

FAMILY CHRONICLE.

Heaven.

Religious party is peculiarly to be prized especially when it possesses the grace and the sweetness of the following, transcribed from an old newspaper printed at Aberdeen, Scotland.

There is a land of calm delight To sorrowing mortals given; There rapturous scenes enchant the sight, And all to soothe their souls unite; Sweet is their rest in heaven.

There glory beams on all the plains, And joy for hope is given; There music swells in sweetest strains, And spotless beauty ever reigns, And all is love in heaven.

There cloudless skies are ever bright; Thence gloomy scenes are driven; There suns dispense unswerving light, And planets beaming on the sight, Illume the fields of heaven.

There is a stream that ever flows, To passing pilgrims given; There fountains from immortal groves; The verdant flower eternal blows Amid the field of heaven.

There is a great and glorious prize, For those with sin who've striven 'Tis bright as star of evening skies, And far above it glittering lies, A golden crown in heaven.

A Word to Boys.

Be Polite.—Study the graces, not the graces of the dancing master, of bowing and scraping nor the foppish indelicate etiquette of a Chesterfield; but benevolence, the graces of the heart, whatever things are true, honest, just, pure, lovely and of good report. The true secret of politeness is, to please to make happy—flowing from goodness of heart—a fountain of love. As you leave the family circle for retirement, say good night—when you rise, good morning. Do you meet or pass a friend in the street, bow gracefully, with the usual salutation. Wear a hedge on your neck—keep it well oiled. And above all, study Solomon and the epistles of Paul.

Be Civil.—When the rich Quaker was asked the secret of his success in life, answered, "Civility, friend, civility."—Some people unconvincing, sour, sullen, morose, crabbed, crusty, haughty, really clownish, and impudent. Run for your life! "Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him."

Be Kind to Everybody.—There is nothing like kindness, it sweetens everything. A single look of love, a smile, a grasp of the hand, has gained more friends than both wealth and learning. "Charity saffeth long, and is kind."

Never Strike Back.—That is, never render evil for evil. Some boys give eye for eye, tooth for tooth, blow for blow, kick for kick, little boys, hark! What says Solomon? "Sorely the chafing of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife." "Recompense to no man evil for evil; but evil with good." "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you."

Avoid Vicious, common-place or slang phrases such as "by jinks," "first-rate," "dill hot," &c. Sating is not merely vulgar, but sinful—a species of gambling. Gentlemen never bet.

Think Before you Speak.—Think twice, thing what to speak, how to speak, when to speak, to whom to speak; and withal hold up your head and look the person to whom you are speaking full in the face, with modest dignity and assurance. Some lads have a foolish, sheepish, bashfulness, sheer off-hand down their heads and eyes as if they were guilty of sheep-stealing! Never be ashamed to do right.

The Dandy and His Turkey.

Chief Justice Marshall was in the habit of going to market himself, and carrying home his purchases. Frequently he would be seen at sunrise, with poultry in one hand and vegetables in the other. On one of these occasions a fashionable young man from L., was sweating violently, because he could find no one to carry home his turkey; Marshall stepped up and said to him:

"This is my way, and I will take it for you."

When he came to the house the young man inquired: "What shall I say you?"

"O, nothing," said the Chief Justice, "it was on my way home" and no trouble.

"Who was that polite old man that brought home my turkey?" inquired the young man of a bystander.

That," replied he, "is John Marshall, Chief Justice of the United States."

"Why did he bring home my turkey?" asked the young man.

"To give you a severe reprimand, and teach you to attend to your own business," was the reply.

True, genuine greatness never feels alone doing any thing that is useful, but especially the truly great man will never feel alone helping himself.

Cobbet said: "Woman so amiable in themselves, are never so amiable as when they are useful; and for beauty though men may fall in love with girls at play, there is nothing to make them stand their love like seeing them at work."

One of 'Em.—A lady thief has been arrested in Baltimore, for stealing a bag of buck-wheat meal. She had on at the time of her arrest a splendid gold watch and a heavy gold chain.

"I got some but in the bargain," as the fellow said when he was kicked out of the museum the other night.

DR. SWAYNE'S CELEBRATED Family Medicines.

DR. SWAYNE'S WILD CHERRY Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. CHEERING NEWS FOR THE SICK.

THE universal celebrity which this valuable medicine is gaining throughout the United States, and the many astonishing cures it is constantly performing, has proved it to be, beyond all doubt, the only safe and certain cure for pulmonary Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting Blood, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, Tickling or Rising in the throat, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, or any symptoms of Consumption.

If the bowels are costive, a mild purgative should be resorted to occasionally. Dr. Swayne's Sarsaparilla Pills will be found a valuable acquisition to the Wild Cherry, and will prove a valuable medicine where an aperient is required.—Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is a medicine which has stood the test of experience and it used according to the directions (as described in Dr. Swayne's Guide to Health) seldom fails. The above pamphlet is well worth a perusal.

ANOTHER HOME CERTIFICATE. DR. SWAYNE'S Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is all it professes to be the greatest medicine in the known world.

Of all the cures that have ever been recited we may safely say that the annals of medicine cannot furnish one to surpass this, which now stands as a living proof of the curability of Consumption even when life had been despaired of.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir:—For the good of the public, I felt myself in duty bound to testify to the great cure which your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry performed on me. For my part, I feel as if every body ought to know it. I was afflicted with a violent cough, spitting of blood, night sweats, hoarseness, and sound of the voice indicating an alarming state of disease: my appetite was gone, and my strength had so far failed me, that my friends and physicians were persuaded I could not survive many days. My sister, who was my anxious care-taker made inquiry where she would be likely to procure most certain relief. She was told that if Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry failed in the cure, my life was then hopeless. Your medicine was immediately procured, and the first bottle gave relief, and by the time I had commenced the sixth bottle, my cough had left me, and my strength much improved. In short, it has made a perfect cure of me; and I am at present as hearty a man as I wish, and I have good reason to believe that the use of your medicine has saved me from a premature grave. I shall be pleased to give any information respecting my case. Yours with respect,

ISAAC MORRIS REEVES, No. 115 Chestnut St., between Race and Vine, Phila.

To PUBLIC SPEAKERS.—Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry will be found a valuable article. By its use the voice is rendered clear, and all dissonant vibrations removed.—All should avail themselves of the opportunity to test this valuable compound!

Important Caution—Read!! Read!! There is but one genuine preparation of Wild Cherry, and that is Dr. Swayne's the first ever offered to the public, which has been sold largely throughout the United States and some parts of Europe, and all preparations called by the name of Wild Cherry, have been put out since this under cover of some descriptive circumstances, in order to give currency to their sales. By a little observation, no person need mistake the genuine for the false. Each bottle of the genuine is enveloped with a beautiful steel engraving with the likeness of William Penn thereon; also, Dr. Swayne's signature; and as a further security, the portrait of Dr. Swayne will be added hereafter so as to distinguish his preparation from all others.

Now, if it was not for the great curative properties and beneficial qualities of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, persons would not be endeavoring to give currency to their sales, by using the name of Wild Cherry.—Remember, always bear in mind the name of Dr. Swayne, and be not deceived.

Principal office, corner of Eighth and Race sts., Philadelphia.

WORMS! WORMS!! WORMS!!!

For many years I have made it my study to outperform a medicine which would be effectual in expelling Worms, and at the same time be very pleasant for the suffering Infant or Adult. Beyond a doubt I have now obtained that article which is in my more pleasant and effectual remedy than any other Vermifuge of the present day.—To see the little sufferer stretched with the excruciating pains of worms, and to see the mother weeping over her child, is a sight which is too painful to be described, even so common as it is to be seen. I have now a remedy which is so pleasant, as to be taken by the most delicate.

DR. SWAYNE, Sole Proprietor. You also have in my Vermifuge a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, sour stomach, &c.

Beware of Imposition.

SWAYNE'S Vermifuge is so common that being recently changed to prevent counterfeits, also to pack a better advantage with the following words below in the Glass.—In Dr. Swayne's Vermifuge, Philadelphia, also enclosed in a beautiful wrapper, bearing the signature of Dr. Swayne, with his portrait on each side of the bottle, without which none is genuine. This article is so pleasant to the taste, that both children and adults are universally fond of it.

Remember the genuine is the Portrait of Dr. Swayne, on each side of the bottle. For Sale wholesale and retail by E. P. LUTZ, J. R. Meyer, Bloomsburg.—Also by Sloan & Thompson, Light Street; J. H. Hoopes, Columbia; T. K. Millard, Egypttown; and Dr. Wilson, Berwick. Sept. 30, 1848.—1y.

CALIFORNIA GOLD!

Discovered by Signor D'Alvarez's Goldometer! Gold Seeker's Guide. Or Secret art of finding Mines of Gold, Silver, Iron, Lead, Copper, Coal, and other Mineral Riches.

THE first discovery of Gold in California was made by DON JOSE D'ALVAREZ, an eminent Spanish Geologist, Chemist and Mineral Philosopher, by means of a newly invented Magnetic Instrument, called the Goldometer, or Gold Seeker's Guide. This instrument is now in the hands of the undersigned, and is for sale at the following prices:—

For the Goldometer, and Gold Seeker's Guide, will both be sent by mail, closely enveloped and sealed, and therefore, not subject to inspection by Postmasters for the sum of Three Dollars, sent post paid to Signor Jose D'Alvarez, Box 2713, N. York City. The instrument is very light, and the charge by mail, or express, will be very small, in any part of the United States. The price of the Gold Seeker's Guide alone is One Dollar sent as above.—Address,

SIGNOR JOSE D'ALVAREZ, Box 2713, N. York City. For Office for the sale of the Gold Seeker's Guide and Goldometer, No. 38 Centre street, New York City, where visitors may see several cases of California Gold, in the rough state, as extracted by Signor D'Alvarez from the Sacramento Mines, and when held within the operation of the Goldometer, will hold within the magnetic power in which it indicates the presence of the gold and other magnetic substances. Feb. 24, 1849.—3m.

The Youth's Friend & Teachers' Companion.

THE Attention of Teachers, School Directors, and Parents, is respectfully invited to a series of Arithmetic, prepared and published by Mr. Simon Ticknor, a Teacher of twenty years' experience. They are called the Columbian Calculator, The Youth's Friend, and Teachers' Companion. A complete key to the above works will be had separate or together, Ticknor's Arithmetic tables.

The first named is already in the hands of some of the best Academies, and a large number of Schools, where its use has given universal satisfaction, both to Teachers and pupils. It has the claim also of being purely American in its character, based upon our own best decimal system of currency—and is considered by Teachers as the beginning of a new era in the department of science, by rejecting the old English system (from which nearly all our present Arithmetic are copied), of confining the pupil for years in the process of reducing pounds to farthings, and farthings to pence. This Book is strongly recommended by the Hon. Thomas H. Burton, the late Superintendent of our, and Father of our Commonwealth System, as one of the best Arithmetics in the market. It is also recommended by Mr. Olmstead, Professor of Mathematics in Lafayette College; Mr. Storer, Principal of the Preparatory Department of Gettysburg College; together with several hundred Teachers and Teachers in various sections of the country. It is also the cheapest Arithmetic in the market.

The Youth's Columbian Calculator, by the same Author, has just been issued. It contains 94 pages, with about 500 examples for solution on the slate; it embraces the fundamental rules, Compound Rules, Simple and Compound Reduction, Single rule of Three, or Proportion, &c.

Teachers who have examined this work since its publication, are of the opinion that it is just what is very much wanted at this time in our District Schools as a Primary Arithmetic for those commencing the study of numbers, for the reasons that these Primary Books now in use are either too general, or too far in advance of the pupil; in fact, that there has been no suitable Primary treatise on Arithmetic before the public. It is so believed that this volume will contain a sufficient amount of practical arithmetic, as will commonly occur in the transaction of ordinary business—more particularly in the Female Department of our District Schools, many of whom seldom learn the use of numbers as far as Reduction or Proportion, and as the work is intended, in part, for this class of pupils, great care and labor has been bestowed with a view to render every part perfectly plain and easy of comprehension by the pupil. The calculations are in "our currency," with the use of a few fractions, sufficient for general use, as a knowledge of fractions can be acquired to no the largest extent.

The key embraces several hundred examples in Arithmetic and Mensuration, and of equal value matter for the use of the Teacher. The examples are given in full with notes, explanations, illustrations, &c. &c.

"Ticknor's Arithmetic Tables," is designed for the use of younger classes in the Schools of the United States. This book is now published for the first time, and is considered by competent judges, the best Table Book in the market at present.

These volumes contain about three thousand six hundred original questions for solution, a greater amount of Arithmetical Science than has ever been published in the American system, in this or any other country, and are destined to become the text-books of the Union, being purely American in their character, and adapted equally to the wants of the student, the man of business, the Merchant, and the Artist. They ought to be introduced immediately into every common school in the country.

These books are for sale, wholesale or retail at the Store of Hildy & Mendall, by S. MENDALL, Agent, for Col. County. Where Teachers and school directors are respectfully requested to call and examine the book or the authors. June 17, 1848.—(Sept. 20, '47).
