

THE GARLAND

From Graham's Magazine for December THE UNKNOWN WAY BY WM. CULLEN BRYANT.

A burning sky is o'er me, The sands beneath me glow, As onward, onward, wearily, In the sultry morn I go.

From the duty path there opens, Eastward, an unknown way; Above its windings, pleasantly, The woodland branches play.

A silvery brook comes stealing From the shadow of its trees, Where slender herbs of the forest stoop Before the entering breeze.

Along the pleasant winding I would my journey lay, Where the shade is cool and the dew of night Is not yet dried away.

Path of the flowery woodland! Oh whither dost thou lead, Wandering by grassy orchard grounds Or by the open mead!

Goest thou by nestling cottage? Goest thou by stately hall, Where the broad elm droops, a leafy dome, And woodbine flaunts on the wall?

By steep where children gather Flowers of yet fresh year! By lonely walks where lovers stray 'Till tender stars appear!

Or haply dost thou linger On barren plains and bare, Or clamber the bold mountain's side, Into the thinner air!

Where they who journey upwards Walk in a weary track, And oft upon the shady vale With longing eyes look back!

I hear a solemn murmur, And, listening to the sound, I know the voice of the mighty sea, Beating his pebbly bound.

Dost thou, oh path of the woodland! End where these waters roar, Like human life, on a trackless beach, With a boundless sea before?

Send in a Post Office.—Mr. Post Office man, I want to pay the postage of this letter.

'Single, or double, Miss!' 'Double sir, (with a courtesy.) I was married last week.'

Circulation of Newspapers.—The Philadelphia North American states the issue of certain newspapers of that city to be as follows: Public Ledger, 30,000 daily; Dollar Newspaper, 31,000 weekly; Saturday Courier, 60,000 nearly; Neal's Saturday Gazette, 15,000 weekly.

A Good Joke is related by one of the Cincinnati papers of a gentleman in that city. He had promised his wife a fine fat turkey for dinner on Thanksgiving day, and they were awaiting its arrival, when hearing a knock, the gentleman hastened to the door, picked up a basket and returned to his wife, saying 'Here, my dear, is the turkey.' The lady took the basket and raised the covering, when to her astonished eyes, appeared an interesting infant of an hour! Before fainting she had only time to say, 'Dear! if you call that a fine fat turkey, you can cook it yourself!'

MORE PROOF!—The Cry is still 'They Come!'—Every mail brings tidings of their success. From East to the remotest West—from Canada on the North, to Mexico and the West Indies on the South—are all unanimous in their praise. Of a medicine so universally known and esteemed as WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, it is hardly necessary to speak in detail. At no period of its history has the reputation of that medicine stood higher, and we may say that no reputation is likely to be more enduring. Adapted to all constitutions, to every form of disease, and to all climates, Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are above every other medicine, fitted for the use of man under whatever circumstances he may be placed. At sea or on land, at home or abroad, in summer's heat and winter's cold, with a common regard to the conditions of health, and with Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills at hand, there is no excuse for being sick, unless the constitution be utterly irreclaimable.

As our object is to state where the genuine medicine can be obtained, rather than to give an extended notice—which our limits forbid—we shall merely subjoin one or two of the numerous testimonials that have just come to hand. Hundreds of the same kind might be added, but we are sure the public will save us the trouble of stating them.

(Extract of a letter from Hernando, Mississippi.) 'To W. Wright—Your Pills have given universal satisfaction, and are justly very popular. I can sell from 30 to 40 dozen annually if I could be supplied. Yours, WM. HENRY JOHNSON, Agent.'

It ought here to be remarked that the medicine has been but recently introduced into Mississippi. (Extract of a letter from Jersey Shore, Penn.) 'The Indian Vegetable Pills excel everything of the kind ever offered to the public in this section of the country, notwithstanding the combined effort of some few unprincipled mercantiles to put them down. S. WINCHESTER & SON.

The following highly respectable store-keepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills in Columbia County:

H. P. Baldy—Danville Stephen Baldy—Catawissa Cyrus Barton—Esqytown Brown & Creasy—Millville Abraham Miller—Berwick G. H. Fowler—Briarclerk Wm. Cavanaugh—Orangeville George Masters—Milville Levi Bozell—Jerseytown Levers & Sons—Columbia Exchange Robert McCay—Washingtonville George Weaver—Bloomsburg Light Street Iron Co—Light Street Low & Thompson—Lime Ridge H. C. Fress—Briarclerk Eliss Wertman—Rollsburg R. P. Welliver—Greenwood E. & J. Lazarus—Orangeville Hugh McWilliams—Moorsburg

The popularity of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS has proved a strong bait to unprincipled men who, motivated by the hope of gain, tempt to palm off a spurious article on the unsuspecting. To defeat the wicked designs of such men we have procured new labels, and the WRITTEN SIGNATURE OF WM. WRIGHT WILL NOW BE FOUND ON THE TOP LABEL OF EACH BOX. None other is genuine, and to counterfeit this is forgery.

Remember, the only original and genuine INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS have the WRITTEN SIGNATURE OF WM WRIGHT on the top label of each box.

Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills—wholesale and retail. 169 Race street Philadelphia; 228 Greenwich street, New York and 199 Tremont street, Boston, September, 19 1845—22j.
