of its use so certified, both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, Sir, respectfully yours, R. C. SHINNALL.

Have you a Cough, which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the side, shortness of breath, night sweats?

Do you have Blood when you cough and find your strength gradually failing? You will find that these symptoms if not properly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint

Asthma, which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life torturous.

Here is the Remedy.

Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained, and do not be put off with any other. It has proved a cure in desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put to flight in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties

Do not deceive. The short dry cough is quickly overcome and every ailment expeditiously taken its place. Spitting of blood is immediately checked. Night sweats with pain in the side and shortness of breath, if it is attended with a short time. Asthma with all its dreadful accompaniments is at once relieved. Bronchitis and in fact all the diseases of the throat and Lungs give way before this remedy when all other means have failed.

Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other remedy, pronouncing it to be equally as good but remember life is at stake, therefore

Be not Deceived.

The above medicine for sale by the following agents.

E. P. Lutz, Froomberg, W. L. Walker & Co. Newark; B. & J. Leonard, Orangeville; Levi Dill, Jerseytown; Deere & McBride, White Hall; S. Baily, Catawissa. 6m3

Cabinet Ware House.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform the public, that he has taken the shop lately occupied by Samuel Lilly, near the upper end of Bloomsburg, where he is carrying on the
