Gold Seeker's Guide.

We respectfully direct the attention of our readers and all who may wish to make a ready fortune to the advertisement of Signor De Alvear, in another column, headed California gold. We regard it as an invaluable instrument, an important invention, in aid of discovering the mineral resources of the earth, and worthy the attention of all persons whether designed for the gold region, or for domestic purposes. The Gold Seeker's guide, will be sent by mail, for the small sum of $3, which amount none, we opine, would deem expensive, as imparting the secret Art of finding mines of gold, silver, Iron Lead Copper, Coal, and other minerals.

Prince Charles Louis Napoleon.

The elevation of this young aspirant to the Presidency of the French Republic, has produced astonishment throughout the Old and New world Partially, that one so young, and hitherto, comparatively speaking, devoid of personal strength or political popularity, should have succeeded over the pretentions of others of maturer years, riper experience, and partially, that his elect was procured by such an overwhelming majority. But strange things occur in these times.

We believe the Constitution of France provides that no candidate can be elected to the Presidency, unless he receive two million votes.—Prince Louis has far out-stripped this requisition, as his vote amounts to four million whilst that of Gen. Cavaignac, the next highest only nine hundred thousand. We hope he may wear his laurels with becoming humility and due fidelity.

Louis Napoleon's election is attended with results which must be gratifying to every American. One is the effect it has had upon the funds in Paris, causing an immediate rise of one per cent. in consequence of the increase confidence reposed in the New Government. And another is, the withering rebuke it administers to the English Oligarcy, on beholding in the Presidential Chair of France, the Nephew and rising representative of the brave prisoner, Napoleon Bonaparte, whom England meanly put to death at St. Helena.

Death of A. H. Diller Esq.

A. H. Diller, Esq., formerly Editor of the Home Journal, and also, the Pennsylvania Reporter, died on the 20th Dec., 1848, in Springfield, Illinois. Mr. D., had served his country in Mexico—returned to his friends in Philadelphia—been admitted to the bar—started a few weeks since to make his fortune in the West, and on his way was arrested by the unrelenting hand of death.—We deeply sympathise with Gen. Diller, his bereaved father and his friends for the premature death of a brave, noble and patriotic son and intrepid soldier.

Museum Tons in come again.—A bill has been reported in the Senate of our State for the incorporation of a Bank in Danville. The application for said Bank, proposes a capital stock of two hundred thousand dollars, with all the powers and privileges of the Northumberland Bank.—We think it probable that the prayer of our Danville neighbors will be granted the present session.

The Columbia Enquirer, the paper we established at Berwick as a removal paper in 1843, has been discontinued. Mr. Gilmore, the late editor of that paper gave his valedictory last week, with notice to its patrons that the accounts had been placed in charge of an officer for collection. He also says he intends establishing a new paper in this place, in connection with Mr. Weaver, to be entitled the Star of the North

We can have no objection to the contemplated enterprize of our young friends, believing them entitled equally with others to the chance of making a fortune at the county seat. It is however believed that Bloomsburg cannot very well support two papers professing the same political faith: Berwick not as well as the ancient and wealthy republican borough of Berwick has for over twenty years sustained a paper. Besides all this, it is not likely that the intelligent community around Berwick, will long remain without a paper there. Time the tale will tell.

Sacks that it is fashionable for the ladies to wear now, are called by the Newport News ladies' monkey-jackets." The Cape May pilots are now in the height of the fashion.

The American Baptist Home Mission Society have appointed the Rev. O. C. Wheeler, of Philadelphia, as a missionary to San Francisco, in California.

"Quaker City," by Geo. Lippard, Esq., No. 1, of which is before us, is an interesting number over the first issue. Its columns abound with original productions from the pen of its talented author, who always wields the "pen of a ready writer." The beauty of the embellishments, imprint and the originality of the editorial conductor, must soon establish it, if it is already established, high in popular favor and future extensive patronage.

The Legislature of Indiana has appropriated $50,000, for a statue of Washington to adorn the State House. The commission was given to Hiram Powers, but [illegible] gives the sum to be insufficient.

The Miltonian, by the Messrs. Frick, with the beginning of the new year, have enlarged the Miltonian to a medium size and treated it to a new dress.—Always a good newspaper —baring it is now much improved in appearance & interests greatly enhanced.—We believe the Miltonian is blest with paying customers, that is the secret of its success.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.—This extraordinary medicine is founded on the principle that the human frame is subject to BUT ONE DISEASE, viz: corrupt rumors, which, floating in the general mass of the circulation, are the cause of all kinds of Fever, and when lodged in the various parts of the body, give rise to every malady incident to man.

Let it be remembered, that the human body and WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are mutually adapted to each other, and that by them all morbid and corrupt humors (the cause of disease) is entirely removed, and this in an easy and natural manner.

The genuine for sale by Haghurst and Baldy, Bloomsburg, H. P. Baldy, Danville; Stephen Baldy, Catawissa, and by agents in all parts of the state. Agents whose supplies become exhausted will receive a new lot on writing to Dr. Wright's principal office, 389 Race Street, Philadelphia.

DR. SWAYNE'S CELEBRATED Family Medicines.

CHEERING NEWS FOR THE SICK.

Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry

THE universal celebrity which this valuable medicine is gaining throughout the United States, and the many astonishing cures it is constantly performing, has proved it to be, beyond all doubt, the only safe and certain cure for pulmonary Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting Blood, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, Tickling or Soreness in the throat, Bronchitis, Difficult Breathing, or any symptoms of Consumption.

If the bowels are costive, a mild purgative should be resorted to occasionally. Dr. Swayne's Sanative Pills will be found a valuable acquisition to the Wild Cherry, and will prove a valuable auxiliary where an aperient is required.—Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is a remedy which has stood the test of experience and if used according to the directions (as described in Dr. Swayne's Guide to Health) seldom fails. The above pamphlet is well worth a perusal

ANOTHER HOME CERTIFICATE.

Dr. Swayne's

Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is all it professes to be the greatest Medecine in the known World.

Of all the cures that have ever been recorded we may safely say that the annals of medicine cannot furnish one to surpass this, which now regardless a living proof to the curability of Consumption even when life had been despaired of.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir:—For the good of the public, I feel myself in duty bound to testify to the great cure which your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry performed on me. For my part, I feel as if every body ought to know it. I was afflicted with a violent cough, spitting of blood, night sweats, hoarseness, and sound of the voice indicating an alarming state of disease; my appetite was gone, and my strength had so far failed me, that my friends and physicians were persuaded I could not survive many days. My sister, who was my anxious care-taker, made inquiry where she would be likely to procure most certain relief. She was told that if Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry failed to cure, my life was then hopeless. Your medicine was immediately procured, and the first bottle gave relief, and by the time I had commenced the sixth bottle, my cough had left me, and my strength much improved. In short, it has made a perfect cure of me; and I am at present as hearty a man as I wish, and have good reason to believe that the use of your medicine has saved me from a premature grave. I shall be pleased to give any information respecting my case. Yours with respect,

Isaac Morgan Reeves.

No. 38 Chester st., between Race and Vine, Phila

To Public Speakers—Dr. Swayne's Compound syrup of Wild cherry will be found an invaluable article. By its use the voice is rendered clear, and all disagreeable sensations removed.—All should avail themselves of the opportunity to test this valuable compound."

Important Caution—Read & Heed!!!

There is but one genuine preparation of Wild Cherry, and that is Dr. Swayne's the first ever offered to the public, which has been sold largely throughout the United States and some parts of Europe; and all preparations sealed by the name of Wild Cherry, have been put out since this, under colored signs to create circumstances, in order to give currency to their sales. By a little observation, purchasers need not be the genuine or Counterfeit. Each bottle of the genuine is surrounded with a beautiful steel engraving, with the likeness of William Penn thereon; also, Dr. Swayne's signature; and as a further security, the letters of Dr. Swayne will be added hereafter to each bottle, the proprietor only his preparation in small corners. Now, if I want for the great curative properties and known virtues of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, persons would not be encouraging to give currency to their "base counterfeits" by altering the name of Wild Cherry—Remember, sweet's beer is mind the name of Dr. Swayne, and be not deceived.

WORMS! WORMS!! WORMS!!!

For many years I have made it my study to compound a medicine which would be effectual in expelling Worms, and at the same time be very pleasant for the suffering Infantile patient, beyond a doubt I have now obtained that article which is far more pleasant and effectual in every respect than any other Vermifuge of the present day.—To see the little sufferer threaded with the exceedingly nauseous preparations, (even some of those that are reported to be pleasant, are too nauseous to be taken.)

Dr. Swayne, Sole Proprietor

You also have in my Vermifuge a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, sour stomach, &c.,

Beware of Imposition,

Swayne's Vermifuge is in square bottles (being recently changed to prevent Counterfeits, also to pack to a better advantage) with the following words blown in the Glass:—Dr. D. Swayne's Vermifuge, Philada., also enveloped in a beautiful wrapper, bearing the signature of Dr. Swayne, with his portrait on each side of the bottle without which none is genuine. This article is so pleasant to the taste, that both children and adults are universally fond of it.

Remember the genuine has the Portrait of Dr. Swayne, on each side of the bottle.
