

NEW SERIES

CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX

CONGRESS at its last session, through the Joint Library Committee of the two Houses having authorized a large subscription for the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX...

The undersigned originated the mode of journalizing the proceedings of Congress, which, thus adopted, is to be perfected with the aid and under the supervision of Congress...

The work, as it is now to be conducted by them, will be found a most perfect political history. The Senators from the States and the Representatives from every section of the Union bring with them into Congress a knowledge of the feelings, sentiments, and interests of their several constituencies...

Having identified ourselves with the plan of advancing the usefulness of Congress by publishing full and impartial reports, and having a large mass of the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX, issued during the last twelve years, which would be impaired in value to us and utility to the public if the work were discontinued, we have a double motive to prompt us to extend it through a new series...

The reports will not be affected by our party bias. We believe every member of Congress will bear witness that our reports are full and fair.

The Congressional Globe is made up of the daily proceedings of the two Houses of Congress, and printed on superfine double royal paper, with small type, (brevier and nonpareil), in quarto form each number containing sixteen royal quarto pages.

During the first month or six weeks of a session, there is rarely more business done than will make two numbers a week—one of the Congressional Globe and one of the Appendix; but during the remainder of a session, there is usually sufficient matter for two or three numbers of each every week.

We have on hand the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last fifteen sessions of Congress, making together fifteen large royal quarto volumes, which we will sell, unbound, for $41; or bound, with Russia backs and corners, for $50.

We will endeavor to print a sufficient number of surplus copies to supply all that may be misordered, or lost in the mails; but subscribers should be very particular to file their papers carefully, for fear that we should not be able to supply all the lost numbers.

TERMS. For one copy of the Congressional Globe $1 00 For one copy of the Appendix 1 00 For six copies either, or part of both 5 00 The money may be remitted by mail our risk. The safest and best way to remit is, to pay the amount to the Postmaster where you reside, and take from him a receipt, according to the following form: POST OFFICE, _____, 184_.

The rules of the General Post Office Department authorize such receipts to be given and paid here, when the amount does not exceed $10. When it exceeds $10, it is best to remit as much as possible in bank notes and the Postmaster's receipt should be sent directed to us, and not to the Postmaster of this city, as some persons are in the habit of doing.

Proprietors of newspapers who copy this Prospect, and send us one copy of their paper containing it, marked around with a pen to direct our attention to it, shall have their names entered on our books for one copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix during the session.

Our prices for these papers are so low that we cannot afford to credit them out; therefore, no person need consume his time in writing for them unless he sends money.
