

THE GARLAND
With sweetest flowers enrich'd,
From various gardens cul'd with care.

CAPTAIN MAY
BY W. H. C. HOMER
Asin—"The Men of Ninety-Eight."

Let's plaudits for our bold dragon,
The gallant Captain May!
The light of glory's dazzling noon
Will gild his name for aye!
Though, fast and hot, the hurling shot
Full round his little band,
He paled not, he quailed not,
But drew his glittering brand.

More lurid grew the battle cloud,
But not a horseman spurred,
Their leader, on his charger proud
Sat waiting for the word
Though, far around, the trampled ground
Was with the fallen strown,
He paled not, he quailed not,
As if his furm was stone.

The General galloped to his side
And issued order stern—
"Now forward with your squadron ride,
And deathless honor earn;
That battery must taken be
Ere Mexico is tamed!"
He paled not, he quailed not,
But—"Follow me!" exclaimed.

There was a rush of men and steeds,
Fierce struggling for renown;
And hostile ranks like shivered reeds,
In that wild charge went down.
Brave Vega yields, though many fields
Had heard his martial shout,
And pale now, and quail now,
His thousands put to rout.

Twine garlands for our cavalier,
The gallant Captain May!
A knight without reproach or fear—
A Bayard in the fray.
When flags that wave above the brave
Are scorched by battle's breath,
He pales not, he quails not,
But fronts the face of death.

On every breeze should grandly swell
A nation's funeral hymn,
For those—the staunch and true—who fell
In that encounter grim;
To grace the plain, where they were slain,
Proud piles should tower on high—
They paled not, they quailed not,
But died as heroes die.

The way to make a Doctor.—A doctor
in Ohio writes to his father thus:
'Dear Daddy—I concluded to calculate
ide come down and get g'ned into a doctor.
I hardly don't think I was in more than 8 ours afore on I cum as slick as ever was seen.

Wale columby happy land,
If I an't a doctor I'll be hang'd!
I pukes, I purges, and sweats 'em,
'Then if they die, wi—then I lets 'em
'I gits plenty of custom, because they say they die ezy. When you the don't forget to put Doctor afore my name.'

There is a pig in Deerfield, one side o which is black as a coal. What makes the fact more wonderful, is that the other side is black also.

Yankee Shoes.—The way they shoed
shoes together in Linn & some other places
'down east' is any thing but the right way.
The Boston Transcript tells the story of a negro, somewhere at the south, who had applied for two or three hours a pair of Yankee brogans. 'What dese shoes com-from, Masser?' said Cuffe.—'They grow on trees down east,' replied his masser.
'Well,' said Cuffe, 'I guess dey pick em from um ripe.'

I meant to have told you of that hole,
said an Irishman to a friend who was welling with him in his garden, and stumbled into a pit full of water. 'No matter,' says Peg, blowing the mud and water from out his mouth, 'I've found it.'

A man who gets through the world, with out a kick may rest assured that he is generally considered not worth minding.

ocean with rivers, death with mankind, nor
a couple with lovers.

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.
OR HEALING OCEANIC.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Stinehill, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Free Church. Mr. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical remedy, I take pleasure in testifying my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Oceanic, of All-Healing Balm. Of its efficacy I can speak first from my own experience. Being subject from exposure, more or less, to the vicissitudes of my climate to frequent attacks of influenza, Hoarseness, &c., I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation, was induced to give the Oceanic a trial and he pronounced the effect produced upon him a perfect charm affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a female friend far advanced in Consumption. After the use of the first bottle her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a long cherished and firmly established prejudice against the thousand and one specifics put forth in these days as sovereign panaceas for all disease, I assure you that nothing short of my firm conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin so respectable, and to the effects of it as herein certified, both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, Sir, respectfully yours,
R. C. SHIMLALL.

Have you a Cough, which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the side, shortness of breath, night sweats?

Do you have Blood when you cough and find your strength gradually failing? You will find that these symptoms if not properly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint

Asthma, which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life burthensome.

Here is the Remedy.
Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained, and do not be put off with any other. It has produced a cure in as desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put a finality in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties
do not deceive. The short dry cough quickly becomes and deep and healthy, the rough hoarse cough, the rattle of blood in the chest, the chesty cough, the cough with pain in the side and breast, the difficulty of breathing, which in a short time, you will find all a dreadful consumptive state at once removed. Remember and do not let all the promises of the throat and lungs give way before this remedy, when all other means have failed.

Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other costly preparation, but be equally as good to your remainder life is at stake, therefore

Be not Deceived.
The above medicine for sale by the following agents:
E. P. Lutz, Bloomsburg; W. L. Waller & Co. Bloomsburg; L. & J. Lezarus, Oneonta; Levi Dill, Jerseytown; Derr & McBride, White Hall; S. Baily, Gettysburg.

Cabinet Ware House.
THE subscriber would respectfully inform the public, that he has taken the shop lately occupied by Samuel Lilly, near the upper end of Bloomsburg, where he is carrying on the

CABINET BUSINESS, in all its various branches, and where he will be happy to wait upon all those who may favor him with their custom. His Furniture is warranted to be made of good material and durable, and he intends keeping on hand and all kinds of work in his line, which he will sell upon as reasonable terms as they can be purchased in the county.

Sideboards, Secretaries, Bureaus, Wardrobes, Card Tables, Dining Tables, Breakfast Tables, Cupboards, Stands, Wash Stands, Bedsteads, Dough-troughs, Coffins, &c.

By strict attention to business, he hopes to receive a share of public patronage.
