

NEW SERIES OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX

Congress at its last session, through the Joint Library Committee of the two Houses having authorized a large subscription for the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX...

The undersigned originated the mode of journalizing the proceedings of Congress, which, thus adapted, is to be perfected with the aid and under the supervision of Congress...

The work, as it is now to be conducted by them, will be found a most perfect political history. The Senators from the States and the Representatives from every section of the Union bring with them into Congress a knowledge of the feelings, sentiments, and interests of their several constituents...

Having identified ourselves with the plan of advancing the usefulness of Congress by publishing full and impartial reports, and having a large mass of the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX, issued during the last twelve years, which would be impaired in value to us and utility to the public if the work were discontinued, we have a double motive to prompt us to extend it through a new series...

The Congressional Globe is made up of the daily proceedings of the two Houses of Congress, and printed on superfine double-royal paper, with small type, (brevier and nonpareil) in quarto form each number containing sixteen royal quarto pages. The speeches of the members, in this first form are condensed—the full report of the prepared speeches being reserved for the Appendix. All resolutions, motions, and other proceedings, are given in the form of the Journals, with the yeas and nays on every important question.

The Appendix is made up of the President's Annual Message, the reports of the principal officers of the Government that accompany it, and all speeches of members of Congress, written out or revised by them selves. It is printed in the same form as the Congressional Globe, and usually makes about the same number of pages during a session.

During the first month or six weeks of a session, there is rarely more business done than will make two numbers a week—one of the Congressional Globe and one of the Appendix; but during the remainder of a session, there is usually sufficient matter for two or three numbers of each every week. The next session will be unusually interesting, therefore, we calculate that the Congressional Globe and Appendix together will make near 1500 large quarto pages printed in small type—brevier and nonpareil. We furnish complete indexes to both at the end of session.

We have on hand the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last fifteen sessions of Congress, making together fifteen large royal quarto volumes, which we will sell, unbound, for $41; or bound, with Russia backs and covers, for $56. Those who want the back volumes should apply for them immediately, as they are in demand. Congress subscribed for 341 complete sets during the two last sessions. The proceedings of Congress for the last 9 years cannot be procured from any other source—Gales and Seaton having stopped printing their Register of Debates in 1837.

We will endeavor to print a sufficient number of surplus copies to supply all that may be miscarried, or lost in the mails; but subscribers should be very particular to file their papers carefully, for fear that we should not be able to supply all the lost numbers.

TERMS. For one copy of the Congressional Globe $1 00 For one copy of the Appendix 1 00 For six copies of either or part of both 5 00 The money may be remitted by mail at our risk. The safest and best way to remit is to pay the amount to the Postmaster where you reside, and take from him a receipt, according to the following form: Post Office, _____ 184_.

Received from A B—dollars—cents for the Globe, from which I have deducted one per cent, and charged myself a my account with the General Post Office with the balance. The Postmaster of Washington city will pay that balance to A B or Rives or to their order on the back of this receipt. Postmaster.

The rules of the General Post Office Department authorize such receipts to be given and paid here, when the amount does not exceed $10. When it exceeds $10, it is best to remit as much as possible in bank notes and the Postmaster's receipt for the balance. The Postmaster's receipt should be sent directed to us, and not to the Postmaster of this city, as some persons are in the habit of doing. The money should be here by the 7th of December, as farthest to procure all the numbers. If not here by that time, we may not be able to furnish the first numbers.

Proprietors of newspapers who copy this Prospect, and send us one copy of their paper containing it, marked around with a pen to direct our attention to it, shall have their names entered on our books for one copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix during the session.

Our prices for these papers are so low that we cannot afford to credit them out; therefore, no person need consume his time in writing for them unless he sends money. BLAIR & RIVES. WASHINGTON, October 15, 1846.

I subscribe would respectfully inform the public, that he has taken the shop lately occupied by Samuel Lilly, near the upper end of Bloomsburg, where he is carrying on the CABINET BUSINESS, in all its various branches, and where he will be happy to wait upon all those who may favor him with their custom. His Furniture is warranted to be made of good material and durable, and he insists on keeping on hand and all kinds of work in his line, which he will sell upon as reasonable terms as they can be purchased in the county.

By strict attention to business he hopes to receive a share of public patronage. ELI BROWN. April 25, 1845.—1y1

MORE PROOF!—The Cry is still They Condemn!—Every mail brings tidings of their success. From East to the remotest West—from Canada on the North, to Mexico and the West Indies on the South—are all unanimous in their praise of a medicine so universally known and esteemed as Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, it is hardly necessary to speak in detail. At no period of its history has the reputation of that medicine stood higher, and we may say that no reputation is likely to be more enduring. Adapted to all constitutions, to every form of disease, and to all climates, Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are above every other medicine, fitted for the use of man under whatever circumstances he may be placed. At sea or on land, at home or abroad, in summer's heat and winter's cold, with a common regard to the conditions of health, and with Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills at hand, there is no excuse for being sick, unless the constitution be utterly irreclaimable.

As our object is to state where the genuine medicine can be obtained, rather than to give it an extended notice—which our limits forbid—we shall merely subjoin one or two of the numerous testimonials that have just come to hand. Hundreds of the same kind might be added, but we are sure the public will save us the trouble of arranging them.

(Extract of a letter from Hernando, Mississippi.) To W. Wright—Your Pills have given universal satisfaction, and are justly very popular. I can sell from 20 to 40 dozen annually if I could be supplied.

Yours, Wm. Henry Jossou, Agent. I ought here to be reminded that the medicine has been but recently introduced into Mississippi.

(Extract of a letter from Jersey Shore, Penn.) The Indian Vegetable Pills excel everything of the kind ever offered to the public in this section of the country, notwithstanding the combined effort of some few unprincipled mercenarys to put them down.

S. WISCONSIN & CO. The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills in Columbia County:

- H. P. Baldy—Danville Stephen Baldy—Catawissa Cyrus Burton—Espytown Brown & Greasy—Millville Abraham Miller—Berwick G. H. Fowler—Briarcliff Wm. Covanohoyan—Orangeville George Masters—Milville Levi Beisel—Jerseytown Levers & Sons—Columbia Exchange Robert McKay—Washingtonville George Weaver—Bloomsburg Light Street from Co.—Light Street Low & Thompson—Line Ridge H. C. Fress—Briarcliff Ellis Wertman—Robertsburg R. P. Welliver—Greenwood E. & J. Lazarus—Orangeville Hugh McWilliams—Moorsburg

The popularity of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS has proved a strong bait to unprincipled thieves who, in the hope of gaining tempt to palm off a spurious article on the unsuspecting. To defeat the wicked designs of such men we have procured new labels, and the WRITTEN SIGNATURE OF WM. WRIGHT WILL NOW BE FOUND ON THE TOP LABEL OF EACH BOX. None other is genuine, and to counterfeit this is forgery.

Remember, the only original and genuine INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS have the WRITTEN SIGNATURE OF WM. WRIGHT on the top label of each box.

Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, wholesale and retail, 169 Race Street Philadelphia; 228 Greenwich Street New York and 129 Tremont Street, Boston, September, 19 1846—24y.

ITS COURSE IS ONWARD.

SO great has been the demand for Foiger's Ointment or All Healing Balm, and it has given such general satisfaction to those who have used it and become acquainted with its virtues that it now stands pre-eminent as a remedy in Diseases of the Lungs, and the testimony which has been given by different persons who have been cured by it is altogether voluntary on their part. They have given it in the hope that all who may find themselves in need of this remedy may apply for it without delay.

Read the following letter received from the Rev. Mr. Shimeall, Pastor of St. Jude's Episcopal Free Church. Mr. S. has not only used the medicine himself but has witnessed its effects in several very trying cases of disease. The letter will show his opinion of its virtues.

Dear Sir: Believing it to be but an act of common humanity to those suffering under the various diseases of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Consumption, Asthma, &c. to point them to a safe, speedy and radical remedy, I take pleasure in bearing my testimony to your invaluable medicine called Ointment or All Healing Balm. Of its efficacy I can speak first from my own experience. Being subject from exposure more or less to the vicissitudes of our climate to frequent attacks of Influenza, Hoarseness &c. I have always found it to afford almost instantaneous and always persevering relief in its use, effectual relief. To a particular friend of mine suffering severely under Asthma, and who had despaired of obtaining relief from any human source, upon my recommendation was induced to give the Ointment a trial and he pronounced the effect produced upon him a perfect charm affording him immediate and almost instantaneous relief. In another instance I recommended it to a female friend for advanced Consumption. After the use of the first bottle her cough was entirely removed and her appetite and strength restored to such a degree as to astonish all who saw her. With a long cherished and firmly established prejudice against the thousand and one specifics put forth in these days as sovereign panaceas for all disease, I assure you that nothing short of my firm conviction of the claims of your medicine to an origin so respectable, and to the effects of it as herein certified, both by my own experience and observation, I could not have been induced thus to come forward as a witness in its behalf. I have the honor to be, Sir, respectfully yours, R. C. SHIMEALL.

Have you a Cough, which is troublesome and has not yielded to any of the remedies which you have used? Is it attended with pain in the side, shortness of breath, night sweats?

Do you raise Blood when you cough and find your strength gradually falling? You will find that these symptoms if not properly attended to will terminate in consumption and death. Are you troubled with that distressing complaint

Asthma, which deprives you of your rest at night and renders life burthensome.

Here is the Remedy. Remember the name and place where it is to be obtained and do not be put off with any other. It has produced a cure in as desperate cases as yours may appear to be, and doubtless will put to flight in a speedy manner those distressing symptoms which fill your mind with gloomy forebodings of the future.

Its Healing Properties Do not deceive. The short dry cough is quickly overcome and easy and healthy expectoration takes its place. Spitting of blood is immediately checked. Night sweats with pain in the side and chest, debility and difficulty of breathing yield in a short time. Asthma with all its dreary accompaniments is at once relieved. Bronchitis and in fact all the diseases of the throat and Lungs give way before this remedy when all other means have failed.

Persons may attempt to deceive you with some other remedy, pronouncing it to be equally as good but remember life is at stake, therefore
