

THE GARLAND.

—With sweet flowers enriched,
From various gardens culled with care—

From Graham's Magazine

THE DAUGHTERS OF COLUMBIA.

We boast no line of high descent,
From grandmothers or from sires,
Columbia's daughters are content,
Without such vain attire,
No diadems crown our father's brow,
No barons' arms they bore,
These vanished when the Mayflower drew
Her prow on Plymouth shore.

We boast a higher lineage
Than royal blood can claim;
Our fathers dwell on Memory's page
In an eternal name,
'Tis written with an iron pen
On marble tablets fair,
That they were Nature's noblemen,
And we their offspring are.

Call up the shades of ancient dames—
The brides of heroes slain—
Who fed and nourished Freedom's flames
Upon the battle plain;
In struggling for the mastery
With dames of other days,
Columbia's daughters, blithe and free,
Shall win the palm of praise.

Search through Britannia's sea-girl isle,
And by Italia's streams;
Search through the land, where fairies smile
And search the land of dreams—
No maidens robed in glittering gold,
In princely circles move,
Who can, if simple truth be told,
Excel us—WHEN WE LOVE!

LIFE.

Life is like a summer's day,
As sweet and brief away,
Quickly doth it pass away,
Like autumn's leaf.

Merrily the hours fly,
In youth's bright morn;
The red-bud blossoms but to die,
And leave the thorn!

Manhood comes upon us fast,
And childhood dies,
The rosy tints of youth are past,
And so time flies.

Moving onwards still towards death,
We crawl along—
The signal given, and our breath
Is quickly gone.

We die—the body turns to dust—
Thus ends the strife;
She spirit mingleth with the just
In endless life.

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.

OR, HEALING BALSAM.

Great has been the demand for Foiger's Olesonion or All Healing Balsam, and it has given general satisfaction to those who have used it and become acquainted with its virtues that it now stand prominent as a remedy in Diseases of the Lungs, and the testimony which has been given by different persons who have been cured by the altogether voluntary on their part. They have given it in the hope that all who may find themselves in need of this remedy may apply for it without delay.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Shumell, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Church, Me. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical remedy, I take pleasure in bearing my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Olesonion or All Healing Balsam. Of its efficacy I can speak first from my own experience. Being subject from exposure more or less to the vicissitudes of our climate to frequent attacks of Influenza, Hoarseness, &c., I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous relief, and always by persevering in its use, all-stial relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation was induced to give the Olesonion a trial and he pronounced the relief produced upon him a perfect charm affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a lady friend of mine who was afflicted with a cough of the first kind, her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a long checked and finally established phlegm against the thousand and one specifies put forth in these days as sovereign panaceas for all diseases, I assure you that nothing short of my firm conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin so respectable, and to the effects of it as herein certified both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, Sir, respectfully yours, R. C. SHUMELL.

Have you a Cough,

which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the side, shortness of breath, night sweats?

Do you loose Blood

when you cough and find your strength gradually fading? You will find that these symptoms if not promptly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life burdensome?

Astma,

Here is the Remedy.

Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained, and do not be put off with any other. It has produced a cure in as desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put to flight in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties

do not deceive. The short dry cough is quickly overcome and easy and healthy expectoration takes its place. Spitting of blood is immediately checked. Night sweats with pain in the side and chest, debility and difficulty of breathing yield in a short time. Astma with all its dreadful accompaniments is at once relieved. Frothiness and in fact all the dangers of the throat and Lungs give way before this remedy when all other means have failed.

Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other remedy, pronouncing it to be equally as good but remember life is at stake, therefore

Be not Deceived.
