POETRY.

All is Action.

BY J. HOUAN,

All is action, all is motion, In this mighty world of ours, Like the corrects of the ocean, Man is arged by unseen powers!

Steadily, but strongly moving, Lafe is onward evermore, Still the present age improving On the age that went before.

Duty points, with outstretched fingers-Every soul to action high; Was betides the sould that lingers! Ouward! onward! is the cry-

Though man's fees may seem victorious, War may waste and famine blight Still from out the conflict glorious, Mind comes forth with added light.

O'er the darkest night of sorrow, From the deadliest field of strife, Dawns a clearer, brighter morrow, Springs a truer, nobler life.

Oaward, onward, onward ever ! Human progress nene may stay, All who make the vain endeavor, Shall like the chaff be swept away.
