THE WHIGS OF GEORGIA AND Mexico, that he spoiled the chance of its THE TARIFF.

The Milledgeville Journal, the lead ing Whig paper in the Sate of Georgia. pronounces the following opinionsin regard to the Tariffs of 1842 and 1846:

"In a late number of ours we stated by way of calling the attention of oureaders to the fact, that the Whig mem bers from Georgia voted against the passage of the Tarifl act of 1812. This was because its features, or many of them, were too protective. Mr. Clay, how ever, advocates this Tariff, and because he was the Whig candidate for thePres idency, and because Georgia Whigs ad vocated his election, our opponents sttempted to saildle upon us, as a party, an advacacy of princ ples embraced in that bill. In other words, whatever Mr. Clay was in favor of, or opposed to, were in favor of, or opposed to Na such thing! The principles avowed by two candidates, there was not a parti cle of difference in this avoued princi ples. To the Tariff then, of 1842, while we supported Mr, Clay, who advocated it, we were opposed-so were the Whig members from Georgia, for they voted against it, as did our Senator, the Hon J. M. B. rrien.

We again come to the Tariff of 1846. As far as we have had an opportunity of investing its items, we pronounce i but little or no better than the Tariff of 1842. As a member of Congress, we should have voted against it on that ground, if on no other; but from mo tives of policy-lor the better regulation hereafter of the popular will-we wish it may pass and become a law.

The judgment which an indignant people will pass upon them, (the Democrats,) will amply repay the Whigs of Georgia, who, as a party, have been so often and so falsely charged with 1a voring a high protective Tarifl!'

It further thus characterizes the new law:

'With features in it somewhat prefer able to the act of 1842, it is yet as of noxious a bill. in our opinion, to the South, on account of its protective fea twes gene ally, as the Northern Dem ocrats could pass without outraging the country and constitution.

The Whig party of Georgia is an an

THE WARM WEATHER.

The snaden changes of the weather, dung this season of the year, exhibit a most baneful effect on the human system, debilitating and prostrating it .- The stomsch and howels become deranged, giving timely notice to all, who are inclined to give attens tion to the warning voice of nature. At such times 'Jayne's Carminative' never fails to afford immediate relief, checking the disease and restoring the patient to vigorous health. Mothers cannot be too cauuous with their children during this month and the month following, and in the earliest stages of this summer disease, whether from teething, oppressive heat or other causes they should at once resort to this never tailing remedy. Why protec tion sticks out in almost every feature of it. Upon this ground we shall op pose it: and we believe upon this ground it will be condemned by the Georgia Whigs.'

Whigs of Georgia voted for Mr. Clay believing him to entertain the same o pinions upon the Tariff as were enter tained and avowed by Mr. Polk. Ou Whig opponents in this State, who have grown hoarse in denouucing "the fraud' upon Pennsylvania in regard to this same question, will find material to vary the entertainment in the extracts above quoted.

THR TWO MILLION APPROARIA TION.

The failure of the Appropriation in the Senate to consumate a peace with Mexico. is auributable to one of those dignified expedients, for which the Senator from Massachusetts ('Honest' Journ Davis) is so fa mous. His trick would have done credit to some noisy politician, but was too low and revengful for the United States Senate. We have no doubt that the President, in We have no doubt that the President, in his endeavous to promote prace with Mext. By virtue of a vend, ex. to me directed, will be exposed to public sale at the CourtHouse co, acted upon certain specific information obtained from a good quarter. The House seen the propriety of granting his reasonble request without delay, and they did so, the Senate were no doubt equally well dispos ed, and the Whig members were partially pledged to peace measures; but the important in tial measure has been defeated by the mean manœuvre of Senator DAVIS.
