True Poesy.

The following hymn, written for the occasion by N. P. Wixxas, was sung at the dedication of the House of Industry, and Home for the Friendless, in New York, on Wednesday, 13th December, $1848,:-

When God, to shield from cold and storm, Gave trees to build and fires to warm, He did not mark for each his part, But gave to each a human heatt.

Each heart is teld the poor to aid-Not told as thunder makes straid-But by a small voice whisp'ring there, Find thou, for God, the sufferer's shure!

Oh, prompting faint, to careless view, For work that angels well might do! But wisely thus is taught below Quick pity for another's wo.

The world is stored-enough for all Is scattered wide, 'twixt but and hall; And those who feast, or friendless roam, Alike from God receive a home.

Each houseless one demands of thee, Can anght than had the poor man's be? And Pity broathe response divine: Take what I have from God that's thine!

For child, for woman's fragile form, More harsh the cold, more wild the storm : But most they bless a shell'ring door Whom dark temptations urge no more!

A Home for these, O God, to-day, For blessings at thy feet we lay. And may its shelter, humbly given, Be but a far-off door to Heaven.

heals them. It is rightly termed all-healing, for there is scarcely a disease, external or internal, that it will not benefit. I have used it for the last fourteen years for all diseases of the chest, involving the utmost danger and responsibility, and I declare before heaven and man that not in one case has it failed to benefit, when the patient was within the reach of mortal means. I have had physicians, learned in the profession I have had ministers of the Gospel, Judges of the bench, Aldermen, Lawyers, gentlemen of the highest erudition, and multitudes of the poor use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice saying, " McAlister , your Ointment is merits of McAlisterse I am willing to enumerate some of the benewhich I have experienced in the use of the arr. In the spring of ISI had an attack of Erysipeas in my face whice came very painful, and exlended into one officees, being attended with tever, my distress wreat and I became to be tearful of losing mye. Although not min a believer in what is term ed quack medicine purchased a box and mad application to my s. To my surprise the pai soon abated and in week's time I was entirel cured, and I firmly lieve it was the salve unde Providence that cu me.

From that time the present I have used the article as occasionquired, and in every case where I have used I found a decided benefit. At one time in gg to bed at night, my thre a was so sore that Inflowed with difficulty, bu by an application the salve I was relieved before morning. I have at it in cases of burns, bruisess sprains and fleshes all with the happiest effects, and one case of poining by a wild vine in the woods has been did up and cored by a few appli-

From my ownsperience I would strongly reremended it to all a cheap convenient medicine. It requires no prestation other than to rub it on the afflicted part. I have become so partial to it that I expect to ep it constantly in my family Though not approus to appear in print, yet I cannot refuse mave this communication made
